It Is Strange

How some people keep putting their money into various speculations and wild cat schemes.

Money for which they have worked hard and money that they can ill afford to lose!

How much better it would be to open a Savings Account with it and get INTEREST from

FEED FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONICS POWDERED
A SEPARATE PREPARATION
FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY

GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

THE working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from the same, would be no more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

The Fairfield Preparations are sold under written guarantee by

COURT NEXT WEEK.

The adjourned session of Circuit Court for Kent County will convene next Monday morning. There are four civil cases and two option cases to be tried so that the indications are for a short session. Judge Adkins is expected to preside as Judge Pearce will be busy at the Court of Appeals and at this writing Judge Hopper is sick at his home in Centreville.

WAYLAID ON ROAD.

Walter Meekins, driver for R. Thompson's meat wagon, returned from a trip to Worton Point Tuesday with a remarkable story. He said he was attacked on the road by two negroes, knocked senseless, pockets cut open and robbed, and he was dragged to a woods. He recovered, and walked to "Doc." Cooper's home who sent him to town. The wagon was brought to town by Mr. Carle Lynch who found it on the road near Melitota. Mr. Meekins had a bruise on his forehead, his pockets were cut and the $3.25 taken in for sales of meat, missing.

A LADDER TO WINDOW.

Miss Nannie Brice was alarmed at 1.30 A. M. Sunday by a colored man standing on a ladder placed up against her home at Mr. John D. Welch's on Queen street. Mrs. Welch, sister of Miss Brice was away from home, the only persons in the house being the two children, Miss Brice, and a colored servant, Fannie Mitchell. The man was seen running down the streets with a ladder on his shoulder.

Peter Glenn, a colored hostler at Mr. Charles H. Davis' livery, and a lover of Fanny Mitchell, was arrested. He stated that he left Fannie at midnight; soon after reaching the Davis livery he overheard some men go by talking about a ladder and going out in the yard saw that Mr. Davis' ladder was gone. He waited until 4 o'clock when he went to Sarah Cooper's on Maple avenue and found his employer's ladder! Robert Bailey lives next to Cooper and saw the man put the ladder over the yard fence early Sunday morning but cannot identify Glenn as the man.

Justice Loud did not deem the identification as clear and dismissed the prisoner with a severe lecture.
