Master Norris Colyer who some time ago suffered a fracture of his right wrist met with another accident on Saturday last. As he was passing under the E. N. Island bridge in a gasoline canoe he was struck by the bridge and knocked backward in the bottom of the boat and had his lower lip severely cut through. If the young man keeps up these shindigs he will be a candidate for staying ashore from oystering and Sun will become first mate.

'Squire Wilkins court presented a lively scene on Monday when the late murder was investigated. While the whole thing is deplorable and expensive to the county yet there is general gratification over the fact that the perpetrators have been caught. Kent's officials are to be commended for their faithful work.

Hook and line fishing off Swan Point has become quite interesting to our watermen. Capt. G. T. Sewell went to the city early Monday to procure ice for the accommodation of the fishermen. This revival of an old industry however is not interfering with preparations for oyster season. Owing to the purse net fishing being discontinued there will be very many more tongers beginning with the opening of the season than there have been for many years. The greater bulk of the operations will be in Chester river during September as the oysters there are much finer than the bayside oysters. The outlook for September is not encouraging, but it is thought when the weather sales to steady fall temperature the business will be satisfactory in catch and prices.

Tuesday night's storm played havoc with fruit in this section.

Vacation days are nearly over. Soon our teachers will be strugling to control young minds and pupils will be tackling vexatious problems. Our principal has led a strenuous life during the vacation in getting in fine shape and making into his new house as a consequence the youngster will have no kinks in his physique to straighten out when he resumes his place in the school room. The assistants have enjoyed their vacation and are in splendid trim for assuming their school room duty. The school building with its new coat of paint and pleasing surroundings has the most inviting appearance in its history. The Trustees have the thanks of the faculty, pupils and patrons for the fine appearance of the school property.

In the death of Miss Sadie Pearce, E. N. Island has lost one of its most estimable young ladies. Her remains were brought down from the city by steamer on Tuesday and funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon. Interment was made in Wesleyan cemetery. Undertaker Casey in charge.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear Husband and son, Elmer R. Stevens, who departed this life one year ago Aug. 26, 1907.

Farewell, Farewell my Husband dear,
We spent one sad and lonely year,
You left me with an aching heart
That sad morning you and I did part.

Gone in the best of his days,
Blighted in manhoods bloom
Torn from the heart that loved him
To sleep in the silent tomb.

BY HIS LOVING WIFE

We miss you papa, Oh, so much,
You whom we loved so well,
How much we dearly loved you
No one but God can tell.

LITTLE SON VERNON.

One year has passed but still I miss him
Friends may think the wound is healed
But little they know of the sorrow
That lies within my heart concealed.

Farewell dear son, but not forever
For there will be a glorious dawn.
I hope we will meet to part no never,
On that Resurrection morn.

LOVING MOTHER.

The depths of my sorry no tongue can tell
At the loss of the one I love so well,
While he lies in peaceful sleep
Loving remembrance of him I will faithfully keep.

SISTER CLARA

Oh! now sudden was the summons.
When word came that he was dead
Time was too short to say farewell
To those he loved so well.

SISTER LILLIE.
