Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

THE 2nd annual exhibition of the Md. Cereal & Forage Crop Breeders Association will be held at the 5th Regiment Armory, Baltimore, on Dec. 1, 2 & 3. W. Irving Walker is president of the Association.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving remembrance of my dear friend, Richard Spence Wickes, who departed this life one year ago Nov. 25th, 1907.

The depths of sorrow tongue cannot tell,
For the loss of a friend I loved so well,
And while he rests in peaceful sleep,
His sacred memory I will always keep.

BY A VERY DEAR FRIEND.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

"Helpfulness and unspotedness from the world, the text of religion," was the theme of a forceful and eyeopening sermon on Sunday morning by Rev. J. T. Richardson at the M. E. Church. The text was pure religion and undefiled before God, and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction and to keep himself unspoted from the world. A large congregation seemed deeply impressed with the preacher's discourse.

Revival meetings continue through this week. Pastor and people had the pleasure of hearing Rev. C. M. Compher of the M. P. Church preach a strong sermon at the Thursday night meeting of last week. A few have professed conversion. The church has a big fight on its hands to counteract the numerous attractions of the town, but if the battle is the Lord's, victory is sure. There is no cause for complaining.

Third Quarterly Conference will be held this Saturday (evening), and Dr. W. G. Koons, Dist. Supt., will preach tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. S. J. Wickes is spending a two weeks visit among friends in the city.

Mr. O. P. Leary is all by his lonesome while madame is enjoying a visit to her children and grandchild, of Winchester, Queen Anne's county.

Smith brothers, on Ellendale farm, are having their old peach orchard uprooted, but they haven't lost all faith in peaches, as they are setting out a young orchard. They also have a frolicsome bovine, who takes delight in causing the tree diggers to take any route to avoid his horns. Nor does he stop there, but also routes our genial Dr. Beale when in pursuit of bunny and bird.

Our hustling young merchant M. T. Miller is ever on the alert for the "tin." He has added a new line to his business, that of stove polishing. It is a little tough on the clerks, but it pays. Mr. Og Leary is trade drummer for the concern.

The splendid weather of the fall has been extremely beneficial to our oystermen. As a rule the men have done well. A few weeks longer of such good work our section will be O. K. for the winter.

A number of our merchants have received their Christmas goods and are maneuvering for display room.

The town will soon have the light turned on. Workmen have planted the lamp posts.

With services held in the M. E. Church nightly and R. C. Church day and night, the moving picture show and bowling alley also in nightly operation, there is no lack of attraction for the people of this section. Each attraction is largely attended.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Arthur Tyler and daughter, of Frostburg, Md., are the guests of Mrs. Jennie Johnson.

Mrs. C. W. Moore is visiting her mother in Baltimore.

Miss Madeline Wilson, of Wilmington, spent the first of the week with her aunt, Mrs. John Gillespie.

Misses Martha and Myrtle Phillips, of Sudlersville, spent last Saturday with Miss Alice Turner.

Rev. C. W. Moore began a series of extra meetings at Massey Church last Monday evening.

The Epworth League of Trinity M. E Church held a sociable at the home of Mr. George Jones last Thursday evening. The sociable was well attended and greatly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Taylor spent Thanksgiving with friends in Holmesburg, Pa.

Mr. Harry Talbott, of State Road, Del., was in town last Thursday.

Mr. John Manning's new and up-to-date store and dwelling has been completed and he moved in this week. This store adds greatly to the appearance of the street.

A number of people in our town and vicinity killed hogs this week.

Mr. C. M. Hurtt offered a reward of $25 for information concerning the person or persons who broke the plate glass window of his store one night last week.

The peaceful slumbers of the people living in the heart of the town were greatly disturbed last Saturday night by a fight among a crowd of rowdies on the street. The cause of it—whiskey.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Annie Schofield, widow of the late Capt. Jack Schofield, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Woodall, in Baltimore, last Friday afternoon, of paralysis, aged 66 years. She leaves four sons and two daughters. The remains were brought to Kent via the Betterton steamer last Saturday and rested at the home of her son, Mr. John Schofield. Low mass was held on Monday at St. Dennis church by Father Daly. The interment was at Georgetown in the Presbyterian cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of funeral arrangements.

STILL POND NOTES.

Miss Henrietta Merritt, one of our teachers, spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Baltimore.

Rev. Mr. Cox and wife, of Marydel were the guests of Mrs. E. H. Collins, over Sunday. Mr. Cox filled Brother Collins' pulpit during the day.

Mr. J. B. Parrott has been away the past week in Talbot county gunning.

Mrs. John Schofield a former resident of our town died at the home of her daughter in Baltimore on Friday last. The remains were brought to her son's home, Mr. John Schofield, and interment in Georgetown cemetery on Monday. Wm. H. Krusen had charge of funeral arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price entertained a few of their friends to a Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday.

Mrs. Mattie Nulin, of Wilmington, has been the guest of Mrs. E. H. Collins during the week.

Miss Katie Capps is the guest of her cousin Mrs. William Cooper, of Worton.

Mrs. W. D. Pennington has been visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. Baynard Harper, of Baltimore, spent the holidays with his mother Mrs. Lavina Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harper, of Brooklyn, are the guests of his father, Mr. George W. Harper.

Mr. Laurie Hackett has returned home after spending some time with his sister in Baltimore.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Religious services of an interesting character were held last Sunday in the Old Historic M. E. Church. The entire of last week they were held in the Rehoboth M. P. Church with good effect and we trust there will be a great awakening.

Miss Agnes Clark, of Middletown, Del., was entertained for several days by her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Dreka, at "Water Ledge."

Miss Fannie Johnson entertained a party of friends at luncheon on Thursday from Middletown.

Mr. James E. Woodall, Jr., of Georgetown, Md., one of our wide awake young business men passed through Sassafras en route for Middletown on Sunday in his beautiful automobile looking radient.

Miss M. Cogan, of Bryn Marr, Pennsylvania, is being entertained at beautiful "Water Ledge" by Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Dreka and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Satterfield, of Chestertown, Md., is being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. McIntire, of Galena.

Don't forget the services that are to be held on Sunday morning next, Nov. 29, in the M. P. Rehoboth Church, preaching to the Jr. O. U. A. M. at ten o'clock. This is intended to be our Thanksgiving serviees. A very fine program of music will be one of the interesting features.

Quite a number of our Catholic friends attended the services in the Catholic church at Middletown on Sunday evening. The music was of a very high order.

Mrs. John Price, of near Warwick, a sister of Mrs. John F. Ernest has been very sick for the past week but is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mr. I. McIntyre visited his daughter Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thornly, accompanied by Mr. Charles Satterfield on Sunday.

Miss Tressa Dreka has returned home after an extended visit accompanied by Miss M. Cogan, of Bryn Mar, Pa.

Mr. Clark Colgian and sister are visiting his uncle Mr. and Mrs. C. Clark, near Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosin entertained for dinner their pastor, Rev. C. M. Cullum, on Sunday.

Messrs. John R. Ernest and J. Pane Rosin are visiting their parents here for the entire week, they will return to their college in Wilmington, Monday.

Will Move to Baltimore.—Mr. Robert Ellis, for several years prescription clerk in Stam's Drug store, Chestertown, will take charge of a desirable drug store on Calvert St. Baltimore. Mr. Ellis and wife will leave Chestertown next week for his new field, They have made many friends in Chestertown who regret their departure.

"AUNT" JANE MCCOMAS, a worthy old colored woman, died at the home of Commissioner A. C. Loud in Quaker Neck on Sunday last. She was about 83 years of age and had lived in the Loud family for about 30 years. A more estimable colored woman would be hard to find and during her last days she had every attention possible from Mr. Loud and his family.

FOGS this week have seriously interferred with steamboat travel and in some instances have caused railroad wrecks. Passengers at Tolchester and other wharves Monday arrived in Baltimore 8 p. m. While on Tuesday there was but little improvement. Capt. Taylor of the Ford, piloted his boat to Baltimore Monday arriving only a half hour late and had equal success Tuesday.

NEWSY KERNELS

LOCAL buyers have been paying $1.50 apiece for geese.

IT is reported that Chestertown is to have an Amusea for the colored people where moving pictures will be shown.

A MARRIAGE LICENSE was granted in Baltimore Monday to Grover C. Ashley, 24, Rock Hall, and Miss Florence E. Kerr, 25.

MR. ROBERTS, druggist of Easton, has succeeded in growing and ripening bananas. He had a samp e of his fruit in his store last week.

EDWARD, the sixteen-year-old son of Mr. Wm. Brown, fell off a load of fodder last Frid y and dislocated his shoulder. Drs. Simpers and Hines attended the patient.

A FINE HORSE belonging to MRS. J. H. Hessey died suddenly last Friday. John Bradshaw, colored, also lost a horse in front of Mr. George Hudson's gate, near town, the same day.

CAPT ASHLEY, of the Anna B. Smith, arrested 8 runners and 3 tongers off Jackson's Creek last week. Squire Coursey fined the runners $25 each and the tongers $10 each. All paid.

DUCK SHOOTING on Chester river has been enjoyed by lovers of the sport this week. Messrs. Edward Wilkins, Wilbur Eliason, Jr., H. P. Skipper, F. H. Duyer and others have bagged scores.

MR L. B. RUSSELL has secured a lease OF Stam's Hall for three years. It is reported that Mr. Russell will furnish to the public refined entertainments weekly, one of the main features of which will be moving pictures.

HON. W. J. BRYAN has bought 20 acres of ground in Texas where he will build a winter home. He is sure of getting into good Democratic company there. Mr. Bryan is traveling in Mexico studying government ownership for railroads.

OFFICER GETCHALL arrested Edward Kennard, a young white man and gave him a hearing before Justice Loud last Tuesday on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor contrary to law. The prisoner was held in $250 bail for Court.

"WASHINGTON COLLEGE furnishes to its students the best food of any college in the United States," is the verdict of a student of that institution! This certainly speaks well for Mr. and Mrs. Fitz Gerald who have charge of this department.

A SHIP load of turkeys, apples and nuts were sent to the naval fleet now in foreign waters. Lieut. Craven, of Chestertown, who is with the fleet, received marked attention from the Chinese officials, one of his presents being a set of furniture which he values highly.

SUPT. RUSK says the officials of the Pennsylvania railroad intend to ditch the whole road from Masseys to Chestertown. A gang of 45 men are now at work near Lambson's. It is estimated that it will cost about $500 to cut a regulation ditch through "Dodson's Cut."

A RICK of fodder on Mr. T. E. W. Crew's farm, Lankford, was discovered on fire 4 a. m. last Friday as Mr. C. was getting up. With the assistance of his wife and a colored boy the fire was confined to the small rick. The loss was about $115 which was covered by insurance.

THE Baltimore American calls for a "closed season" on human game, because twenty-one hunters have been shot and killed in Wisconsin since the opening of the bird season. How about the football record? There were many lives lost this year from this game! And automobiling.

R. HAGGERTY has purchased two pieces of property in Kennedyville from Mr. C. C. Ball. Mr. and Mrs. Ball, who for several years past have been residing in Kennedyville, have returned to Princess Anne, and moved into the house where the late Mrs. D. M. Adams resided at the time of her death.

WHILE digging around a hole in which a rabbit had disappeared Edward Woods and Thomas Dickinson, lumbermen employed near Oil City, Pa., uncovered an iron kettle containing $3,600 in gold coins and $22 in siver. Old residents of that section believe the money was buried by John Caldwell, an eccentric farmer, who died in an insane asylum nearly 30 years ago.

ON the charge of taking about $100 out of registered letters of the United States mails from the post-office at Easton, Md., Assistant Postmaster Jos. T. White, of that town, was taken to Baltimore last week by Postal Inspectors and was arranged before United States Commissioner Rogers. White waived a hearing, and was released on $2 500 bail for his appearance before the Federal Grand Jury of Baltimore.
