REVIVAL CLOSES AT M. E. CHURCH

The Gospel Crusade conducted by the Gospel Trio came to a successful close on Sunday night last. It has been an inspiring evangelistic campaign drawing several hundreds of people each night throughout the month. The pastor, the Rev. Edward Hayes, of Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, where the services were held reports the favorable results of the campaign and feels it has quickened the interest in the church. On Sunday morning sixty-one new members were taken in the church, seven in the afternoon and seven at the night service. There were a number to be taken in from the country but but due to the tie-up in traffic they could not be present. The probable number of new members for the Methodist church will be about one hundred and there will be about thirty who have expressed their desire of joining their respective church in various sections in the county

A large number of people were turned away on Sunday night. Despite the weather the church was filled before 7:00 o'clock and as Dr. Cooke had announced the service started as soon as the church was filled. The trio, Dr. Cooke, Mr. Vignuelle and Mr. Spencer, have made a large circle of friends, who have been very faithful in attending the meetings. Dr. Cooke expressed his sincere appreciation for all kindnesses shown them while here. The expenses of the campaign amounted to about $700 and the receipts on Sunday night showed over $1,000, for Dr. Cooke and his assistants. This campaign was voted even more successful than that of three years ago.

KITCHEN CATCHES FIRE

While Mrs. Paul Myers, Pleasant Valley, was attending the Sewing Circle society on last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry Feeser, fire broke out in the kitchen, and when she returned home which was around 4:00 o'clock, she found the house filled with smoke, the chimney boards burned away also the floor where the stove stood, and the stove lying back in the chimney. A large wood box which she had filled with wood was also burned, which caused great heat. Nearly everything in the kitchen that did not burn is almost ruined. The radio burned; the stove which is ruined was a new gray enameled range; also a new kitchen cabinet, buffet and old-time sideboard. Mrs. Myers had gold fish and they were cooked in the boiling water. Mr. Myers' loss is only partly covered by insurance. Mr. and Mrs. Myers reside on the Edward Strevig farm. There was no fire in the stove when Mrs. Myers left to go to the sewing society.

REV. DR. FRANCIS T. LITTLE ILL

The Rev. Dr. Francis T. Little, 78 years old, president of the board of trustees of Western Maryland College, is seriously ill at his home, 1314 Linden avenue, Baltimore. Last week he suffered an attack of heart disease.

Dr. Little was retired from the active ministry seven years ago. Since 1920, in addition to his duties in connection with the college, he has been writing for the Methodist Protestant Conference.

MISS FLORENCE JOHNSON WEDS

Miss Florence Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Johnson, Salisbury, well known contralto, and Cecil Jennings Reed, Newark, N. J., were married in Newark by the Rev. R. L. Shipley, former pastor of Bethesda Church, Salisbury. The bride's mother acted as matron of honor and Mr. Perry E. Belfalto as best man.

Mrs. Reed is a graduate of Western Maryland College and a scholarship student of the Juilliard Musical School, New York. She will continue her professional career under her own name. Mr. Reed is with the Public Service Electric and Gas Company, Newark.

Miss Clara Kerrigan, Hanover, Pa., and Francis Feeser, McSherrystown, Pa., were married Monday morning in Grace Lutheran parsonage, this city, by Rev. J. B. Rupley.

Mrs. Herman C. Moore and son Herman Jr., Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Moore's father, John S. Schweigart, who is ill at his home on West Main street.

SNOW DRIFTS ROADS IN COUNTY

As a result of Saturday's storm all roads leading to and from this city were entirely blocked to traffic on Saturday. The Blue Ridge Transportation Company bus was unable to use its route by the Washington road and on the return trip in the afternoon from Baltimore via Reisterstown was only able to come north as far as Sandyville. At the same point Conoway's bus line and a number of private automobiles also were blocked. Among these were the Western Maryland College wrestling team on their return from Annapolis. Mr. Conoway and force of men went to the aid of the busses and they shoveled their way out. But as fast as the roads were opened they drifted shut and a number of automobiles at that point were forced to remain over night.

The Littlestown, Gettysburg and Harrisburg bus was forced to remain in the city until Monday morning. Corbin's bus to Union Bridge made its first trip Monday morning since Saturday noon. The Baltimore-Reisterstown road and Manchester road were opened to traffic on Sunday afternoon. The Washington road remained closed until Monday morning. Traffic was not interfered with from Westminster to Emmitsburg. A number of the factory employes who live out of town were unable to reach their homes and stayed in the city over the week-end.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mrs. Annie Hyde, Middleburg, was a recent visitor in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hahn, Carroll street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Doris Marie.

On Monday next Mr. Robert Wheeler and Dr. M. L. Bott will celebrate their 80th birthdays at the home of Mr. Wheeler, Bird Hill, this county.

The home of Mr. Fred Littlefield, near Middleburg, has been bought by G. S. LaFarge who will take possession in the spring.

Mrs. Sheets, widow of Capt. Sheets, an aged lady who resided for some time with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Malone, Liberty street, died to-day in Baltimore.
