Buick

Motor Cars

Every Buick is a Buick

Through and Through

Much has been said by automobile manufacturers about the greatness of their factories, but few people realize that the greatest of them all is the BUICK PLANT.

The reason it has not been necessary to exploit it, has been the ever-increasing quality-value of Buick Cars. For seven years they have been known as the "un-advertised" Cars—the Cars which have sold on merit alone. Now that the Buick organization and constructive facilities have been so vastly strengthened, it seems only right that all who are interested in automobiles should know all about Buick Cars, the Buick Plant and the Buick Organization.

Every Buick is a Buick through and through. Practically every part is made at this great Buick plant, in fact, everything excepting lamps, carburetors, coils and magnetos. The Buick organization is a unit which represents the highest degree of efficiency in Motor Car production. That is why the Buick not only maintains its reputation for great power, but has the stability of every part to support this power. And so perfect is the harmony of all operating parts, that the Buick is one of the most silent-running cars made.

The position of honor at the Madison Square Garden Show, allotted according to the value of the annual output, has been awarded this year, as in previous years, to the Buick—Space 14.

5 Models, at prices fixed according to power and size—$850, $1000, $1075, $1250, $1800. One-ton Buick Truck, $1000.

DICK WRIGHT CAUGHT

Arrested by Detective Doris in Delaware—To Be Given 14 Years in Dover Jail and 70 Lashes—Well Known in Kent.

When Charles P. ("Dick") Wright, member of a well-known white family of Delaware, was sentenced to seventy lashes at the whipping post and to serve fourteen years at hard labor in the New Castle County Workhouse at Greenbank, Monday afternoon, the Kent court room was crowded to the doors and bailiffs had to be repeatedly commanded to preserve order.

No dissent was heard that Wright was not receiving his desserts, but the crowding to see the prisoner and to hear the court sentence him caused the general hubbub.

However, when Judge Boyce began his remarks as a prologue to the sentence, the court room became as quiet as death.

Wright, meantime, had stood up and pleaded guilty, saying, "Oh, yes, I am guilty of everything." His manner was morose and dogged throughout.

Wright's sentences were as follows:

For breaking into and robbing the house and bedroom of Mrs. Nancy Solloway, of near Whileysburg, fine $500; Saturday next, between the hours of 10 and 2 o'clock, to be whipped with twenty lashes; imprisoned five years, or until February 25, 1917.

For breaking the store of the Hufnal-Berry Company, Camden, and stealing money, cigars and cigarettes: restitution money, $10.25; Saturday next, between the hours of 10 and 2 o'clock, to be whipped with twenty lashes (making forty for the day); imprisonment, three years, or until February 24, 1929.

For stealing a horse worth $150 from Daniel B. Murray, Viola: restitution money to Murray, $150; Saturday, Mar. 9, between the hours of 10 and 2 o'clock, to be whipped with twenty lashes; imprisonment, four years, ending February 23rd, 1924.

For the larceny of a runabout, worth $100, from Daniel B. Murray; restitution to Murray, $100; Saturday, March 9th, between the hours of 10 and 2 o'clock, to be whipped with ten lashes (thirty in all for the day); imprisonment, two years, term ending February 2, 1926.

Judge Boyce, in sentencing Wright, made an address that could be heard everywhere in the elbowing throng in court. He said:

"There must have been times in your life when conscience, knocking at the door of your heart, warned you heavily that before God and man you were leading a life of depravity and sin.

"It is inconceivable that a man of your development and wits could have gone on inflicting pain and suffering to others.

"For years past, Wright, you have preyed upon this public. One of the most serious features of these depredations was that you dragged down other people. Men and women, black and white, seemed to fall under your degrading influence, as you went about terrorizing and robbing the very people most sensitive and subject to being terrorized.

"Under our laws you might have been imprisoned twenty-one years, and you might have been whipped with 100 lashes. And these four indictments are not all the charges against you.

"While the court is disposed at all times, where a plea of guilty is made, to consider the confession and the saving of expense and deal leniently with the offender, yet we feel these sentences about to be imposed upon you are as lenient as they can be.

"How can leniency be shown to any marked extent to a defendant who pleads guilty to terrorizing innocent women in the dead of night?

"We wish very much that we could look forward to your reformation and to seeing you going about and walking uprightly, trying to lead the life of an honorable man, instead of ravishing the public. We pity you. We pity your very depravity. And we're saying and doing this now as a protection to the public, not with feeling, and as a deterrent to others if not to you in the future years that may remain to you when again free."

This man Wright was in Chestertown jail several months on charge of breaking in store at Golt's Station, but because of the escape of an important witness he was cleared. Mr. Ralph Barnett says this man Wright was raised in Magnolia, Del., of fine parents and had several thousand dollars left him to make a good start in life, but he has always been a pretty hard character.

BIG CANNING COMPANY.

The Mardel Canning Company, comprising Messrs. John E. George, James Merrick, Jr., and Dr. Foster Sudler, have completed the final details preparatory to the erection of canneries at Wye Station, Carville and Ashland, in Queen Annes county, and at Armstrong, Delaware. The buildings will cost in the neighborhood of $50,000, and work will begin on them about April 1st.

The gross output of all four of the canneries during the present year will approximately be about 150,000 cases, or more than three million and a half cans. The canneries will pay from $60,000 to $70,000, to farmers of Queen Anne's alone, while their total expenses will be more than $300,000

The Mar-del Company is contracting at $10 per ton, at sixteen and two-thirds cents per basket.

The location of the Golden Ron factory at Wye Station will be on the grounds formerly used as Wye Camp ground. It was erroneously reported that this property had been sold by the Trustees of the M. E. Church, Centreville, to Mr. George. As a matter of fact the Camp ground was left the M. E. Church by Matthias George, for the church to use for this purpose. The bequest provided that if at any time camp was not held for seven consecutive years the property should revert to the George heirs. Consequently, the Trustees had no power to sell the property and Mr. George simply paid them for their relinquishment of the property and at the end of the seventh year the property will again enter the George family.
