Documents accompanying the President's Message of the 22d January.
(CONCLUDED.)

Extract of a letter from General James Wilkinson, dated New Orleans, December 18, 1806.

SIR, Since my last of the 14th instant writs of habeas corpus have been issued for the bodies of Bollman, Swartwout and Ogden, the two latter by judge Workman, who is strongly suspected for being connected with Burr in his conspiracy, as I have proof this man declared some time since that "the republican who possessed power and did not employ it to establish a despotism was a fool." His writ for Ogden was served on Capt. Shaw of the navy, who had him in charge at my request, on board the Etna bomb ketch, and delivered him up, and Mr. Workman discharged him without giving me a word of information, although he knew he was confined by my order for a treasonable combination with Burr, and Mr. Ogden now struts at large, Swartwout I have sent off and shall so report, holding myself ready for consequences. Bollman was required by the superior court, but I have got rid of that affair also, under the usual liability for damages, in which case I shall look to our country for protection.

I, James Wilkinson, Brigadier General and Commander in Chief of the Army of the United States to warrant the arrest of Dr. Erick Bollman on a charge of treason, misprision of treason, or such other offence against the government and laws of the United States as the following facts may legally charge him with—on my honor as a soldier, and on the holy evangelists of Almighty God, do declare and swear, that on the sixth day of November last, when in command at Natchitothes, I received by the hands of a Frenchman, a stranger to me, a letter from Doctor Erick Bollman, of which the following is a correct copy.

"New Orleans, Sept. 27, 1806.

"SIR,

"I have the honor to forward to your excellency the enclosed letters, which I was charged to deliver to you by our mutual friend. I shall remain for some time at this place, and should be glad to learn where and when I may have the pleasure of an interview with you. Have the goodness to inform me of it, and please to direct your letter to me, care of——————, or enclose it under cover to them. I have the honor to be with great respect, Sir,

Your excellency's most obedient servant,
(Signed) ERICK BOLLMAN."

Covering a communication in cypher from Col. Aaron Burr, of which the following is substantially as fair an interpretation as I have heretofore been able to make, the original of which I hold in my possession: "I (Aaron Burr) have obtained funds and have actually commenced the enterprize—detachments from different points and under different pretences will rendezvous on the Ohio 1st November—every thing internal and external favors views—Protection of England is secured——*T——is gone to Jamaica to arrange with the admiral on that station and will meet at the Mississippi——England——Navy of the United States are ready to join and final orders are given to my friends and followers—it will be an Host of choice spirits—Wilkinson shall be second to Burr only—Wilkinson shall dictate the rank and promotion of his officers—Burr will proceed Westward 1st August—never to return—with him go his daughter—the Husband will follow in October with a corps of worthies—send forth—with an intelligent and confidential friend with whom Burr may confer. He shall return immediately with further interesting details—this is essential to concert and harmony of movement. Send a list of all persons known to Wilkinson west of the mountains who could be useful, with a note delineating the characters. By your Messenger send me 4 or 5 of the commissions of your officers's which you can borrow under any pretence you please—

They shall be returned faithfully—Already are orders to the contractor given to forward six months provisions to points Wilkinson may name—this shall not be used until the last moment, and then under proper injunctions—the project is brought to the point so long desired——Burr guarantees the result with his life and honor—the lives, the honor and fortunes of hundreds, the best blood of our country——Burr's plan of operations is to move down rapidly from the falls on the 15th of November with the first 500, or 1000 men in light boats now constructing for that purpose—to be at Natchez between the 5th and 15th of December—then to meet Wilkinson—then to determine whether it will be expedient in the first instance to seize on or pass by Baton Rouge—on receipt of this send Burr an answer—draw on Burr for all expences &c. The people of the country to which we are going are prepared to receive us—their agents now with Burr say that if we will protect their religion and will not subject them to a foreign power, that in three weeks all will be settled. The Gods invite to glory and fortune—it remains to be seen whether we deserve the boon. The bearer of this goes express to you—he will hand a formed letter of introduction to you from Burr, a copy of which is hereunto subjoined—he is a man of inviolable honor and perfect discretion—formed to execute rather than to project—capable of relating facts with fidelity and incapable of relating them otherwise. He is thoroughly informed of the plans and intentions of——————, and will disclose to you as far as you enquire and no further—he has imbibed a reverence for your character and may be embarrassed in your presence—put him at ease and he will satisfy you. Doctor Bollman equally confidential, better informed on the subject and more intelligent will hand this duplicate—" 29th, July."

The day after my arrival at this city, the 25th of November last, I received another letter from the Doctor of which the following is a correct copy.

New-Orleans, 25th Nov. 1806.

"Sir,

"Your letter of the 6th inst. has been "duly received. Supposing that you "will be much engaged this morning I "defer waiting on your excellency till "you will be pleased to inform me of "the time when it will be convenient "to you to see me. I remain with "great respect,

"Your excellency's most "obedient servant,

His excellency
Marigny, the house between madame Trevigne and M. Macarty.

On the 30th of the same month I waited in person on Dr. E. Bollman, when he informed me that he had not heard from Col. Burr since his arrival here—that he (the said Dr. E. Bollman,) had sent dispatches to col. Burr by a lieut. Spence of the navy, and that he had been advised of Spence's arrival at Nashville in the state of Tennessee—And observed that Col. Burr had proceeded too far to retreat; that he (col. Burr) had numerous and powerful friends in the United States who stood pledged to support him with their fortunes, and that he must succeed.—That he, the said Dr. E. Bollman, had written to col. Burr on the subject of provisions, and that he expected a supply would be sent from New York, and also from Norfolk, where col. Burr had strong connexions. I did not see or hear from the doctor again until the 5th inst. when I called on him the second time. The mail having arrived the day before, I asked him whether he had received any intelligence from col. Burr. He informed me that he had seen a letter from col. Burr of the 30th of October, in which he (col. Burr) gave assurances that he should be at Natches with 2000 men on the 20th of December inst. where he should wait until he heard from this place. That he would be followed by 4000 men more, and that he (col. Burr,) if he had chosen, could have raised or got 12,000 as easy as 6,000, but that he did not think that number necessary—confiding fully in this information I became indifferent about farther disguise. I then told the Doctor that I should most certainly oppose col. Burr if he came this way. He replied, they must come here for equipments and shipping, and observed that he did not know what had passed between col. Burr and myself, obliqued at a sham defence and waved the subject.

From the documents in my possession, and the several communications, verbal as well as written, from the said Doctor Erick Bollman on this subject, I feel no hesitation in declaring under the solemn obligation of an oath, that
