PLUMMER & USILTON, .. Editors.

Chestertown: Saturday Morning, Dec. 7, 1861.

Our Country.

of compromise, improperly repealed by ington county, doorkeeper. extreme men of the South, such as Mason plause. and Slidell, refused to listen to compromise unless the Missouri line was extendan indefinite extent; they refused to treat the question practically—to extend the the Governor of the vacancy. line to the utmost verge of our possessions and to the Mexican boundary, but for an The first regular session of the Thirty- the heavy debt which has been entailed promise a single soldier at first, have now long and imposing train. ideal line that might never have an exist- Seventh Congress commenced its session upon us by the insane conduct of the reb- an aggregate of not less than forty thousence-for we may never own a foot of on Tuesday. The President's Message Mexican soil—the question of compromise was transmitted to Congress on Tuesday. sequence of our inability to collect the ne- third of that number, and they of doubtwas defeated. We do not exculpate the We give some extracts from it in another cessary amount by direct taxation in due ful whereabouts and doubtful existence, than the soldier; and yet there is perhaps the business transaction in due ful whereabouts and doubtful existence, than the soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due ful whereabouts and doubtful existence, than the soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due ful whereabouts are soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due ful whereabouts are soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due ful whereabouts are soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due ful whereabouts are soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due ful whereabouts are soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due ful whereabouts are soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due ful whereabouts are soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due ful whereabouts are soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due full whereabouts are soldier; and yet there is perhaps to the business transaction in due full whereabouts are soldier. acted like fanatics; but we speak of the solicitude and observation to the patriots ted for the expulsion. of the border States, that since the failure of the House a resolution was offered of these attempted adjustments, and during the progress of the war— the priva- inaugurate systematic measures for an ex- the five hundred thousand volunteers call- some contiguous parts of Maryland, have but have left for the time being their regtions and sufferings of the soldiers; the change of prisoners of war. A bill was ed for by the President under the act of laid down their arms, and the people there ular and more congenial employments to the other one six years, to serve twelve years; repudiation of debts by the South and also introduced relative to the confiscation Congress authorizing him so to do. I be- have renewed their allegiance to and ac- discharge an imperative obligation which until she is 25 years old. For Terms apply to losses by the Government; the captives taken by the South; the killed and wounded; the separation of many husbands and fathers and sons, from their employments and homes, to fight the battles of the Constitution; the dogged obstinancy and perseverance and braggadocia of President Davis and his assumed Government; and the taxation necessary to sustain the armies and navies of the Union;—that a change has come over the minds of many the occasion. We shall publish it entire The President commences with an acfeelings they once did. The subject of review of the difficulties and embarrassslavery is becoming a vexed and compli- ments under which the State has labored cated one. The people operate upon their since the commencement of the rebellion, representatives, and they upon the Presi- owing to the efforts of a disloyal Legisladent and the army; and it is now impos- ture to plunge us into the vortex of Secessible to foretell what may be the injury to sion, which they were deterred from doing the South by the time the rebellion is only by the "unmistakable threats of an quelled. By prolonging their resistance, aroused and indignant people." The old by their strenuous efforts to break up the disgraceful rebel body is "handled with-Union and the Government, and their arm- out gloves," and their epitaph is beautied resistance to the Constitution and the fully written in the following graphic and the difficulty of a reconciliation which appropriate words: "It met again and out the rebellion."

It met again and out the rebellion.

The reconciliation which appropriate words: "It met again and out the rebellion."

The reconciliation which appropriate words: "It met again and out the rebellion."

The reconciliation which appropriate words: "It met again and out the rebellion."

The reconciliation which appropriate words: "It met again and out the rebellion." the difficulty of a reconciliation which again; squandered the people's money, and The financial department of the Gov- ing chief repeatedly expressed his judgshall secure and protect all their interests made itself a mockery before the country. ernment is spoken of as having been man- ment in favor of General McClellan for upon the terms once proposed. The longer This continued until the General Governaged with judgment and success. This the position, and in this the nation seemed Who, except he who has never washed the conflict the greater the difficulty, and ment had ample reason to believe it was subject is disposed of with the remark that designation of Gen. McClellan is, thereof the interior and coasts of the South, de After performing these "last sad rites of Government will continue to sustain it till promised, and without which he cannot, some one hunt up a towel! And but for Dec. 7, 1861—3t. velope events, create circumstances and sepulture" without mourning for the dead, peace and Union shall again bless the land.

In referring to the report of the Secretic continues to develop that the insured, as it is, by the ontside pressure of measures as demand its immediate attenopinion, to which we have alluded. The tion,—as follows: dismissal of Frement, and the proclamation of General Dix, gave an earnest of a your predecessors, and deeming it impostendered greatly exceeds the force which and maturely considered public documents

Would nave been the hollow echo, Where?

But now they have towels—and we will wise I shall be reluctantly compelled to enforce which and maturely considered public documents.

The occasion, and that the number of troops is found in the most grave the occasion, and that the number of troops the deeming it impostendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle on or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle or tendered greatly exceeds the force which are requested to call and settle or tendered grea total non-interference with the difficult sible to mistake the wishes of the people, Congress authorized me to call into the las well as in the general tone of the strong- payment immediately thereafter. I am now subject that was creditable to the Government; but a change of circumstances— in special session, in order that you may and harbors, particularly on the great the events occurring, and the determina- at once perform the will of the people, by lakes and rivers, be placed in a proper tion to end the war speedily—may pro- taking such steps as will, in your wisdom, state of defence, in order that we may be cated with labored arguments to prove Southern interests. We fear that the sel- and loyalty of our State. fish and ambitious leaders in the South are ability and patriotism which I know to tions of the message are those which treat resolved to bring ruin upon their section. exist in this Senate and House of Dele- of the rebellion and the purposes and views people. In my present position, I could Instead of extending the area of slavery, by introducing it into the Territories, they will cut the mealure of from any alone of the Administration with respect to its scarcely be justified were I to omit raising on which you should take action will established a warning voice against this approach of returning despotism.

We are all, seven of us, confined in one call, size eleven by seventeen feet. Our returning despotism. will cut themselves off from any advan- cape your discernment. But in accord- dent's own language, as follows: tages of their settlement and may preju- ance with custom, and with the require- In considering the policy to be adopted CMIEF JUSTICE OF THE COURT OF AP- Revere, of the Massachusetts Twentieth, respectfully offers his services to all persons dice it seriously among themselves. Was ments of my duty, I herewith respectfully for suppressing the insurrection, I have there ever such folly, delusion and mad-offer some brief suggestions in regard to been anxious and careful that the inevitatice elect of the Court of Appeals from the Rockwood and myself, of the Fifteenth who desire the services of an agent to manage their Real Estate in this town or vicinity. The ness as they have evinced? And yet there the more prominent topics which demand ble conflict for this purpose shall not de- Second Judicial District, has been com- Massachusetts Regiment. We were trans- long services of the undersigned as Justice of are many in Maryland, who, under the

The tax-payers in Maryland are looking revolutions and remorseless missioned as Chief Jastice by Gov. Hicks. ferred from the tobacco warehouse, where the Peace, (which office he still holds, "and for this third expression of the confidence of his fellow citizens, he returns his grateful acknowly." garb of "peace," would have brought our with great interest for your action in New York State into the same vortex that is now gard to the best method of raising the money which is required to proper to keep city, on Tuesday, resulted in the election the battle of Leesburg, a fornight ago.—

Standing, as we do, for those privateers in the battle of Leesburg and impartial discount to make the municipal election in New York in every case thought it proper to keep city, on Tuesday, resulted in the election the battle of Leesburg, a fornight ago.—

Standing, as we do, for those privateers in the battle of Leesburg and impartial discount to the battle of Leesburg and the battle of swallowing up the bests interests of the money which is required to pay our pro- the primary object of the contest on our for Mayor. Fernando Wood was third in New York, we are treated the same as charge of the duties imposed upon him. South, destroying her people, losing her gross to sid in defraving the extended to his care will be promptly attended to and accounted for at many

Maryland-of some; who left and enlisted and that of her loyal sisters. in the Southern army; of many, who rean earlier and satisfactory settlement.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Both branches of the Maryland Legisare willing to give every constitutional Baltimore county, was elected Speaker of would be onerous, under all the circum- Maryland was made to seem against the Urie was the purchaser. This is al- engaged Fort McRae. The latter was guarantie against any Government inter- the House of Delegates, a position he occu- stances, I trust you will be able to devise Union. Our soldiers were assaulted, most the only public sale of land since the considerably damaged. The rebels admit ference with the institution, and organize pied at the session of 1856. J. Snowden this time move be avoided.

stances, I trust you will be able to the following particular the House of Delegates, a position ne occusome method by which its imposition at bridges were burned and railroads torn up secession movement in the South, and within her limits, and we were many days, the secession movement in the South, and There is no truth in the rumor about the the Territories without reference to the in- Thomas, of Cecil, was chosen chief clerk; this time moy be avoided. troduction or non-introduction of slavery James T. Millnor, of Baltimore city, ser- empowered "to contract debts to any a- single regiment over her soil to the Capi- and stability of the Government. Should The official account from Col. Brown will there; we will restore the Missouri line geant-at-arms, and Jacob Long, of Wash- mount that may be necessary for the de- tal. Now her bridges and railroads are the Government succeed, as we believe it no doubt throw more light on the affair

Southern votes and influence. The desire The message of Governor Hicks was was to avoid a conflict of arms and to adreceived and read by the clerk. During State, an amount sufficient for our purpose, her people at a regular election have susjust the difficulty, real or supposed, that the reading the audience frequently gave after deducting therefrom a proper pro- tained the Union by a larger majority and market. presented itself. But the politicians, the vent to their feeling by outburtsts of ap- portion to be reserved as a sinking fund a larger aggregate vote than they ever be-

CONGRESS.

Senator Breckinridge was formally ex- ernment. opinions and views of the people of that section, at the periods referred to.

The occupation of the solution of the section, at the periods referred to.

The occupation of the solution of t It must have been a matter of painful absent. Mr. Kennedy, of this State, vo- for by Congress, the Governor says:

The Governor's Message.

The late hour at which we received the Governor's Message, and the want of space, prevent its publication entire this comparatively short, and appropriate to with the rebellion.

The Governor commences with a brief if the South would consult her own dearest about to go through the farce of enacting It is gratifying to know that the expenfore, in considerable degree, the selection as expressed at the ballot-box, I have not field. hesitated to convene your honorable bodies The message recommeds that our ports abridgment of the existing right of suffrage donor will be, to let her always see them be paid them. My books have been left at the war. Has not the conduct of many in follow her own former patriotic example adhered to the blockade of the ports held mounts to the sum of four hundred and gress enacted at the late session for closing mained and encouraged and sympathized, thirty-six thousand eight hundred and those ports. So, also, obeying the dicand sometimes aided the South in her re- twenty-three dollars and thirty-three cents; tates of prudence, as well as the obligabellion-given strength and comfort and and Congress has allowed fifteen percent- tions of law, instead of transcending I and paraded in our town on Tuesday last, battle will be fought at Columbus, and if hope to the Southern leaders? If Mary-land, Kentucky and Missouri had been land, Kentucky and Missouri had been land, Kentucky and Missouri had been land, It is impossible for me to offer any ry purposes. If a new law upon the same true; if all the good people of those States estimate of the amount that will be neces- subject shall be proposed its propriety der the command of Lieutenant Col. E. E. is felt in Arkansas. The Little Rock had united as a band of constitutional and sary for the other purposes I have indi- will be duly considered. Union loving patriots to defend and sup- cated. But I look upon the whole subject The Union must be preserved; and kins will soon have provided winter tents ceived from the Northwest yesterday had port the Government and the Constitution, not be regarded. The rebellion is to be employed. We should not be in haste to Unless a northern shelter of woods with a direction. Many of them talked of a prethe Southern mind, and might have led to State must bear her share of the expense, sures, which may reach the loyal as well and our people have shown their desire to as the disloyal, are indispensable.

careful reader and observer, that nine was chosen President of the Senate; C. cate their devotion to the government. A tict now, and the progress of events is soon be among them. months or a year since, when the rebel- Harwood, of Anne Arundel, secretary; would, in my opinion, fall heavily upon gents claimed a strong support from north lion in the South was in its infancy and E. M. Tingle, of Worcester, reading cl'k; the people at this time, because of the par- of Mason and Dixon's line, and the friends early progress, that the masses in the Alex. Knotts, of Caroline, sergeant-at- tial prostration of the Union were not free from appre- for Mr. J. H. Burchinal, sold at public ceased firing. Fort Pickens and the bat-North were disposed to make any liberal arms, and Thos. S. Herbert, of Washingnev can be procured in no other way, dinev can be procured in no other way. compromise. They said: we have nothing to do with slavery in the States; we ing to do with slavery in the States; we ing to do with slavery in the States; we ing to do with slavery in the States; we ing to do with slavery in the States; we ing to do with slavery in the States; we ing to do with slavery in the States; we ingular to make any liberal arms, and Thos. S. Herbert, of washing to no other way, di-was soon settled definitely, and on the farm in Queen Anne's county, containing Rebel steamers Time and Neims, and the such a tax is always unacceptable, and Delaware led off right from the first.—

Navy Yard, while the Federal steamers

fense of the State," it seems to me that the repaired and open to the Government; she will, by May next land will advance $10 than do the rebel accounts. best method of raising the required sum already gives seven regiments to the cause would be to borrow, on the bonds of the Union and none to the enemy; and will, by May have been released from the parole on which he has been since he for their redemption.

els. We shall also be spared the mortifi- and men in the field for the Union; while cation which would certainly ensue in con- of their citizens certainly not more than a money to pay the expense of recruiting the Potomac or east of the Chesapeake. and equipping the troops.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

week. We have room only for some of to Congress on Tuesday, and read in both popular movements in behalf of the Union made up and presented one of the compathe more important recommendatory por- houses. It is clear and explicit in its in North Carolina and Tennessee. These nies a supply of towels—a very necessary tions, referable to the duty of the State statements, practical in its suggestions, things demonstrate that the cause of the Lot, Carriage House, Meat House, &c., at in its relation to the General Government and eminently conservative in its treatand to the rebellion. The document is ment of the exciting subjects connected Southward.

Since your adjournment Lieut, General timely gift in the following appropriate of the Carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the Carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the Carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the Carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the Carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the Carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, Meat House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, &c., at timely gift in the following appropriate of the carriage House, &c., at timely gift in the foll knowledgment of "gratitude to God for not been unmindful of his merit; yet on unusual good health and most abundant brilliantly he has served his country from for your liberal donation of towels to said A LL persons indebted to the firm of RUTH harvests." The disappointment of the a time far back in our history, when few Company, and hope such unmerited kindsettle their accounts with R. S. EMORY, on rebels in not receiving the assistance they of the now living had been born, and ness will influence them to so conduct or before the FIRST DAY OF JANUARY next anticipated from foreign powers, is alluded thenceforward continually, I cannot but themselves as to merit your esteem. Cold at which time he will remove to the country. to, and the President thinks that if those think we are still his debtors. I submit, and insensible must be his feelings that is All disregarding this notice will find their acnations could have been induced to diseard their obligations to our country for the their obligations to our country for the their obligations to our country for the to ourselves as a grateful people. sake af commercial advantages, or the ob With the rettrement of Gen. Scott came who can restrain his admiration when wotainment of cotton, which was mainly re the Executive duty of appointing in his man generously interests herself in our lied on by the South, they no doubt would stead a General-in-Chief of the army. It welfare? whose heart is never cheerful the more readily find an easier accomplish-hostility and come back to the Union. son was summarily stopped by the disper- are not beyond the resources of the loyal and hence there is better reason to hope imagine; and there is nothing more vex- women's shoes. He carried off one of Allen's six hered revolving pistols and some other people, and to believe that the same patri-there will be given him the confidence and ling than to be compelled to stand with six barrel revolving pistols, and some other small articles. The above reward will be paid otism which has thus far sustained the cordial support thus by fair implication head, face, hands, all wet, waiting for for the recovery of the pistol.

> It is gratifying to know that the patriupon the first principles of popular governto that question when asked by the soldier
>
> A LL persons indebted to the undersigned for Subscription, Advertising, or Jobotism of the people has proved equal to ment—the rights of the people. Conclu- would have been the hollow echo, Where? Printing, are requested to call and settle on or prepared for any emergency.

I have such confidence in the courage, The most important and interesting porgress, to aid in defraying the expense of of vital military importance to the more didate, polling a slightly larger vote. The be the result of all this I do not know. I promptly attended to and accounted for at ma-

by the insurgents, instead of putting in Our proportion of the national tax a- force, by proclamation, the law of Con-upon Fort Sumter, and a general review The Legislature being constitutionally at one time, without the ability to bring a fore gave to any candidate, or any ques-time to meet our obligations to the gov- are in arms against it.

An insurgent force of about 1,500, for esteem of all good citizens; and more es-It is undoubtedly a strict duty, and also months dominating the narrow peninsular pecially is this true when applied to the lieve that quota can be raised without dif- cepted the protection of the old flag. This ficulty so soon as you shall advance the leaves no armed insurrectionists north of

Also, we have obtained a footing at each of the isolated points on the Southern coast altogether forgetful of the soldiers' com-

Scott has retired from the head of the ar- card:

rection is largely, if not exclusively, a war good lady and her co-laborers, the answer surgents. In those documents we find the est additional evidences of gratitude to the indebted, and hope that prompt attention will and the denial of the people of all right to participate in the selection of public offi bearing the indications of having made sence he, or Mr. W. A. VICKERS and in my absence he, or Mr. L. S. FOW LER, is authorized to receipt for me. cers, except the legislative, boldly advo- good use of the towels! that large control of the people in governa possible refuge from the power of the writes from Richmond, November 27th:

Togal Matters.

THE HOME GUARDS .- "Camp Vickers" is filling up; the Guards in force exercised says that during the next few days a great Massey. We understand that Col. Wil- Democrat says: "The exciting news resouthern slope can be procured, we should cipitate retreat from town, and we should think that a close board fence, six or eight not be surprised if, by to-night-unless do so by casting an overwhelming majority The last ray of hope for preserving the feet high, on the northern exposure, would better news is heard—both houses are left of their votes in favor of the maintenance Union peaceably, expired at the assault add very much to the comfort of the quar- without a quorum." Yours, then, should be no niggard hand. of what has occurred since may not be unlature were organized on Wednesday .- In this case liberality will be economy; profitable. What was painfully uncertain py, and well provided for in every respect. give the particulars, as published in their It must have been obvious to every The Hon. H. H. Goldsborough, of Talbot, and the people look to you thus to vindi- then is much better defined and more dis- The paymaster, we have understood, will papers, of the attack on Fort Pickens. -

ARTILLERY .- The 2nd and 3rd Light to Congress. The seat of Coleman Yellot, Senator The interest on the bonds might be met tion. Kentucky, too, for some time in Artillery, Capt. Snow, Purnell's Legion, from Baltimore city, (who is now in Vir- by a very slight increase of the present doubt, is now decidedly, and I think un- passed through the upper part of this couned to territory hereafter to be acquired, to ginia,) was declared vacant, and the Presincreased, would not amount to the rate on. Missouri is comparatively quiet, and to Salishow Mis increased, would not amount to the rate on. Missouri is comparatively quiet, and to Salisbury, Md. The batteries consist- traband articles. The steamer cleared ident of the Senate requested to inform so long and cheerfully borne by our people I believe cannot again be overrun by the ed of twelve brass guns, and the horses, from Canada, and was consigned to parthus pledging the State's credit, the peo- The three States of Maryland, Kentuc- numbering near two hundred, ordinance ple will be relieved from paying at once ky and Missouri, neither of which would and baggage wagons constituted quite a

> REMEMBERING THE SOLDIER. - No one is more grateful for kindnesses and favors no class who receive so little sympathy and tions with him, to defer calling till Thursday After a somewhat bloody struggle of consideration. The occupation of the sol-

The President's Message was presented likewise have some general accounts of tal Quartermaster of our Home Guards has rounding country.

In the Excellent lady of the regimental processions at services to the critizens of the Town and surrounding country.

[d7.3.*] Since your adjournment Lieut. General timely gift in the following appropriate occupied by James Graves, Esq. For terms apply to GEO, VICKERS, Esq. or to the subscrip-

> "CAMP VICKERS, Nov. 30, 1861. Dec. 7, 1861-3t. MRS. J. N. McDaniel:-The members and pleasure - we seldom think of others; is a fortunate circumstance that neither in unless others' wants are supplied, and excouncil nor country was there, so far as I pects no reward save the gratification of

ALONZO MING, THOMAS WILLSON,

THE PRISONERS AT RICHMOND .- Capt. ment is the source of all political evil .- Bowman, of the Fifteenth Massachusetts Monarchy itself is sometimes hinted at as Regiment, and now a prisoner of war, mess is made up of Cols. Coggswell and THE undersigned having had much experience in the Collection and settlement of slaves, devastating her soil and products, the war, and also the other sums, which deliberate action of the Legislature. In vote stood, for Opdyke, 25,259; Gunther, trust that all will be necessary to enable this State to the exercise of my best discretion I have 24,588; Wood, 24,185.

THE REBELS IN TERROR. - A despatch from Memphis to the Nashville Patriot represents that place as in great excitement relative to an expected invasion by Federal troops by land and water, and

The reports state that the bombardment began on the 21st ultimo, and continued night and day until the 24th, when Col. LAND SALE .- Geo. Vickers, Esq., agent Brown (the commander at Fort Pickens,) within her limits, and we were many days, shows increased confidence in the strength disabling of the Niagara and Colorado.

was permitted to attend his brother's funeral, and the disposition of his case left

Information has been received of the seizure, on the northeastern coast, of a Canadian steamer laden with 10,000 musties in the Southern States.

Marshal Kane has been released from Fort Warren for three weeks, on parole. He goes to attend the funeral of his fath-next, as he expects to be absent. Chestestown, Dec. 7, '61-1t.

SURVEYING. THE undersigned is prepared to do all kinds of Land Surveying. Office next door to T W. Eliason's Store.

Professional Notice.

of Hatteras, Port Royal, Tybee Island fort. The excellent lady of the regimen- of Millington, respectfully offers his profession-

ply to GEO. VICKERS, Esq. or to the subscri-

Chestertown, dec7-4t. Sale of Fruit Trees,

At the Mirket House, in Chestertown, AT 1 O'CLOCK, TO-DAY. A choice assortment of Peach, Apple, Cherry, Apricot, Quince, Currants, Gooseberry, Raspberry, &c., from the old established Clairmont

Nurseries, Baltimore, Md., by
d7* WM. CORSE & SON, Proprietors.

designation of Gen. McClellan is, there- towel? "Where's the towel?" is an in- a Youth, aged about 18 years, calling himself interests, she would at once renounce her an Ordinance of Secession, when the treaditures made necessary by the rebellion of the country as well as of the Executive, quiry more frequently made than many snuff-colored slouch bat, black frock coat, and

Last Notice.

JAMES M. VICKERS. Chestertown, dc.7-4t.

AGENCY

FOR THE COLLECTION OF ACCOUNTS, RENTS, AND THE CARE AND MANAGEMENT OF REAL ESTATE, IN CHESTERTOWN, AND

JOHN N. USILTON,

Chestertown, Md.