Flower Cure For Flies.—The confectioners's shop was quite free of flies, though all the cakes and sweetmeats were uncovered. "That mignonette," said he, "is what keeps the flies away. We have it in pots all over the place. The odor is so unpleasant to flies that that they won't come near us. I got the idea from the South. There the butchers and confectioners always have mignonette growing in their shops, and they can expose their wares without any fear of flies' attacks.

Chickens Burned.—One hundred young chickens, which would have made choice and highly-esteemed broilers for the hungry and the epicures of the cities, were cremated at the burning of the barn of John Grace near Magnolia. His 5-year-old son made a bonfire under a carriage with a little pile of straw and a match. Mr. Grace was severely burned about the head, trying to save his driving horse.

WEDDING BELLS

Miss Sutton Wedded From Wells Hospital—Miss Tarr, of Baltimore, Married.

ATKINSON—BIGELOW.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church on Wednesday evening, June 24. The contracting parties were Mr. Joshua B. Atkinson, of Edesville, to Miss Elma Rebecca Bigelow, of Rock Hall. The bride was tastefully attired in white and wore bride's roses in her hair. Rev. Mr. Compher officiated.

MORRIS—LATHROUM.

Mr. James B. Morris and Miss Ethel C. Lathroum, who is well-known in Chestertown, where she has spent many summers the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Coleman, were married by Rev. G. D. Gosard, pastor of Salem United Brethren Church, last Wednesday. The young couple will make their home with the latter's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sheiblein, Baltimore. The bride was handsomely attired in blue silk, with gloves and hat to match, while the groom wore the conventional black.

MOFFETT—ANDERSON.

As announced last week the wedding of Samuel T. Moffett, of Still Pond, and Miss Mary J. Anderson, of Cecilton, took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary R. W. Anderson, on Wednesday of last week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. E. Jones, of Zion M. E. Church, in the presence of a few friends. The home was beautifully trimmed with everg een, roses and potted plants, while an arch of roses spanned the bridal altar. The bride neatly attired in blue serge entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, Prof. Robert Anderson, of Shenandoah Military Academy, Winchester, Va., who gave her away. Miss Clara B. Manlove played the Wedding march. After the ceremony refreshments were served. A trip to the mountains of Western Maryland and Virginia was made.

MOORE—TARR.

Miss Lillian Tarr, daughter of Patrolman R. Simpers Tarr, of the Southwestern police district, and formerly of Kent, was married to Dr. Cicero J. Moore, of Terryville, Ct., at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, 514 North Mount street, by Rev. George D. Adams, pastor of Brantly Baptist Church. The immediate relatives of the bride were the only attendants. The bride was attired in a gown of white French mulle, trimmed in German val lace. Her going-away suit was of blue, with hat to match. A reception followed the ceremony. The happy couple left at 10 o'clock for New York and to visit friends in Connecticut, after which they will go to Terryville, Ct., where the groom is engaged in the practice of dentistry. Dr. Moore is a graduate of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, receiving his diploma from that institution about three years ago. While in Baltimore he attended Brantly Baptist Church, where Miss Tarr also attended. They sang together in the choir, and warm friendship soon ripened into love.

FITZSIMON—MORGAN.

Miss Ursula Juliet Morgan, daughter of Mrs. John B. Morgan, and niece of J. Pierpont Morgan, was married Tuesday to the Rev. William FitzSimon, rector of St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Church of Tuxedo. The Rev. Mr. FitzSimon was formerly of the New Castle Rectory and was received into the Episcopal Church by Bishop Coleman, at the time he was located in Cecilton, in a small charge, where the [illegible] was hardly sufficient to keep him [illegible] interior of St. Mary's Church, where the wedding ceremony was performed, was profusely decorated with seasonable flowers and quantities of palms and ferns. The ushers, who found their occupation a trying and extremely warm one, were John Junius Morgan, a brother of the bride; J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., Alfred Seton, Otto C. Andree, William Kent, George C. Kent and Dr. J. D. Prince.

The bride entered the church with her uncle, J. Pierpont Morgan, who gave her away. She was attired in a beautiful gown of soft white satin embellished with some rare old point lace. Her veil, of lace, was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms and several tiny jeweled pins. At the close of the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for Table Rock, the magnificent estate of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hamilton, at Sterlington, five miles away, where a reception and wedding breakfast were held. Mr. and Mrs. FitzSimon are to spend their honeymoon in Europe. The presents amounted to more than a million dollars so that the poor country parson will not want for funds soon.

MINER—SUTTON.

Miss Susan Elizabeth Sutton, daughter of Mrs. John C. Sutton, of Baltimore, but recently of Worton, and Daniel Barlow Miner, of Catskill, N. Y., were married in historic Christ Church, Rochester, N. Y., last week in the presence of a large assemblage of friends. The edifice was artistically decorated with palms and ferns.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Elisha B. Joyce, rector of the parish, assisted by Rev. J. W. Sutton, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Baltimore, a brother of the bride.

The bride, who is a very attractive young woman, made a charming picture in a gown of point d'esprit, over white silk. A veil, caught to the head in coronet fashion by orange blossoms, fell in misty folds about her slender figure. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was given away by her brother, H. G. Sutton, of Baltimore.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Cushman, of New York, a sister of the bridegroom. She was gowned in a pale yellow silk mulle and carried a shower bouquet of roses.

The best man was Mr. Cushman, of New York, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom

The ushers, who were all Beta Theta Pi men, were George Mount, of Atlantic Highlands, '04; Daniel Safford, Rutgers '08; Harry Noble, of Catskill, N. Y., and John Ross MacNeill, of Brooklyn.

After the ceremony the bridal party went to the Wells Hospital, where the bride had been assistant superintendent, and enjoyed a wedding supper, after which they left for New York, by way of Plainfield, by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner left for San Jose, Cal., this morning, where their future home is to be, Mr. Miner being engaged in the brokerage business there.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, consisting of cut glass, silver, furniture, linen, etc.

The bride, who has been connected with the Wells Memorial Hospital some time, has made a large circle of friends while in that city by her winsome ways. The wedding is the culmination of a romance begun in the hospital, Mr. Miner having fallen in love with his wife while calling upon Royal Arthur Stout, of the Theological Seminary, who underwent an operation for appendicitis some time ago there.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Rutgers College, class of '06, and was very popular during his college course. A singular coincidence with the wedding is that two of the ushers were patients at the hospital last winter for scarlet fever, Messrs. Noble and MacNeill.

EDWARDS—Suddenly on June 24th, 1908, at 12.30 A. M., at his son's residence on Park Heights avenue, near Rogers Avenue, THOMAS H. EDWARDS, aged 85 years.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving rememberance of our dear mother, MRS. MARY C. MILLER, who departed this life one year ago.

We miss thee from our home, dear mother,
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow oe'r our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee—
We miss thee everywhere.
The vacant place, the empty chair,
We see them day by day;
And Oh! it fills our hearts with care
Since our loved one went away.

BY HER CHILDREN.

A VALUABLE MARE belonging to Dr. Chaires became frightened at a passing automobile while hitched to a picket fence in Winchester Monday afternoon and made a plunge for liberty. She landed on the fence, and one of the pickets penetrated her loin thirteen inches. The doctor led the horse home. Wm. S. Delahay went to Quaker Neck in his yacht "Dixie" after Dr. Jarman, a veterinary, but when he arrived he said the case was hopeless and ordered the horse shot.

Dainty Oxfords

Brother George's Shoes are no longer correct. Women's tastes have swung back to a love of dainties.

One's foot is to be clothed as carefully as one's hand, and the high arched, full instep foot looks its prettiest in Oxfords or Colonials. They are the very correct—but keep on the side of daintiness in choosing the style. BUT OXFORDS MUST FIT—THAT'S THE CHARM. Yet two-thirds of the Oxfords do not fit. We pertect the fit of all and therein lies the success of this shoe store at oxford selling.

Ladies, who have looked about tell us that there isn't a stock of Oxfords in town to compare with ours. All widths and sizes—and the best selected leathers.
