ROCK HALL NOTES.

While Mr. B. H. Coburn was driving his randall harrow on Monday he fell off the seat and the harrow passed over his hand, cutting it badly.

Messrs. John Matthews and Charles Thompson, who have been residing here for several years, have determined to move back to Baltimore. We are all sorry to lose these splendid citizens.

Saturday night the business of this town was very brisk. W. Reybold Willson, the "noisy price merchant," was making the biggest kind of a "racket" at the Racket Store in his quick sales. Alexander's and Miller's stores had on an extra force of clerks.

Mrs. R. A. Shallcross has assumed her former position as organist at the M. E. Church, vice Miss Anna Mae Ayres, who has become an instructor at one of the up-the-county schools. It is pleasing to note Prof. W. H. Davis' connection with the Rock Hall Choir.

Miss Elsie Legg, of Quaker Neck, is the guest of her cousins, the Misses Ryan.

Mr. Hardesty, the wood, feed and hack man, is becoming quite feeble and requires constant watching.

Taylor fishing is fine. One man caught 90 bunches Wednesday night. These fish are caught in nets and bring good prices.

Mr. Geo. L. Maslin is one of the crack corn growers of this section this year. He has on exhibition fine samples of his crop at Durding's Drug Store. By the way, Durding himself has one of the finest crops of corn to be seen in these parts.

In the final combat of life that every man must face alone, the spirit of Rev. James M. Downey, has surrendered and Rock Hall mourns the loss of a good man. Mr. Downey was paralyized last December as he was conducting a church meeting, and suffered a second stroke, on July 22nd as he was about to visit a nearby neighbor. The efficient skill of Dr. Schwatka, was faithfully rendered, but without avail and death ensued on Sunday. The deceased was about 71 years old, and for more than 40 years he was a member of the M. E. Church, for many years he was a local preacher and class leader. Although Mr. Downey never attended school more than six months of his life, he was a fairly good speaker with an abundance of Bible knowledge. He was an active and effective worker in the church and had he been accorded due consideration, he would no doubt have been in the full ministerial ranks of the Wilmington Conference. His inspiring songs and prayers will be long missed by the local church membership.

THE wheat acreage in Kent county will undoubtedly be much smaller than usual next year, on account of the inability of the farmers to break fallow.

LOCAL BREVITIES

THE J. R. Richardson Company in an adv. elsewhere wants an agent for the Mitchell automobile.

THE Fire Company's new building was lighted up Saturday night for the first time. The numerous brilliant electric bulbs within and the large globes on the top of the building made it very attractive and beautiful. Mr. E. H. Russell, superintendent of the local plant, has done expert work on this building and the expense has been nominal.

Mail on Sundays.—Beginning with tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon there will be a mail from Chestertown, closing at 3.30.

Found Dead in Tomato Field.—Alfred Wilson, an old colored man of Georgetown, was found early Monday morning dead in the tomato field of Mr. Abe Hudson, near Fairlee. Coroner John H. Greenwood, of Chestertown, held an inquest over the body. Mr. Wm. G. Smyth, of near Fairlee, was foreman of the jury and Dr. Frank W. Smith examined the body. The jury decided that the man died of apoplexy. The jury was composed of the following: W. G. and R. A. Smyth, John Gale Usilton, W. H. Barnes. Michael Speck, W. J. Leaverton, Carey Rinehart, Wm. E. Keyser, Jas. A. Greenwood, W. H. Blakeney, C. H. Davis, T. V. Simpson.

Industrial School.—By the provisions of the will of a Mrs. Eddy Jean, of New Orleans, a fund has been provided for the establishment of a colored industrial school in Chestertown. This school will be in charge of a teacher from Washington, D. C., who is paid $650 per year to teach sewing and cooking to the colored girls of the town. The old Janes M. E. parsonage, Rev. J. Holland, pastor, has been rented for the purpose and the school opened this week. For the present the county will be at the expense of room rent until the school is established after which time the county will get $1500 per annum for its maintenance.

A Healthy Street.—A prospective purchaser of a house in Chestertown happened to knock at the door of one of the town's hospitable homes for information, and the following conversation occurred:

Stranger—I understand that this is a very unhealthy street?

Lady (weighing over 165 pounds)—I think you have been misinformed. There is a couple on the corner over 70 each, another lady near by about 80, another lady further down the street over 85, and the lady who removed from that house was over 80! Does that look like an unhealthy street?

Stranger—No, indeed. Some one has misinformed me.

Sales of Property.—Messrs. Beck & Ivens, real estate brokers, have sold the Coppage property in Rock Hall to Wm. E. Simms, possession within a month.

The "Sarah J. Bradley Home Farm," in the second election district of Queen Anne's county, on the right of the public road leading from Church Hill to Tilghman's station, containing 171 acres of land, more or less, was sold at public auction last Tuesday to J. Frank Temple, of Church Hill, for $10,675.

The same trustees have also sold to Dr. James E. Graham, of Chestertown, a small tract of woodland near Church Hill for $25.

Through the Centreville branch of the real estate agency of J. W. Russell Geo. E. Jewell, of near Centreville, has purchased of Joseph Edwards, of near Millington, a small truck farm of 18 acres near the latter town for $900.

Mr. H. H. King has purchased of Col. D. U. Dewees two dwellings in Kennedyville for about $1100.

Accidents.—Mr. J. Frank Connelly while cutting some kindling wood at his home on Queen street Monday cut a deep gash in his forehead. He raised the ax to cut and it came in contact with a clothes line, rebounding and causing the wound.

Mr. Wm. T. H. Whiteley while at work at the fire Monday was accidentally cut on the limb by an ax. The ax was being used in the second story and slipped from the hand of the fireman. The wound was not serious.

A serious accident was sustained Monday by Elwood Calligar, aged 21, of Townsend. He is a gunsmith and was repairing a revolver owned by H. M. Moore, of Golts, when the weapon was accidentally discharged. The bullet went through his hand and he was sent to the Delaware Hospital.

Fires.—A colored tenement house in "Robinsontown," Queen Street, took fire Monday morning and was in a blaze when the fire alarm was sounded. The hose reels were pulled to the fire by Dr. H. G. Simmons in his auto, and two streams of water were soon poured on the fire and the blaze quenched by the efficient fire department. The house is occupied by Harriet Berry, Robinson and others, who state that the fire originated from a defective flue. A colored girl was buried from the house the day previous. There was no insurance. Ned Robinson says they will repair the loss.

A fire, caused by a colored boy smoking a cigarette, Sunday, destroyed all the outbuildings on the Bellview farm, in Wye Neck, owned by the McKenney estate. Mr. Frank Price, the tenant, was away at the time of the fire, and when he returned home he found that many of his farming implements, wheat and a large quantity of hay had been consumed by the flames.
