It seems to be accepted without much question at this time, that the Faith is still necessary, and one new Congress will go much farther in the reduction of taxes than its predecessors did. It seems probable that a tax law will be passed, if the revenue permits it, that will reduce the surtaxes on the big incomes down to 25 per cent as recommended by Mr. | the Girl Scouts, who have just elected

Yet their parents and friends will still say that the main purpose for which they have attended these institutions is that they may learn the fundamentals of education and to prepare for their work. Hence the scholastic honors are the highest achievement that was within their reach, and ought to be prized more than anything else.

As a usual thing, these honors are attained by a good deal of sacrifice and struggle. They represent conscience, where young folks have felt the obligation to make good, and have given up pleasures so that they could stick to their work.

HOPE AND FEAR

The timidity of business men H. Gary, in his address as president of the American Iron and Steel institute. He felt that they become too much alarmed when minor recessions appear.

No doubt the trouble is largely that our business men so dread anything like a repetition of the disastrous experiences following the deflation of 1920, that they often go to the extreme of caution.

The bubble that was blown up in 1920 was bigger than anything the American people ever knew before or are likely to again. That wild career of joy riding will not return now. Those days when millions of people stopped asking the prices of goods will not occur again at present. Business men will not overstock themselves as they did at that time. Even if there are setbacks, they will be minor affairs. Here in Westminster there will be plenty of business for

The Hunter Market

For the past 24 years I have had the pleasure of catering to the citizens of Westminster, and vicinity, in the matter of their wants in

MEATS, VEGETABLES, FRUITS, FISH, and OYSTERS, during which time I have endeavored to the best of my ability, and in keeping with proper business methods, to keep my customers supplied with the best in the markets, and at fair and reasonable prices.

MEATS.

During my 24 years of business in Westminster I have purchased nothing but "good conditioned" steers for butchering, and to-day am placing on my counter the very best meat obtainable in this community. Tuberculine cows, and bulls have never been purchased or slaughtered by me.

PREMISES.

My market house is equipped with the latest and best system of refrigeration, its sanitary condition is as perfect as it is possible to make it, and my corps of assistants, collectively and individually, make every effort to politely satisfy my customers.

DELIVERY OF GOODS

During nearly a quarter of a century in the business I have made a special effort to deliver goods promptly, and to correct errors in either delivery or the quality of the goods so delivered.

AN INVITATION

I extend an invitation to the citizens of Westminster, and vicinity, to visit The Hunter Market, East Main street, and make a thorough inspection of the large stock of meats, vegetables, fruits, and fish, now on sale at reasonable prices.
