WALDIE'S SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY

AND MONTHLY JOURNAL OF POLITE LITERATURE.

The proprietor of this popular and well known periodical has the gratification of replying to the many affectionate inquiries after its resumption, and announces to his kind friends and patrons—friends and patrons in the true meaning of the words—that he will resume the publication next January. Restored by a beneficent Providence once more to active life, he hopes again to be able to give that superintendence to the publication which was his pride and pleasure for seven years.—He anticipates, with inexpressible satisfaction, the renewal of associations with thousands of families, with either of which an acquaintance is an honor. During his protracted indisposition, the intensity of suffering was greatly mitigated by the generons expressions of sympathy and regard received from his kind-hearted patrons; and the gloom and tedium of sick room were much lightened by the rays of genuine friendship emitted from every quarter. This egotism, he hopes, will be judged of mildly—he certainly has no wish to make a display—but the impulse of grateful acknowledgement for such disinterested kindness was irrepressible, and he could not announce the re-appearance of the work without yielding to it.

To these friends he addresses himself, solicitous for their continued support, and hopes to have the Library once more introduced among their families, see it honored again with a place on their centre tables, and become a welcome weekly visiter. He is at the same time very desirous to extend his acquamtance and form new friends.

From the arrangements made, dictated by experience, the Library, it is believed, will in every respect, be improved. The type be more distinct, the monthly sheet continued, and a weekly cover beside. The cover will be made so as to avoid the extra postage.—The monthly Journal he hopes to make a sheet of abiding interest, so combining original and selected articles, of foreign and domestic literature, science and art, and from such sources of respectability, as to make it a work of authority and reference.

The regularity of its former publication, not a failure in seven years, will be taken as a a guarantee for the future punctuality of the Library; but there is only one way to make that permanent, viz: by payment in advance. This is an indispensable pre-requisite from all at a distance. The losses by deviating from this rule formerly are too heavy to be forgotten soon, and a little reflection may satisfy any one of the reasonableness of the request. The reasons are too obvious, indeed, to require much discussion. Five dollars are all that a subscriber risks; but the publisher risks thousands by crediting. The publisher is in a city and can be reached without trouble. A subscriber lives perhaps a thousand miles off, and how is he to be reached? It might cost six times the amount to collect the trifle. Payment in advance, then, as all may perceive, is a reasonable request, and sad experience compels the proprietor to make it absolute. The few who paid in advance for 1840, will be supplied for 1841, unless otherwise ordered.

An early remittance of names is respectfully urged, so as to enable the proprietor to make proper calculations about the quantity to be printed, as he will print very few over the number absolutely subscribed for. To this he would call particular attention.

Terms.

The Library will be published weekly, on a double royal sheet, sixteen pages quarto each, on new type, and printed in the best style of book work. Each number enveloped with a neat cover.

2. Price Five Dollars a year, if paid at or remitted to the office. Six Dollars if collected by on agent.

3. A Monthly Journal of Polite Literature, consisting of original communications, and selections from foreign and domestic periodicals, printed uniformly with the Library.—This will be a valuable addition to the origidal plan.

4 Subscriptions commence with January, and no subscriptions taken for less than a year.

☞ A few complete sets of Library, and odd years to perfect the subscribers' sets, on hand and for sale.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE,

AND

THE LADIES' AND GENTLEMAN'S WORLD OF LITERATURE AND FASHION.

THE CASKET

AND

GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE UNITED.

A New Volume, under the above title, of the well established and fashionable Magazine. The Philadelphia Casket, in conjunction with the Gentlemen's Magazine, which has been every where pronounced the most readable and popular, of the day, will be opened on the first of January, 1841, with an array of contributors secured by the union of talent and fame, which no periodical in the country can boast or pretend to rival. The December number will, however, be a specimen of the New Volume. The Volume will be opened with a new and beautiful type, the finest white paper, and with the first of a series of EMBELLISHMENTS UNSURPASSED by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine. The style of elegance, the beauty and finish of these illustrations, and the extensive improvements which will be made in its typographical appearance, and above all, the tone of its literary department, by the brilliant array of contributors, whose articles have enriched the pages of each number, will give it a character, second to no Magazine in the Union.—The character of the articles which shall appear in its pages, will be equally removed from a sickly sentimentalty, and from an affectation of morality, but while a true delineation of human nature in every variety of passion is aimed at, nothing shall be found in its pages to cause a blush upon the cheek of the most pure.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER

will be sufficiently guaranteed by the reputation of both Magazine thus united, for years past. Writers of the first rank have been regular contributors to their pages, and the Tales and Sketches published in them, have been widely copied and read, and the firm and independent tone of the criticisms upon the current literature of the day, has been every where approved and commended.

THE LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

embraces the names of most of the principal writers in America, with a respectable number of English authors. Original articles have appeared during the last year, from the pens of the following:—

Professor Ingraham, Author of La Fitte.
" John Frost, Philadelphia.
" N C. Brooks, Baltimore,
" C. F. Wines, Philadelphia, Author of Two Years in the Navy.
Capt. Marryatt, Author of Peter Simple, etc.
Morton McMichael, Esq., Philadelphia.
Hon. R. T. Conrad, Esq. do
Willis Gaylord Clark, Esq. do
Charles J. Preston, do
Rev. Thos. H. Stockton; do
Samuel W. Stockton, do
E. Armstrong, Esq. do
Gen. G. P. Morris, New York.
Leigh Hunt, England,
Mrs. Fanny Kemble Butler, Philadelphia.
Park Benjamin, New York.
Douglas Jerrold, England.
Joseph C. Neal, (Charcoal Sketches,) The American Boz.
James E. Otis, New York.
R. S. Elliott, Editor of Harrisburg Journal, Penn.
David Hoffman, Esq., Baltimore.
Charles West Thompson, Philadelphia.
Judge Temper, Dresden, N. Y.
John Du Solle, Esq.
Grenville Mellen, New York
P. B. Elder, Editor of the Columbia Spy, Pa.
The Author of "Stanley."
Edgar A. Poe, Philadelphia
T. G. Spear, do
Author of "Howard Pinkney."
Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, Harford, Con.
Miss Catherine H. Waterman, Philadelphia.
Mrs. Ann Stephens, New York
Benson Hill, England, Editor of New Monthly Magazine
Dr. J. K. Mitchell, Philadelphia.
James Montgomery, England
A. M'Makin and E. Holden, Esqs.
J. Beauchamp Jones, Baltimore
J. E. Dow, Washington City
Mrs. E. F. Elliott, Boston
Dr. Thomas Dunn English, Philadelphia.

In addition to this brilliant array of names known to fame, the distinguished services of a host of anonoymous writers of no ordinary abilities, have given worth and character to the pages of the Magazine. The series of well known nautical papers, entitled "Cruizing in the Last War," have had a run, unequalled by any series published in any Magazine for years. The author promises to open the first of a series of and from his known abilities as a depictor of sea scenes and life, much may be relied upon from him in maintaining the popularity of the Magazine. Papers may be expected during the volume, also from the anthor of the well known articles entitled "The Log of Old Ironside." The author of "Syrian Letters," will also lend his powerful and graceful pen, to sustain and incease the reputation of the work. The valuable aid of the author of "Leaves from a Lawyer's Port Folio," has also been secured,—and we may expect something still more thrilling from the capricious stores which a long life in the profession has enabled him to amass. An occasional Chit-Chat, with "Jeremy Short," and "Oliver Oldfellow," is also promised: with a variety of choice articles in prose and verse, from various writers of celebrity, as contributors to the prominent Magazines of the country.—The editors of both Magazines continue their services under the new arrangement. With such an array of talent, a Magazine of unrivalled attractions, may safely be promised in the coming volume.

TALES OF THE SEA,

FASHIONS AND ENGRAVINGS.

In compliance with the almost unanimous wish of our lady subscribers, we shall the in ensuing volume, furnish them with a beautiful and correct plate of the Fashions Monthly, a feature it is believed, that will neither be unwelcome nor unpopular. These fashion plates shall be drawn from original designs from Paris and London, and may always be depended upon as the prevailing style in Philadelphia and New York for the month in which they are issued. These, however, shall in no wise interfere with the regular and choice engravings and music which accompany each number of the work. The splendid Mezzotint engravings from the burin of Sartain, which have been so justly admired, will be followed during the volume, by several from the same hand; while the steel engravings in the best style of art, from interesting scenes, shall still enrich the Magazine. The choicest pieces of music for the Piano and the Guitar, shall accompany each number of the work.

Time of Publication.

The work will be published on the first of the month in every quarter of the Union. The most distant subscriber consequently receives it on that day as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. In all the principal cities agents have been established, by whom the Magazine is forwarded, prior to the time of issuing it so that it may be delivered to resident subscribers by the first of the month. This is an important arrangement to distant subscribers, who become tired, importunate, and eventually discontinue many works in consequence of the great delay by publishers.

TERMS.—Three dollars per annum. Or two copies yearly for five dollars, invariably in advance, post paid. No new subscriber received without the money, or the name of a responsible agent. For the accommodation of those who may wish to subscribe for either of the following Philadelphia periodicals, this is made. Five Dollars current money, free of postage, we will forward Graham's Magazine, and Godey's Lady's Book for one year.

Nov. 28.

VOL. 21 GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.

And Ladies' American Magazine.

Established by the present proprietor in 1830, and now imitated (unsuccessfully) in a greater or less degree, by almost all of the other Magazines.

EDVIED BY MRS. SARAH J. HALE AND MRS. L. H. SIGOURNEY,

Two ladies alike distinguished for the morality of the various works of which they are the authors.

Vhe June number of the Lady's Book completed the Vwentieth Volume of this successful publication, this pioneer of Female American Literature. Vhe publisher mentions with pride his list of contributors, his satisfaction at his increased subscription, and his determinaton never to forfeit the claim he has upon the female readers of this country, in having been the first to offer them a work edited by their own sex, free from grossness, and to read which was not an insult to their understanding.

Vhe aim of the publisher always has been to merit encomiums like the following from the Inquirer and Courier, and other papers.

"He certainly produces a truly meritorious periodical, and as much entitled to praise for its pure morality as for its grace and beauty."

The Evangelical Magazine, of Utica, N. Y., says: "Its essays on Domestic Economy, Cookery, &c., by Mrs. Hale, are remarkably well written, combining the interesting and the useful, and were needed to perfect the character of the work. Ladies who wish to procure a good literary Monthly, will undoubtedly be pleased with the Lady's Book."

The Gazette, Tiffin, Ohio, speaks as follows:

"Lady's Book."—Every time we receive a number of this beautiful work, we are tempted to enter into argument to show our fair friends that they ought to be in possession of it. But we have no room for many words, and will only say to them, that it is the very thing, they want, and while without it, they are deprived of an unfailing and pure source of enjoyment."

The numbers of the Lady's Book already published this year, contains the best stories and more superior embellishments than ever yet graced a monthly periodical in this or any other country. Subscribers can be supplied with the numbers from January last

In this volume is commenced the publication of LARGE ORIGINAL STEEL PLATES, of an unusual size, and of superb finish. They will be superior in effect to any thing ever given in this country or Europe, and will be equal to the finest plates used in the Annuals. If we meet with the encouragement we think that our continued efforts to advance the arts should command, we have it in contemplation to engage the same superior artist to engrave from original pictures, painted by different American masters, so that Godey's Lady's Book, will, in the course of a year, show the different styles of twelve different artists of the present age. But to enable us to do this, there must be no lukewarmness on the part of our friends, every subscriber must contribute his quota, if he expects to see an undertaking of this magnificence put into operation.

Contributors.—Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, Mrs. Mary H. Parsons, Mrs. Emma C. Embury, Mrs. F. S. Osgood Miss Mary W. Hale, Miss E. A. Dupuy, Mrs. Hofland, England, Mrs. C. Baron Wilson, England, Miss Mary Russell Mitford, England, Miss Juliet H. Lewis, Mrs. Harrison Smith, Mrs. C. Lee Hentz, Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. H. B. Stowe, Miss M. A. Fairman, Mrs. A. Brown, England, Hon Alex. H. Everett, W. Gilmore Simms, Henry W. Herbert, Professor Ingraham, Richard Penn Smith, Seba Smith, Ezra Holden. Professor Walter, H. E. Morrell, M. D., O. H. Costa, M. D., N. B. Brooks, A. M., Lewis J. Cist, Judge Conrad, Ebenezer Elliott, England, James Montgomery, England, John Neal, H. F. Harrington, Isaac C. Pray, L. A Milliner, Lieut. A. A. Harwood, Wm. Cutter, Morton M'Michael, Gen. Geo. P. Morris, A. M'Makin, J. Elliot Knight, A. Stevens, A. M., H. W. Ellsworth, Jas. T. Fields, W. Landor, T. S. Arthur, John S. Du Solle, Thos. G. Spear, and B. B. Thatcher.

Some of the above names, and among the best, are not to be found as contributors to any other magazine in this country.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK contains in each number one Plate of Fashions, Colored, one Steel Engraving, large size and original, two pages of Music, and occasionally elegant Lace Work and Fac Similes of the Signatures of distinguished individuals.

Double the number of Embellishments (and of a superior kind) of any other Magazine, and the subscription price less when two copies are taken. (See terms.)

The paper, printing, and type of the work are unexceptionable, the engravings are all original, and the fashions are not muddy lithographs, but are on steel plates, and prepared for the book by a lady of taste and fashion.

Business Department.—The work is published and is in the hands of every subscriber is in every State of the Union, by the first of the month.

Price of the Lady's Book, 1 year in advance $3 00
One copy, 2 years, in advance, 5 00
