Mr. A. J. Hackett and Rev. E. H. Collins attended the Epworth League convention at Stevensville Kent Island, this week.

Still Pond M. E. Church will celebrate its 120th anniversary of the first mention in Asbury's Journal of preaching in Still Pond church in 1788. From the text "Simon satan hath desired to have you that he might sift you as Wheat." Stating that he had some freedom in preaching. Just when the first church was built we have no positive record but it was some time before this date mentioned above, for as early as 1772 mention is made in Asbury's Journal of preaching to many people rich and poor at Mr. John Randal's, Kent county. Tradition has it that Mr. Randal lived where Mr. Wm. G. Rasin now lives near here. If this be true Still Pond was among the first preaching places in Kent county, if not the first. There is great reason then why the people should gather at this old Historic Church next Sunday—also we will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the rebuilding of the present church under the pastorate of Dr. L. E. Barrett, now pastor of the Elkton Methodist Episcopal church. The records show that in the last week in July, 1882, work was commenced on Still Pond church looking to a remodeling and improvement of the entire building. That the following were the building committee: F. H. Harper, chairman; James S. Harris, George W. Davis, J. Frank Wilson, Joseph, Clinton and Louis Barrett. On Dec. 1st, 1882, work was suspended on the church until the following spring and was commenced again in May, 1883, and the old church was changed as it now stands today, at a cost of $9,140. The church was reopened and rededicated on Sunday, Oct. 28, 1883. Rev. J. S. Willis and Rev. J. H Caldwell assisted the pastor, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, over $6,000 raised at the reopening service. Showing the great strength of the church financially at that time. Only a very few of these men mentioned above remain to join with us in this celebration. Only one among the layman, Bro. J. S. Harris, and Rev. L. E. Barrett, of the ministry The other names of the men whom God in his wise providence have called to a better life beyond the grave. Let the memory of their noble lives, and the sacrifices they made for the advancement of the Master's kingdom be a stimulant to all that are left to carry on the blessed work, until we too, are called to the blessed fellowship of the saint on high at his right hand.

The following is the programme for our anniversary and Home Coming Sunday, Nov. 1st 1908. The opening service will take place at 9.30 A. M. when the Sunday School will give their Rally Day service in their beautiful Sunday School room. Mr. A. J. Hacket, supt., who extends a cordial welcome to all scholars and Sunday School workers and all friends who have been in any way connected with Still Pond Sunday School. Be sure to be present at this opening service. Besides the Rally Day programme wi l be a short address made by Sunday School workers.

At 10.45 the service will be held in the main audience room and after the opening service Brother J. S. Harris will address the audience on "The review of the past 25 years,"—he being the only member among the laymen of the building committee of 1883 now living. This address alone would more than repay you for coming. Following this address will be the anniversary sermon by Rev. S. W. Thomas, D. D., of Philadelphia, the oldest living preacher that ever served Still Pond charge. Those of you who have ever heard Dr. Thomas will be glad of this opportunity to hear him again, and those who have never listened at his sermons don't miss this great chance.

The evening service at 7.30 will be given up to the Epworth League. There will be a union service between the Still Pond and Betterton Leagues and all other Epworthians or Christian Endeavors and all young people, and everybody who will are asked to be present at this young people service. The Betterton League choir will assist the Still Pond choir in the singing for this service. The president desires a choir of 30 or 40 voices. The Epworthians and all the young people are requested to meet in the Sunday School room at 7 o'clock and march to the main audience room in a body. The anniversary address to the young people and all friends of the young people will be given by Rev. D. J. Givan, President of Easton District Epworth League and pastor of the M. E. Church of Odessa, Del. Don't miss this address. Dr. Thomas will also address the audience if time permits. Opportunity will be given during the day for those desiring to join the church. And now friends we send out this invitation, bidding you come to our Anniversary and Home Coming service. We assure you a hearty welcome awaits you.

Dodd, funeral director.

Perfect submission, all is at rest
In my Saviour, happy and blest,
Watching and waiting, looking above;
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love.

IN MEMORIAM.

Near Rock Hall on October 18th, 1908, Genevra L. Wilson, age 14 years, 4 months, died on Sunday at the home of her parents, Alpheus L. and Matildia A. Wilson, of pneumonia.

No words or pen can eer express,
All the anguish, all the pain
Of this parting, and the waiting
To see our absent ones again.
MAMA.

But when this sad, sad life is o'er,
Then all the gloom departs,
And Oh, what joy when we shall clasp,
Our darling to our hearts.
PAPA.

Forever are hushed the voices so sweet,
And forever still are the gladsome feet;
Our darlings have gone and we must wait,
Till he calls us, too, thro' the shining gate.
UNCLE HARRY.

With sorrowful hearts we are today,
For our loved one has passed away.
The evening of life had scarce begun
When the darkness fell and the day was done.
AUNT MAMIE.

Dear Genevra we will meet to part no more.
A FRIEND, ANNA E. FORD.

She's gone, but was so young and fair.
She slumbers sweet but knows no care.
Her heart was true, her life was young,
Yet not our will but God's be done.
A FRIEND, ANNIE C. ASHLEY.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were adopted at the Sunday School and Epworth League convention which was held in the colored M. E. Church at Melitota on Oct. 15.

Whereas the violation of the Local option Law is prevalent in our county, and whereas the said violation as we believe has been the cause of the increase of crime in Kent Co.

Resolved: That we the members of this Convention stand ready to aid the officers of the law in their effort to surpress this awful crime.

Be it further resolved, that we highly endorse the work done by the colored detective in this county.
