The Rent News.

CHESTERTOWN:

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1863.

UNION NOMINATIONS. For Comptroller of the Treasury: SAMUEL S. MAFFIT,

For Commissioner of the Land Office; WM. L. W. SEABROOK, OF FREDERICK COUNTY.

OF CECIL COUNTY.

THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Since our last issue events of the greatest importance have transpired in Western Maryland and Pennsylvania. On Satur- force captured at Edwards's Ferry, on the day the Rebels occupied Carlisle without upper Potomac, fifteen barges loaded with opposition, and then moved towards Harisburg eighteen miles distant engagement with most of their valuable contents, confour miles from that city on Sunday after- stores, 150 negroes were taken off by the States revenue cutter Caleb Cushing had sitions for military purposes or use herenoon. The city of York, 53 miles north rebels. from Baltimore and 28 south from Harrisburg, was also occupied on Saturday by ged if the demand was not met in twenty- being captured. four hours. From York they moved west Gen. Rosecrans in his brilliant forward ly entered the harbor of Portland on Fri. than the commanding general that he can to Wrightville, on the Susquehanna, the movement has taken possession of the leader and return to the normal after putting in irons all on board. On condition of a country at peace, and a Federal troops occupying the place, after movement has taken possession of the after putting in irons all on board. On condition of a country at peace, and a towns, gaps, and strongly fortified lines Saturday morning the authorities at Port- Government sustained by a united and the other side of the river. The splendid lately held by the Rebels, with but slight land promptly dispatched the steamers loyal people. ROBERT C. SCHENCK, railway bridge, one mile and a quarter losses on our side. The constant and hea-

Robels from crossing. Another body of Rebel cavalry occupied the town of Hanover, and destroyed six Tullahoma, where he safely fell back .bridges on the Northern Central railroad The fighting extended the whole length of between Hanover Junction and York.

of the Potomac indicates an activity of Gens. Mitchell and Stanley; on the right movement that is promising of vigorous our forces encountered and drove back work. The main body of the army is close Claiborne's Division, in a severe engagework. The main body of the army is close to the enemy, while our cavalry is routing to the enemy, while our cavalry is routing that no club-house or other place of like conduct in the severe conflicts at Monte-has had some experience in the business, and the ment, in which we lost three hundred men. The fighting continued at intervals for had an opportunity of welcoming a divithem with loss from the towns in Penn- three days. Our forces took a large num- sion of the great Rebel army within their without the consent of the general com- tenant, then captain, and finally major of sylvania. General Pleasanton is making ber of prisoners. The Rebel accounts say bounds. It is said that a prominent Peace houses, dricking saloons and other places that their men fought till their ammunition Democrat of the captain, and many major of the days. Our forces took a large number of the great Rebel army within their men forces took a large number of the great Rebel army within their men forces took a large number of the great Rebel army within their men forces took a large number of the great Rebel army within their men forces took a large number of the great Rebel army within their men forces took a large number of the captain, and many major of the captain, and rapid movements have already induced was exhausted, and then fell back. Gen. ered a party of cavalrymen leading five or of the same character are to be closed be- rebellion. On the 31st of August, 1861, General Lee to abandon, at least for the Bragg's force is estimated at 36,000 men. six horses and some cattle from his barn tween the hours of 8 P. M. and 8 A. M. he was appointed brigadier general of volpresent, his attack on Harrisburg and to concentrate his forces for defence. Gen.

Clouch is advancing on the column of the colu Couch is advancing on the column of the enemy retreating from Carlisle, and will steadily progressing, but the firing had enemy retreating from Carlisle, and will steadily progressing, but the firing had and was opposed to the war and to the outline and will steadily progressing, but the firing had and was opposed to the war and to the outline and white outline and was opposed to the war and to the outline and white outline and was opposed to the war and to the outline and was opposed to the serious, about the morning of the 26th ult. The siege was sympathized with the cause of the South, to give the citizens an opportunity to drill. be enabled greatly to harass his move- semewhat slackened in consequence of the Administration, and had done all in his ments. The body of Stuart's cavalry that heat. On the 25th fighting continued all left Westminster on Tuesday morning was day, and at night one of the Rebel forts overtaken at Hanover by Gen. Pleasanton was blown up by a mine laid by our men. early the same afternoon, when a fight im- A breach was made in the walls, through the day. The Rebels were defeated with savagely, but were driven bock, and Gen. Government. a loss of four hundred killed and wounded. Logan had mounted two heavy guns in Six pieces of artillery were captured. Our the abandoned works. The movements loss is not over two hundred.

afternoon and evening of Wednesday, in and was reported moving southwards. the direction of Gettysburg, and it was The Richmond Enquirer of the 26th ult. Eastern Shore counties: believed at Harrisburg that a great battle publishes a very significant article explain- Worcester county-David H. Straughn. was going on between Generals Meade ing, and apologizing for Gen. Lee's lenien- Somerset county-Thomas L. Powell.

at his own request, it is said—of the says that it would not do for Gen. Lee to Queen Anne's county—James R. Dill. command of the Army of the Potomac, use harsh measures or allow his troops to Kent county-Eben W. Frazier. and Major Gen. Geo. G. Meade, for some plunder, until the Army of the Potomac Cecil county-John Bennet. time commander of the Fifth Army Corps, appointed his successor. He bears the reputation of a brave soldier and a good regular system of plunder, destruction, and retaliation.

The news from Merice, to the Vallandigham He should have been superseded directly of a regular system of plunder, destruction, the district headquarters being located at Easton.

The news from Merice, to the Vallandigham He should have been superseded directly of a regular system of plunder, destruction, the district headquarters being located at Easton.

The news from Merice, to the Committee were cruel kindness to him and little less of the committee were cruel kindness to him and l corps commander, and he is represented The news from Mexico, to the 6th June, has been appointed recording clerk to the to be popular with the officers and men of is of the highest importance. Juarez and board of enrollment. the army. The Baltimore American says: his Cabinet had concluded to evacuate the whole country if General McClellan had had been or should be found in arms a- on Tuesday, August 11, at 3 o'clock P. M. and so signify, by endorsing the duplicate mander, he rendered him a most hearty for boy's wear, half price, now is the time.

General Lee's entire army is now in The President has conferred a Major-Pennsylvania. Lee and staff were at Car- Generalship on General Pleasanton, the lisle on Monday night. On Tuesday the gallant cavalry officer. Rebels were falling back from Harrisburg and other points, and concentrating in the Valley, between Shippensburg and Chambersburg, anticipating probably an attack to a command under Gen. Banks. from the Army of the Potomac.

The precise whereabouts of the army of the Potomac was not generally known till Sunday, when Gen. Hooker's farewell or- Union State Convention held in Baltimore City Union Convention der, dated on that day, located his head- on the 23d of June, we remarked: 'The has made the following nominations: quarters at Frederick, Md. Of its move- resolutions were adopted, all except the Judge of Circuit Court-Wm. Alexander. ments since General Meade assumed com- last unanimously." This sentence has Clerk of Circuit Court-John B. Askew. mand, no definite information is given, been misconstrued by some to mean that Clerk of Superior Court-Alford Mace. further than that it is in a position to re-ceive or make an attack, as circumstances the last resolution—which makes it the Sheriff—John J. Danaker. may warrant.

land Heights, first removing all the Gov- was rejected. This was not the case. The ernment property, and destroying the for- resolution was adopted, but ten votes havtifications. The change in the programme ing been cast in the negative. of the war rendered its further occupancy soldiers under the gallant General French appearance in our town," was a case of have been obtained.

Washington Republican. Army of the Potomac.

Md., an entire train on its way to Freder- case is reported. ick, The train was composed of about one THE 2ND E. S. REGIMENT, Col. Rodgteams. The only escort was six cavalrymen. at Monkton last Saturday.

Major Gen. Dix telegraphs from Fortress, June 28th, as follows: Col. Spear, attempt their destruction.

On Sunday afternoon a large cavalry risburg, eighteen miles distant, encamping sisting of rations of all kinds. Besides the

Another unsuccessful assault has been a force estimated at three thousand. Here made by Gen. Banks on Port Hudson. It died on Friday morning, and she was de- will be promptly made the subject of obthey made a demand upon the authorities occurred on Sunday, the 14th ult., and tained until his successor, Lieut. Merri- servation and treatment. for money and supplies of the value of two resulted, according to the only detailed man, then in New York, could arrive. It Traitorous and dangerous persons must hundred and fifty thousand dollars, one account received, in a Federal repulse, further appears that the officers of the prihundred thousand dollars of which was rewhose name must ever appear conspicuous in the history of its achievements; but I ty may seem to require. "To save the
ty may seem to require. "To save the rely upon the hearty support of my comquired to be in United States treasury and wounded. Still another assault, it is tured by Federal cruisers, set her on fire country is paramount to all other considerable and wounded. notes, and gave the inhabitants to under- said, was made on the 18th, and resulting and transferred themselves to a small fish- erations." stand that their premises would be pilla- as before, nearly all of the attacking force ing schooner, called the Archer. On this When the occasion for this proclamation long, was then destroyed to prevent the vy rains so retarded operations, however, that General Rosecrans did not succeed in forcing Bragg from his line of retreat to our lines. On the right a cavalry engage ment took place on Wednesday, in which Our latest intelligence from the Army the Rebel Forrest was forced to retreat by General Hooker has been relieved— he has invaded. The Richmond Enquirer Caroline county—John T. Downes. plunder, until the Army of the Potomac New York paper says that the tenor of the is whipped, then it promises the adoption No deputy was appointed for Talbot New York paper says that the tenor of the weeks before the tenth day of August next.

gainst the French.

The report of the capture of a part of the Purnell Legion is contradicted. Maj. Gen. Franklin has been assigned week the five resolutions adopted by the es. - Baltimore Sun. duty of the next Legislature to provide State's Attorney-John L. Thomas. Our troops on Tuesday evacuated Mary- for calling a Constitutional Conventionvarioloid, of mild form, the subject being have been obtained. A detachment of Rebel cavalry, on Sun- a young man from Baltimore. We learn hundred empty wagons, thirty or forty partially loaded with forage, and two ambulances. The wagons were all six mule thern Central Railroad. Company A was es. He was in the service of his country and his house and barn burned. - Cum- aid and comfort to the enemy by relieving of the country and his house and barn burned. - Cum- aid and comfort to the enemy by relieving of the country and his house and barn burned. - Cum- aid and comfort to the enemy by relieving of the country and his house and barn burned. - Cum- aid and comfort to the enemy by relieving of the country and his house and barn burned. - Cum- aid and comfort to the enemy by relieving of the country and his house and barn burned.

EXCITEMENT IN BALTIMORE.

msa_sc2901_scm1621-0552 copyright Maryland State Archives

No immediate apprehension of an attack of the 11th Pennsylvania cavalry, whom on Baltimore was felt until Monday night, the following proclamation: I sent out two days ago, completely de- when there was the most intense excitestroyed the bridge of the Virginia Central ment in that city. The alarm bells were Railroad over the South Anna, and cap- rang and the troops and citizens called to sable, four captains, five lieutenants, and the city papers, as follows: A company of tured Gen. W. F. Lee, Licut. Col. Har- arms. The cause of the alarm is given by one hundred privates, and brought them the First Delaware cavalry was at Westin. He has also brought in 35 wagons, minster on Monday, on a scouting expediwith six mules each, and 150 mules in ad- tion, when they were unexpectedly attack- means of defense and security. This se- on many a well-fought field. Impressed prime red at 150a160 cts., common and ordinawith six mules each, and 150 mules in ad- tion, when they were unexpectedly attack- dition, and from 75 to 100 horses. He cd by a superior force of Rebel cavalry, described against known curity is to be provided a took $15,000 in Confederate bonds, just and most of them either killed, wounded hostilities and opposition to the lawful and commander of the Army of the Potomac to good white at 93a95 cts.; yellow 92a95 cts., issued, from an agent of the authorities at or taken prisoners. The remainder re- national government from every quarter is impaired, I part from it, yet not with- per bushel. Richmond. This is all public property. treated towards Baltimore, and were pur- and in every form. Traitors and disaffect- out the deepest emotion. The sorrow of OATS.—Sales of Maryland by weight at 82a No private property has been touched. | sued to Pikesville, seven miles from the ed persons within must be restrained and parting with the comrades of so many bat-Additional statements in regard to the city, by a portion of the Rebel cavalry. — made to contribute to the common safety, tles is relieved by the conviction that the fight at Westminster between the Third Parties both from Reisterstown and Pikesfight at Westminster between the Third Parties both from Reisterstown and Pikespunished for his bold invasion. Martial punished for his bold invasion. With the cornect between the Third ville, supposing this to be an advance of law is therefore declared and hereby established for his bold invasion. Martial punished for his bold invasion. With the cornect but the Rebels on the city in force, came galcavalry, are to the effect that of the Del- loping in, and so reported. A large body tablished in the city and county of Baltiaware company, numbering 104 men, 12 of troops started out from Baltimore about more, and in all the counties of the Weswere killed and 50 taken prisoners, some Monday midnight to meet the enemy, and tern Shore of Maryland. of the latter being wounded; the remain- proceeded as far as Westminster, reaching The commanding general gives assurance tion, I bid it farewell. der made their escape. Captain Corbil, there at six o'clock on Tuesday morning. that this suspension of the civil governwho was in command, received a severe They were told that Gen. J. E. B. Stuart, ment within the limits defined shall not Address of General Meade on Taking Comwound in the side and was taken prisoner. with about eight thousand cavalry, had extend beyond the necessities of the occa-Gunboats are stationed at Havre-de- encamped there that night, but left at sion. All the civil courts, tribunals, and Grace, and in the Gunpowder river, to daylight, going in the direction of Hano- public functionaries, of State, county or protect the bridges of the Baltimore and ver and York, to join the main body of city authority, are to continue in the dis-Philadelphia railroad, should the Rebels their forces. This is the same body of charge of their duties as in times of peace; cavalry that captured the wagon train in only in no way interfering with the exer-Montgomery county on Sunday.

AN EXTRAORDINARY AFFAIR. two months' cruise, and was about to sail. ous practices tending to the encouragement vessel, disguised as fishermen, they quiet- passes by, no one will be more rejoiced Chesapeake and Forest City, with two hunovertaking the Cushing a naval engage- lished under the above order require:-They numbered twenty-two, and are now in Fort Preble.

_____ How the Rebels Treat their Friends.

cy toward the people of the country which Dorchester county-Thomas H. Coburn.

"The battle of Chancellersville had so fa- city of Mexico, believing that they could | Congressional Convention. -At a con- it down; second, that the committe will prove equal to its great responsibilities. tally injured public confidence in General make a better resistance to the French out- sultation of most of the delegates to the list a thorough soldier who enjoys the LIAVE you been to the Hooker's abilities, that almost any change side of the walls. On the 31st ult. the State Convention from the Eastern Shore, third, that they will see that the army em- confidence of his brother officers, and is would be accepted as for the better." The government was moved to San Luis de it was resolved to hold the Convention to ployed for the purpose is well paid, fed, unembarrassed by the hostility of the Mc- If not, by all means go and see the cheap Black same paper also remarks that "it would Potosi. Gen. Forey had issued a decree nominate a candidate for Congress for the and clothed. If the committee, or a ma- Clellan interest in the army or elsewhere. Silks, Dress Goods, Muslims, Shawls, Dusters, have given more general confidence to the confiscating the property of all parties who First Congressional District, at Cambridge jority of them, endorse these propositions. While General McClellan was his com- Calicoes, Hoop Skirts, Flannels, Pants' stuff

> tions in and around this city are now said be released. to be in complete readiness, and the various street barricades have been much improv- RANK IN THE ARMY .- The question of will be judged fairly on its merits. That, ed. Commodore Dorin, at the request of rank between the major generals of the we are confident, is all he asks. Major Gen. Schenck, has placed two gun- army has been decided by the board of first to complete her enrollment; Vermont and second, that the order in which the next. In Rhode Island, there are of the names stood in the list when the appointfirst class liable to draft, 9,748; second ments were sent in to the Senate deterclass, married men, 6,481; third class, mines the rank between Generals Banks, unnecessary in a military point of view, THE small-pox, reported by the Trans- soldiers in service, 1,966. In New York Dix and Butler, without regard to the acwhilst its large garrison of disciplined cript of last Saturday to have "made its city the enrollment is nearly completed, tual date of appointment by the President.

nearly forty years.

MARTIAL LAW PROCLAIMED.

Major Gen. Schenck on Tuesday issued HEADQUARTERS MIDDLE DEPARTMENT,

8TH ARMY CORPS, The immediate presence of a rebel army the Potomac. It is transferred to Major little variation. The following were the nomeise of the predominant power assumed and asserted by the military authority .-All peaceful citizens are required to re-An extraordinary affair occurred in the main quietly at their homes, and in purharbor of Portland, Me., on Friday night they may be possibly subject to call for invasion. Whatever fatigues and sacriof last week. It appears that the United personal services or Cther necessary requibeen heavily armed and provisioned for a lafter. All seditious language or mischiev-Her commander, Captain Clark, however, of rebellion are especially prohibited, and Major General Commanding. dred troops on board, in pursuit, and on The special rules and regulations estabment ensued. After a brisk fight the cap- First, that firearms are not to be sold withtors of the cutter blew her up, and took out a special permit. Second, that no per- the Third Artillery. That commission he also, Prime LARD, all Kent county cured, now to their small boats, but were all taken son will be allowed to leave the city withprisoners by the pursuing Federal forces. out a pass properly signed by the provost army again as second lieutenant of Topomarshal. Third, that no person will be graphical Engineers on the 19th of May, permitted to pass the barricades between 1842. He distinguished himself highly the hours of 10 P. M. and 4 A. M., with- in the opening battle of the Mexican war The Copperheads of York county, Pa., out the countersign to the guard. Fourth, at Palo Alto, and was breveted for gallant command of the party thanked him heart- The bridge over the Susquehanna, at suffering from this wound he was promoted ily for his sympany, but told him that he Columbia, which was destroyed on Sun- to the high position of major general. His jy4-3t. would take the horses and cattle as a con- day night, was constructed in 1834, at a recent gallant career and valuable services mediately ensued, lasting the balance of which our men entered. The rebels fought tribution from a friend to the Confederate cost of $175,000, and was the property of as commander of a division at the first batthe Columbia Bank. It was 5,020 feet the of Fredericksburg, and as commander APPOINTMENT OF DEPUTY Provost Marof wood, and about 40 feet wide; had two at Chancellorsville, are so recent as to be

AND OTHERS. Heavy cannonading was heard all the tery. He had gone beyond the Big Black, lowing appointments of Deputy Provost sengers and tow paths, the latter for the Marshals for his district, composed of the Susquehanna and Tidewater Canal. The order from Harrisburg to prevent the rebels from crossing was imperative, and the destruction of the bridge was absolutely

> THE FOR THE RELEASE OF MR. VALLANDIG- field. He did well in every station below Provided a copy of this order be published in HAM. - A dispatch from Washington to a the highest; but in that he failed - it mat- some newspaper printed on the Eastern Shore G. Jefferson Vickers, of Chestertown, released, and will be, if the committee were cruel kindness to him and little less Major Gen. Fremont, appointed July 1, rebels have advanced: to take rank from May 14, 1861. Major General Banks, appointed June 5, to take rank May 16, 1861. Major Gen. Dix, appointed June 14, to take rank May 16, 1861. Major Gen Butler, appointed May 16, to take rank May 16, 1861.

The decision is upon two grounds: First, . that an appointment may be ante-dated by THE ENROLLMENT. - Rhode Island is the President, as in Gen. Fremont's case, berland (Md.). Union.

THE CHANGE OF COMMANDERS. Farewell Address of General Hooker.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Frederick, Md., June 28th, 1863

Joseph Hooker, Major General. HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF POTOMAC,

June 28, 1863.

By direction of the President of the of the Army of the Potomac. As a sol- BY to HESTER A. CURRINGTON. unexpected and unsolicited, I have no RUTTER to SUSIE A. ROLLISON. promises or pledges to make. The coun- BAIRD to SUSAN J. MIDDLETON. try looks to this army to relieve it from fices we may be called upon to undergo, let us have in view constantly the magnitude of the interests involved, and let each man determine to do his duty, leaving to an all-controlling Providence the decision of the contest. It is with just diffidence that I relieve in the command of this army an eminent and accomplished soldier, whose name must ever appear conspicuous charge of the duties of the important trust which has been confided to mc.

GEORGE G. MEADE, Sketch of General Meade.

George G. Meade was born in Spain, George and Margaret D. Cooper, aged 9 years. during a temporary sojourn of his parents in that country. Returning with them to the United States, at an early age, he entered the Military Academy at West Point in 1831, and graduated in 1835, receiving a commission as second lieutenant of HASTERN SHORE BACON! resigned in October, 1836, but entered the on hand and for sale without advance, by

ET TU BRUTE. -The New York Tribune and in Tuesday's edition says:

General Hooker is a brave and loyal officer, and has distinguished himself by THE PRESIDENT'S REPLY TO THE COMMIT- energy and coolness on many a battle on or before the fourth day of October next .-

fect: First, that a rebellion exists and General Meade assumes command at a that it is his, the President's duty to put critical moment, but we trust that he will letter to that effect, and return it to the and unquestioning support, and he has Defenses of the City.—The fortifica- President, then Mr. Vallandigham will never since breathed a sentence of disparaging criticism. His appointment seems every way judicious, and his generalship cheap, by boats near the wharf at the foot of Broad- officers to which it has been submitted by Distances.—The following table shows ceived by way, and one near the Long Bridge, at determining the following order of pre- the towns and distances on the Cumber-AN EXPLANATION.—In publishing last tion to bear upon the city and its approach— Major Gen. McClellan, appointed May six miles north of Williamsport, on the want should get them immediately before it is land Valley Railroad from Hagerstown, 14, 1861, to take rank from same date. Potomac, to Harrisburg, along which the

> Hagerstown, - -Morgantown, - - 4 State Line, Green Castle, Marion, - - 16 Chambersburg, - - 22 Scotland, - - -Shippensburg, -Newville, - -Alleston, - - 48 Goodhope, - - -Carlisle, - -Mechanicsburg, - -Harrisburg, - - 74

A DILEMMA CONCERNING REBEL NOTES. for sale at the Tin and Stove Store of -Judge Wylie, sitting in the District je27. THE DEATH OF REAR-ADMIRAL FOOTE. A party of Imboden's cavalry, while in ralty, is at a loss to know what to do with the best TOBACCO, for the price in town. day morning, captured near Rockville, that he has entirely recovered. No other here of so many payed victories died in Twice Se on Murlan's Broad and Smoking Tobacco hero of so many naval victories, died in Twigg, Sr., on Murley's Branch, a few money, included in property brought be- good and cheap! New York on the 26th uit. He was a miles from this city, for the purpose of se- fore him for condemnation. He says that June 27. native of Connecticut, and a son of Sena- curing horses. The old gentleman fired to condemn it would be to recognize it as TISHING RODS AND LINES-of the best tor Foote, in reply to whom Daniel Web- upon the rebels, killing two and wounding property; to sell it would be to give it cir- I quality, for sale by ster made one of his most eloquent speech- another of them. He was, in turn killed, culation; and to destroy it would be to give je27. him of his liabilities.

Baltimore Grain Market!

Corrected from the "American," of Thursday. WHEAT .- The offerings of Grain on the In conformity with the orders of the Corn Exchange is quite moderate, but with a War Department, dated June 27, 1863, I very general suspension of business the supply Baltimore, June 30th, 1863. | relinquish the command of the Army of meets all local demand, and prices show very

Try It .- Strange that housekeepers should congregate." Directions for using accompany each box. A fresh supply just opened and for sale by SIMON WICKES, Chestertown.

MARRIAGES.

On the 18th ult., by Rev. J. Thomas Murray, WILLIAM KIRBY to MARY A. CLEIGHTON. United States I hereby assume command On the 2nd inst., by the same, JAMES KIRdier, obeying this order, an order totally On the 24th ult., by the same, WILLIAM On the 2nd instant, by the same, SAMUEL

DEATHS.

At the residence of her father, on the 20th ult., MARY, daughter of Thomas B. and Tabitha Wheat, aged six years, eleven months,

Farewell, blest one, on earth no more We shall behold thy face, On Zion's bright and blissful shore Thou hast found a resting place. O why should we thy fate lament, Why mourn thy early grave, Death's angel was but quickly sent,

Her gentle soul to save. O may thy parents meet thee where No tears may ever flow, And clasp thee to their bosom there,

Beyond all earthly woe. Near Still Pond, on the 9th ult., ELI BID-DLE, youngest son of George and Margaret D. Major General Commanding. Cooper, aged 11 years; also, on the 22nd ult., ANNIE E. BIDDLE, youngest daughter of

They were the loved of every heart, A household's joy and pride, Oh! it was bitterness to part, When our dear children died. [Delaware papers please copy.]

Chestertown, July 4, 1863

Clerk Wanted. HE subscriber wishes to employ a CLERK in his store, 17 to 19 years of age, who

STRAYED,

Administration, and had done all in his power to aid them. The Lieutenant in command of the power to aid them. The Lieutenant in command of the power to aid them. The Lieutenant in command of the power to aid the power to aid them. The Lieutenant in command of the power to aid them. The Lieutenant in command of the power to aid the power to aid them. The Lieutenant in command of the power to aid them. The Lieutenant in command of the power to aid them. The Lieutenant in command of the power to aid them the command of the power to aid them. The Lieutenant in command of the power to aid them.

JOHN ALLEN,

of Gen. Johnson continue wrapt in mys- shalls.—Capt. Frazier has made the fol- tracks; also used for vehicles and foot pas- quite familiar to the public.—Phila. Inq. On the Equity Side of the Circuit Court gives up Hooker apparently without a sigh, ORDERED by me, Jesse K. Hines, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent county, that the sale made and reported by George Vickers, Trustee for the sale of the real estate of William Armstrong, deceased, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown

> True copy-Test: JESSE K. HINES, Clerk.

Bargains!

"PEOPLE'S STORE" of late to see and get Cheap Goods?

WET GOODS. We had quite a lot of goods damaged by water. What we have left will be sold very W. A. VICKERS. STRAW HATS .- A beautiful lot just received, some entire new styles, by VICKERS. KID GLOVES and FANCY GOODS just re-W. A. VICKERS.

Preserving Jars. Stone quarts and half gallons. Persons in too late; they cannot be furnished at the same W. A. VICKERS. MACHINE OIL just received and for sale at the lowest rates, by W. A. VICKERS. July 4, 1863.

CANFORD'S NEW SELF-PURIFYING AND VENTILATING

Arctic Refrigerator. the best and most convenient constructed article for cooling and preserving Meats, Milk, Butter, Fruit, Wines, &c All of the compartments are guaranteed dry and free from mould, moisture, and impure odor. Call and examine. For sale at city prices, by

J. K. ALDRIDGE.

TATENT ICE CREAM FREEZERS, WATER COOLERS, TUMBLER DRAINERS, and Enamelled PRESERVING KETTLES, J. K. ALDRIDGE. Next to the Bank.

JAS. A. SHAW.

JAS. A. SHAW. sale by