Telephone vs. Writing

Every letter written in a business house costs somewhere between twenty and fifty cents. If items of stationery, postage, stenographer's time, manager's time, filing copies, etc., are carefully set down, it will be found that this is no exaggeration.

Compare this with the cost of a telephone message, and the satisfaction of an immediate answer.

A SPLENDID SUCCESS

Block Carnival in Chestertown For Benefit Babies' Milk And Ice Fund Raises Over $50.

Washington Avenue and Kent Circle were the centre of enthusiastic interest last Friday evening it being the occasion of the Block Carnival held for benefit of the Baltimore Sun's Milk and Ice Fund for poor babies. With but a few exceptions every home was decorated with flags and lanterns and these streets presented a most charming spectacle. The lawns of Mrs. Gilbert Taylor, Dr. A. S. Hall and Mrs. Wm. E. Moody were used for serving cream, cake, lemonade, etc. Automobiles owned by Messrs. Wm. E. Moody, P. A. M. Brooks, J. H. Sides, W. F. Jarrell, Merrick Clements and P. G. Wilmer, residents of these streets, took children and others about town at 5 cents a head and these flag bedecked autos advertised the affair and had a fine time.

The occasion was indeed pleasant and all enjoyed the effort to do good. The affair was conceived by Mrs. Wm. E. Moody and carried to a successful completion by her with the united and earnest support of the residents on these avenues and by the patronage of citizens of Chestertown.

It will be of interest to know the residents of these avenues: Mrs. Marion Smith, James Brice, R. J. McWhorter, T. D. Bowers, W. W. Chapman, Geo. B. McWhorter, M. W. Thomas, S. P. Townshend, W. B. Copper, Wm. H. Lambert, L H. P. Vansant, Louis Sheats, Ollie Estes, Harry Cannan, Vernon Barnett, H. Hodgkins, Ralph Barnett, C. D. McCleary, E. D. Jones, Merrick Clements, Parks Rasin, Fred. G. Usilton, P. G. Wilmer, Chas. Baxter, W. T. Pippin, J. S. Kreeger, A. M. Culp, Mrs. S. E. Ford, H. W. Vickers, Jr. D. B. McMenamin, C. L. Jarrell, Mrs. Wm. Crow, Dr. E. A. Clarke, P. A. M. Brooks, Mrs. Jane Blackiston, W. E. Moody, Dr. A. S. Hall, Gilbert Taylor, Mrs. Harvey Culp, Garrett Foxwell, C. S. Smith, W F. Jarrell, J. H. Sides. The net receipts were $56.11.

GRANGE NOTES.

Kent County Pomona Grange was entertained on Thursday by Fairlee Grange on the lawn of Fairlee Grove farm. This beautiful lawn is an ideal spot for just such an occasion as an open air meeting of a Pomona Grange; and, although the day was warmer this meeting was one of the most pleasant Grange Sessions we have attended.

We regret very much that the wheat threshing and potato harvesting prevented many from attending however five of the Kent Granges were represented.

The business sessions was one of unusual interest to Granges. One resolution passed will be of State wide interest to farmers which asks for a law passed providing for a State Inspector of grain so that the grain will be graded correctly when put on the market.

The sum of $10 was voted to be donated toward the Baby Health Contest to be held at the Driving Park during the Fair held in August.

Our neighbor, Mr. J. T. Anthony, from whom we always receive help and advice in Grange work, he, being a Grange Organizer, Chairman of State Executive Committee and Chaplain of State Grange, was unanimously elected honorary member of the Pomona Grange.

Mrs T. E. W. Crew made an announcement of a rehearsal of music for the Grange Picnic to be held in Klinefelter's Woods, August 7th. She asked for 100 or more volunteer singers for choruses, not only Grangers but friends outside of the Grange. Through Mr. L. B. Russell we have permission to use the opera House in Chestertown for the rehearsal, which will be next Wednesday July 30, at 2 p m.

The Grange was saddened by the announcement of the death of Sister Mar Griffith A committee was appointed to draw the following resolutions of sympathy which were adopted.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in His inscrutable wisdom, to remove from our midst Sister Martha Griffith, late ceres of Kent Pomona Grange, and beloved wife of brother Harry Griffith, Pastmaster of Pomona Grange, it is hereby resolved that this Pomona Grange has lost a valuable member, one whose presence and manner were always helpful to her fellow-grangers.

And that we extend to Brother Griffith and his two daughters our profound sympathy in their great loss.

Be it futher resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to Brother Griffith, and the same be inscribed upon the minutes of this Pomona Grange on a page dedicated to that purpose.

MRS. T. E. W. CREW,
J. T. ANTHONY;
W. G SMYTH,
COMMITTEE.

The lecture hour in charge of the Worthy Lecturer, Sister Hannah Moore, was very entertaining and helpful, Miss Katherine Kendall sang a beautiful solo.

Mr. W. G. Smyth gave a short address on the question, "Is the Grange in Danger of becoming too much of a Social Organization?"

A humorous recitation well rendered by sister Katherine Williams.

Other questions for open discussion were,—"To what extent are the Wives and Daughters of Farmers justified in helping the Fields?"

"If a young girl of eighteen with a common school education should want to go to the city to make money, how would you advise her? What would you do if you were her father?

What would you say if you were her mother?

The invitation extended by Kennedyville Grange to meet with them in Oct., unless Galena or Sassafras Granges should prefer to entertain that meeting was accepted by the Grange.
