YOU CAN RAISE 100% OF CHICKENS HATCHED

PRAISE WHERE PRAISE IS DUE.

"I have been most successful with my incubator chickens this year, having raised 100 per cent. of chickens hatched. In former years I was only able to raise about 40 to 50 per cent. Then I fed them on home products, but this year I am feeding Bolgiano's "Square Deal" Foods entirely, and attribute my success to your nicely balanced foods. My hatches were made with one of your Buckeye Incubators. I tell you this because I believe in giving praise where praise is due."—Written on September 26th, 1911, by Miss Lulu Thomas, of Pearsons, St. Mary's county, Md.

DON'T BE FOOLED.

If your local merchant doesn't sell Bolgiano's "Square Deal" Poultry Foods, drop us a postal, we will tell you who does.

WE HAVE SOMETHING NICE FOR YOU.

We have just published a book—something every one who raises chickens has been looking for—"POULTRY PROFITS FOR ONE YEAR." The price of this book is 25c, but if you will send us 6c in stamps, and mention the name of this paper, we will send you one free.

A POULTRY EXPERT.

We have associated with us a Poultry Expert, who will gladly answer any question you would like to ask. Drop us a letter.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

The State Legislature convened at Annapolis Wednesday. Jesse D. Price, of Wicomico, was elected President of the Senate and James McC. Trippe, of Baltimore, was elected Speaker of the House of Delegates. These two men were the choice of the Organization headed by Senator John Walter Smith.

Senator William W. Beck, of Kent, was secretary of the caucus and an original Price man.

Messrs. Charles L. Miller and James G. Harris, delegates from Kent, voted with the Organization in the House, lead by Preston and Mahon.

It is reported that Thomas J. Maslin and Joseph W. Howard will be given positions in the Senate while in the House Capt. Wheeler or Carson Harris and Capt. Jim Durding will likely secure places in the House.

Recent events in Kent county warrant the enactment of a law requiring all candidates for matrimony to appear in person before the Clerk of the Court and secure their license. This law prevails in New York city and elsewhere.

Rev. J. Earle Maloy was elected chaplain of the Senate. He is well-known in Kent and his selection gives satisfaction here.

The Lee forces, led by Senator Harper, were joined by the Republicans and passed the bill limiting the employes and requiring them to be named in open session. All citizens will endorse this check on extravagance provided it is continued along all lines. If Senator Harper and his allies limit employees and then endorse measures creating costly commissions what profit is it to the State? A house divided against itself must fall, therefore we advise the Democrats to meet in caucus and settle all differences.

THE efficient sexton of Chestertown High School thanks the pupils and teachers for their kind remembrances.

LOCAL NOTES

The mercury was down to 10° yesterday.

THE new State's Attorney, Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., was given the oath of office Tuesday by Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce in the presence of Clerk James T. Dixon, S. Scott Beck, Esq., Fred. G. Usilton, James G. Beck, Thos. Massey, Arthur Bradley, and entered upon his duties. He had two liquor cases to start with yesterday.

GROVER GREENWOOD was arrested last Saturday on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor. He sent for Mr. W. W. Beck to defend him thus: "You sent me to the House of Correction once now I want you to keep me out." Mary Coleman, colored, is also in jail charged with selling liquor. She lives in Byron's Court.

THE entertainment given by pupils of the George Biddle High School in November will be repeated in the Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall, Cecilton, Tuesday evening, January 9.

SAM WAYS, who for 25 years has lived with Mr. S. G. Lee, fell from a loaded wagon Tuesday and injured his head. Medical attention was given.

A NEW DWELLING is being erected near Quaker Neck wharf by W. S. & A. M. Culp for Major Cree, a retired U. S. officer. It will be a cozy home on Chester river.

THE De Rue Bros. Minstrels and Guy Bros. are expected in Stam's Hall soon.

T. B. ELLIOTT has done some artistic papering in the Jones house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Vickers.

WM. ELLIOTT has rented the Blackiston store at Lankford and will leave his Waddell property at Chestertown at once.

THE will of the late John Ward Davis, who lived near Cecilton, was admitted to probate Tuesday. It disposes of an estate valued at $15,000. To the Methodist Episcopal Church at Cecilton is devised $1,000, and to his brother, E. J. Davis, the sum of $800. The residue of the estate is divided equally between Noble P. Ferguson, Mary E. Pierce, Hester W. Ferguson, Maria Budd, M. E. Ferguson, Anna P. Beaston, Kate V. Howard John W. Ferguson, Maggie Morgan and Jennie Price, relatives.

A MARRIAGE LICENSE was granted in Baltimore to Wilbert A. Walbert, aged 28, and Beatrice A. Lehmann, aged 22.

THE coaster sled at Wm. Medders & Co.'s Sull Pond Store was drawn by No. 136, Master Woodland Comegys, Black's.

Will of Henry Parr.—The last will and testament of the late Henry Parr, of Galena, was admitted to probate in the Kent County Orphans' Court Tuesday, last. Letters were granted to Jennie E. Parr to administer after giving bond of $2000 with Mrs. Harry Todd and Wm. Parr as sureties. The will devises that the life insurance money of the deceased be divided equally between the four children, Wm. Parr, Mary A. Todd, Jennie E. Parr and J. Harry Parr. All the rest of the estate real and personal is devised to his daughter, Jennie E. Parr. The will was made June 2, 1909 and was witnessed by Messrs. C. E. Faulkner and J. Harry Jarvis.

Recitals Discontinued.—The NEWS is very sorry to announce that the Peabody Recitals in Firemen's Hall have been abandoned. After giving two recitals Mr. T. Kemp Bordley says: "Due to the difficulty encountered in securing a concert instrument for each of the recitals contemplated in Firemen's Hall this winter, we are obliged to abandon any further idea of carrying out the remaining musicales." Mr. Bordley has given Chestertown two as fine and high-class musicales as any community ever was favored with, and it is with the regret of all music lovers that the remaining three concerts could not be given. Mr. Bordley deserves praise for giving Chestertown the opportunity of hearing such brilliant artists.

ON January 8th, Moody & Lusby, the well-known clothiers of Chestertown commence their usual reduction sale of winter suits and overcoats. As the genuineness of their cut price sales are well-known, you are assured of purchasing to your advantage.
