Prizes were awarded Misses Margaret Brinsfield and Susie Frazier for essays on the subject of Temperance by the W. C. T. U.

On the stage beside the participants were Mr. W. B. Copper, president of the School Board and trustees, Messrs. Chas. S. Smith, T. S. Bordley and D. Arthur Bacchus.

DON'T forget the Rock Hall festival at St. John's Church.

Ladies' Low Shoes That Please

Every woman admires a well shod foot. Neat and attractive footwear accurately reflect her taste as emphatically as does the rest of her apparel. The attractive styles, perfect fit and general appearance of our Oxfords carry conviction. The combination of style and comfort is hard to resist.

We only ask the opportunity of showing the new style and demostrating their superior fitting qualities.

Why Should I Wear Crawford Shoes?

CRAWFORD SHOES

BECAUSE!

We have found out time and time again that Crawford Shoes talk for themselves, even better than we can talk for them. Ask any of your friends whose shoes have that exclusive custom look, where style and comfort stick out in every part; what shoe he wears. We know he will say, nearly every time

They Are Crawfords

We never misrepresent the Crawford Shoe. We never mislead Crawford wearers.

Because they are all and more than we claim for them.

Because Carwford shoes are made with honor and sold on merit

Because the styles are many, modish and manly.

Because the Crawford price means a sure saving on every pair of shoes purchased.

All we ask is that you let us show you our new summer models We know the styles will appeal to you.

$3.50 and $4.00

We don't keep Crawford Shoes—we sell them.

Saturday evening the Pieria Literary Society of young ladies gave a reception to their selected friends at Normal Hall. Music was furnished by a Wilmington orchestra.

Sunday morning the Very Rev. Edward R. Rich, Dean of Trinity Cathedral, Easton, preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates, his theme being "Courage." It was a lofty theme presented in a Rich style and forceful manner. Special music was rendered by a picked choir under the professional leadership of that matchless director, Mrs. James W. Cain. The soloists were Misses Eva Hurlock, Mary Rogers, Mary Ahern and Mrs. Cain; Messrs. Lesmond Fitzgerald, A. M. Culp and James H. Shuster. Dr. H. B. Martin, directed the service.

At night the sermon to the Christian Associations was preached by Rev. Leonard B. Smith, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Baltimore, and a graduate of W. C. in the class of 1904 His theme was "Imperishable Meats," and the young man made a favorable impression. He presented the subject in a convincing manner and couched his thoughts in well-rounded sentences. Dr. F. T. Little directed the service.

with each cash purchase; these certificates mean a great saving, being redeemable for many useful articles. Ask for a catalogue giving full list of articles given in exchange for certificates. Be sure to get your certificates with each cash purchase which are equal to 10 per cent. discount.

Dainty Oxfords

Brother George's Shoes are no longer correct. Women's tastes have swung back to a love of dainties.

One's foot is to be clothed as carefully as one's hand, and the high arched, full instep foot looks its prettiest in Oxfords or Colonials. They are the very correct—but keep on the side of daintiness in choosing the style. BUT OXFORDS MUST FIT—THAT'S THE CHARM. Yet two-thirds of the Oxfords do not fit. We pertect the fit of all and therein lies the success of this shoe store at oxford selling.

Ladies, who have looked about tell us that there isn't a stock of Oxfords in town to compare with ours. All widths and sizes—and the best selected leathers.
