WEDDING BELLS

Announcement is made of the marriage of Robert G. Cooper, of York, Pa., formerly of Chesterville, this county, and Mrs. Susie Ruth, of York. They will reside in York, Pa.

The wedding of Miss Ruth E. Copper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Copper, of Lynch, Md., to Mr. George Dibbin, of Philadelphia, will take place Dec. 18th, at 4 p. m., at Lynch M. P. Church. No cards in the county.

NORRIS—CAPPS.

A quiet but beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. William Capps on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 28th, at 2 o'clock p. m., when Miss Mary, the accomplished daughter of Mr. Capps, was united in marriage to Magistrate Carl T. Norris. Rev. F. N. Moore officiated, while Miss Ethel Robinson played Lohengrin's Wedding March. After congratulations and necessary formalities, Mr. and Mrs. Norris departed in an automobile for Rock Hall, from whence they proceeded by steamer to Baltimore and other points. Both bride and groom are well known and highly respected in this community. Their many friends wish them long life and much happiness.

GILLIN—EVERETT.

John M. Gillin, of 2751 North Darling street, Philadelphia, and Miss Bessie G. Everett, of Massey, Md., were married last night by Rev. George L. Wolfe at his home, 1213 Market St. The couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nesbitt, with whom they are spending a few days Mr. and Mrs. Cillin spent the first few hours of their honeymoon at the Garrick Theatre. Afterward they will go away on a wedding trip for several days.

PATTERSON—EVANS.

The marriage of Miss Rebecca Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William James Evans, and Lieut. Robert E. Patterson, Twenty-seventh Infantry, U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Patterson, of Wilmington, Del., took place last evening at the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. Michael and All Angels. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Charles Fiske. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin trimmed with rose point lace and seed pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Evans, as maid of honor, who wore white silk crepe, with an overdress of white chiffon, hand painted in yellow roses, and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Misses Martha and Eleanora Goldsborough, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Goldsborough, were flower girls, and wore dainty white frocks with blue ribbons, and carried baskets of pink roses. The best man was Lieut. Frederick H. Dickman, and the ushers were Lieut. Oscar J. Gatchell, Lieut. William C. Harrison, Lieut. Stephen H. MacGregor and Lieut. Robert N. Bodine, all of the Coast Artillery Corps, of Fort Monroe, Va. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cockey, aunt and uncle of the bride, on North Calvert St.

CLARK—KELLEY.

The South Hill, Va., paper has the following to say of the wedding of one of Chestertown's young ladies mention of whose wedding was announced last week:

"On Monday evening, November 11, 1912, Miss Hallie S. Kelley was married to Mr. James Barrett Clark at the residence of the Misses Hawkins, Rev. W. L. Ware officiating.

Mrs. Clark, who is spending her fifth season in South Hill, has undoubtedly won for herself more friends than any young lady who has ever come to our town. And, while extending to her their best wishes for a long, and happy life, it is with much regret that her friends learn that she will not return to us again.

Mr. Clark, of the Armstrong, Cator Co., of Baltimore, is a young man of sterling worth and is held in high esteem by all who know him and he is to be congratulated upon his good fortune in securing for his life partner one who will always be a "better half."

Mr. Clark left Tuesday for Macon, Ga., on a business trip after which he will return to Baltimore where Mrs. Clark will join him the last of the year.

We wish them much joy."
