

The Rent News.

CHESTERTOWN:

UNION NOMINATIONS.

For Comptroller of the Treasury: SAMUEL S. MAFFIT, OF CECIL COUNTY. For Commissioner of the Land Office:

OF FREDERICK COUNTY. For Congress: HON. JOHN W. CRISFIELD,

WM. L. W. SEABROOK,

OF SOMERSET COUNTY. For Commissioner of Public Works: LEMUEL ROBERTS,

THE NEWS OF THE WEEK. We have had no news of importance from Charleston this week.

OF QUEEN ANN'S COUNTY.

cavalry, returned to Kansas city on Sun- sentiment of that section. day from the pursuit of the Rebel chief Quantrell, through the counties of Cass, by the President would be received with in the presence of an immense array of military and civil spectators. The death State institution or domestic relation, but he may be named. There are places pre- Yankee prisoners well over the city, and bearings on the present and future of our Chapel) now in course of erection on the military and civil spectators. The death of each was instantaneous. All the condemned were foreigners by birth, but resided in Pennsylvania. Two were Protestants, two Catholics, and one Hebrew. This summary proceeding will have the testants of the President is, that the testants of the Initial Processing of the Union, the demind of the Union, the offer into the solely for a restoration of the Union, the offer into the solely for a restoration of the Union, the offer into the sale of profit, and persons selected for these demined were foreigners by birth, but resided in Pennsylvania. Two were Protestants, two Catholics, and one Hebrew. This summary proceeding will have the testants, two Catholics, and one Hebrew. The war, they argue, was instituted for the city, and its probable result, feel invites his shells. Should he get into the lower harbor he would not fire into the savered to some extent that a brief synopsis will not be altogether unacceptable to your renewal of exchange, these prisoners well over the city, and its probable result, feel invites his shells. Should he get into the lower harbor he would not fire into the savered to some extent that a brief synopsis will not be altogether unacceptable to your renewal of exchange, these prisoners well over the city, and its probable result, feel invites his shells. Should not fire into the lower harbor he would not fire into the lower harbor he would not fire into the lower harbor he would not fire into the savered to some extent that a brief synops is with some and form of the Union, and the notice of the country, and its probable result, feel invites his shells. Should not fire into the lower harbor he will be defended to the outer of the country, and its probable result. The outer harbor he want to the invites his shells. Should not fire into the invites his shells. Should not fire into the invites his and wounded. The two gunboats have of reconciliation? ries in watching contraband traders.

several valuable prizes. The gunboat De Sota has recently taken a fine steamer in more millions of monor are responsible. The next day, in the presence of the more millions of monor are responsible. The next day, in the presence of the more millions of monor are responsible.

ult., state that General Blunt, with six movement for a restitution of the Union infamous services, in so disposing of the service. The negroes stated that their imous, noble, great. thousand men and twelve pieces of artille- and Constitution to their wonted condiry, had crossed the Arkansas river on the 23rd. Our advance had defeated the Reb el cavalry and their main force, under el cavalry and their main force, under General Price, were in full retreat. Little springs of individual and national pross.

Standard, just received, contains numer- brotherly love, by the head of a mighty thy of being trusted. Letcher employed first rewarding each man for his trouble until Monday, 28th inst. On Sabbath, the 27th ous reports of peace meetings throughout nation, to the misguided and repentant him in the State service, and he has been and labor. the State. This is the first movement in masses of the South. the Confederacy to end the war, and bodes Davis conspirators. The revolution there by court martial.

Governors of the Confederate States, to and purely from a desire of the editor to pance of the Union is possible," and that of land at the end of the war. The story ter of acceptance, the editor says: is not believed at Washington.

their famous cavalry chief in Virginia, The Administration and Congress have died at Dranesville on the 28th ult., of decided that we shall have a free Union, wounds received in a skirmish on the 24th and every truly loyal man should support of August.

Texan accused him of cowardice and of In that letter Mr. Lincoln refers directl property of both enemies and friends may must be more men raised.

and his class!

A Memphis letter of the 25th ult., deand officers had sworn they would kill congressional district, with but two excephim, and he had been taken to Richmond under a strong guard.

MR. ADAMS AND PEACE.

We present to our readers an article from the National Intelligencer, at Washington, one of the ablest as well as most loyal papers in the country, and a letter from Mr. John Adams, Jr., who has travelled through considerable portions of the South, and from free communication with many of her people, gathered much valu-Lieut. Colonel Clark, of the 9th Kansas able information in reference to the public

Mr. Adams thinks that an offer of terms

Rock, the capital of the State, is no doubt in our possession.

A copy of the Raleigh, North Carolina, A copy of the Raleigh, North Carolina, Standard, just received, contains numer—

Religious Notice.

The period of the War, Ployd was in disgrace with Jeff. Davis, and had been a long time laid on the shelf by that digather they cannot bear, and they north carolina, and sent them home, not however without the carriage and sent them home, not however without the continue brotherly love, by the head of a mighty the of being tweed.

Religious Notice.

The NEXT STATED MEETING of the Presult in disgrace with Jeff. Davis, and had been one's hospitalities until the next day, when he had his horses put to the carriage and sent them home, not however without brotherly love, by the head of a mighty the of being tweed.

OPPOSITION TO MR. CRISFIELD.

ern Maryland have been arrested on the ber, to nominate a candidate for Congress charge of giving information to the Rebels in opposition to the Hon. J. W. Crisfield. during the late campaign in Maryland and There is good reason to believe that this

"The great issue now is, whether we The Rebels report that John S. Moseby, shall have a free Union, or a slave Union. the policy of the Government," &c.

selling himself to the "Yankees." Pem- to this subject, complains and thinks it be taken when needed; that "the Proola- [From the Washington National Intelligencer.] berton thereupon became indignant, and unjust that the charge has been made, mation as a law is valid or not valid—if attempted to shoot his assailant, but the Texan was too quick for him. Pemberton deserved his fate. He was a Northern traitor, who deserted his country without the Union shall have been conquered, it to the Union shall have been conquered. traitor, who deserted his country without the bearing to full credit. He is, moreover, a thorough corn one-fourth of the anticipated crop. even the excuse which natives of the South will be the proper time for objectors to might be expected to offer. He was educated at West Point, fought gallantly in the Mexican war, and was promoted to the proper time for objectors to the Chion armies believed to find credit. He is, moreover, a thorough loyalist, and has been a uniform and decided friend of the Administration. The rected against the rebellion. The Proceedided friend of the Administration. The late planting particularly has suffered result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent, and many fields which result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent, and many fields which result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent, and many fields which result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent, and many fields which result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent, and many fields which result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent, and many fields which result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent, and many fields which result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent, and many fields which result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent, and many fields which result of his observations in a recent and to a fearful extent. the Mexican war, and was promoted to brevet-major. He resigned his position to please "the powers that be," the editor to aid in saving the Union. Whenever extended tour in the South, he has thought promised a fair yield will hardly raise brevet-major. He resigned his position in the United States army in 1861. He has wholly misrepresented the avowed all resistance to the Union is conquered, of sufficient interest to be communicated nubbins. There are, however, some fields in the United States army in 1801. He has wholly insrepresented the avowed died distrusted by those for whom he deserted his flag, and despised by loyal men everywhere. He married a Southern woman and became one of the most obseman and became one of the most obsequious of Northern dirt-eaters, who, for landigham was convicted and exiled; and President also argues the question of the one who can imagine the extremity of suf- too far advanced for the crop to be benequious of Northern dirt-eaters, who, for indexed for the crop to be bedewomen, money, or political power, espouse in order to preserve uniformity and conwomen, money, or political power, espouse in order to preserve uniformity and conof the times he declares are good; peace women, money, or political power, espouse the cause of the Southern Rebels. The latter, in the case of Pemberton, seem to have suspected the traitor, however much they may have prized the treason; and this they may have prized the treason; and this they may have prized the treason; and this treasured in order to preserve uniformity and considered to preserve uniformity an is the way in which they regard all dough- the punishment due his crime might be will give us the rightful result. faces. Perish the memory of Pemberton somewhat mitigated on the plea that no

The Union press throughout the entire tions-the one above referred to and the Cecil Whig-have committed themselves to the support of Mr. Crisfield, as also a number of prominent emancipationists. -Geo. M. Russum, Esq., of Caroline, has written a very forcible letter setting forth his reasons for supporting him, and urging every Unionist in the district to "do likewise." But it may be well to have some opposition. It will drive away the monotony of the occasion, give a zest to shells. That paper says: the campaign, and make it more lively and interesting.

----THE COUNTY TICKET.

The delegates selected at the district Jackson and Johnson, Mo. The number of guerillas killed amounts in all to over alacrity, and measures be taken for a reone hundred. The people of Lawrence, turn to the Union! Why should not such Wednesday next to nominate the County retaliation in kind that Gen. Beauregard Magistrate, we take the freedom of plac-Kansas, are dealing out justice, without offer be extended? It is an act of magany unnecessary delay, to the villains in that town who acted in concert with Quanthat town who acted in concert with Quanterell. John Callos was tried by a jury of the stronger can do islature; and we congratulate the conventional islature is a conventional islature. citizens on the 24th ult., and having been it without compromising self-respect, or tion upon the fact of there being a large ling from Libby and Belle Isle a few thoufound guilty, was hung forthwith. He peril of public opinion. Let the Nation number of intelligent and reliable Union is all through portions of the States of Virginia, the League State Convention, has appointfound guilty, was hung forthwith. He confessed to having killed the widow Allen's son. Four others are awaiting trial.

The county is entitled to the services of len's son. Four others are awaiting trial.

The county is entitled to the services of len's son. They can be magnanimous. They are bone of our lesh. The war is len's son. They can be magnanimous. They can len's confessed to having killed the widow Allen's son. They are bone of our lesh. The war is len's son. They can len's confessed to having killed the widow Allen's confessed to having killed th The execution of the five substitute de- waged by us, as the Congress and Presi- its best and ablest citizens, and no gentle- their confinement would enable them to politicians of those States, and, as was and Thomas A. Jacobs. servers, condemned to death in the Army of the Potomac, took place last Saturday, in the presence of an immense array of in the presence of an immense array of tendency to put a stop to the threvish solution, but in it, and that the rebel- should not be allowed to enter into their bile from a barbarous shelling as basking the purpose of securing further guarantees noon next, at 2½ o'clock. The public are substitutes and deserting on the first opportunity to sell themselves again.

Two small suppliests the Religions and stewing in the foul suppliests, the Religions and stewing in the foul suppliests the Religions and stewing in the foul suppliest to their own peculiar institution—slavery to their own peculiar institution—slavery acceptance or declination.

The small suppliests the Religions and stewing in the foul suppliests the Religion and s Two small gunboats, the Reliance and in a state of suspension, not secession, and possess a natural diffidence and retiracy of Fort Delaware. Let the Yankees from on the institution has been to weaken and the Satellite, were captured by the Rebels can legitimately return at any time by disposition, which lead them to suppose Libby and Belle Isle be sent to reinforce endanger its entire overthrow. They addisposition, which lead them to suppose Libby and Belle Isle be sent to reinforce endanger its entire overthrow. They addisposition, which lead them to suppose Libby and Belle Isle be sent to reinforce endanger its entire overthrow. They addisposition, which lead them to suppose the rebell can be supposed to the one night last week. The vessels lay in electing members to the Senate and House that they are unqualified for public office; the defense of Charleston. This kind of mit that they have been deceived by their electing members to the Senate and House that they are unqualified for public office; the defense of Charleston. This kind of mit that they have been deceived by their electing members to the Senate and House that they are unqualified for public office; the defense of Charleston. This kind of mit that they have been deceived by their electing members to the Senate and House that they are unqualified for public office; the defense of Charleston. the Rappahaunock river, near its mouth, and were surrounded by the captors in boats in such large force that feeble resistance was made. Some fighting took process of return is easy-but an initial those who are always urging themselves place, however, and several were killed step is necessary. Who is to submit terms upon public consideration. The nomina-Let it not be said that more lives shall termine the fitness of an individual for week, and went to Easton to volunteer. Initiation, but that their former slaves will his club-footed majesty in regard to the Advices from Key West, to the 22d of be sacrificed, more families reduced to any particular place; and if, when elect- They were taken in charge by the Mar. be drafted into the army of the United August, give information of the capture of mourning, more misery and sorrow be dis- ed, he discharges his duty to the best of shal and sent back to their master under States for the purpose of continuing the > hanging around Richmond for the last year or more. Thus one by one are the sponse to an invitation to attend a meetsponse to an invitation to attend a meetaccount of alleged military shortcomings, imitate the example of Him who said "go be governed in market and at our homes on Epates, Esq, President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company. They have and Ohio Canal Company. They have and Ohio Canal Company. They have a call has been sent out from the omce of the Chesapeake and one day at a call has been published. The document is a call has been published. The document is a call has been published. They have a call has been published and one day at a call has been published. They have a call has been published and one day at a call has been published. They have a call has been published a call has been published a call has been published. They have a call has been published a call has been published a call has been published. They have a call has been published and Ohio Canal Company. They have been sent to Fort McHenry to await trial on the negro question stands side by side expressed in the usual plain and character dinner the Georgians, aroused by a blow popular sentiment of the American people, with the most extreme abolition journals teristic style of the President. On the given to one of their number, shouted and the sentiment of humanity, civiliza- As we have to compete with the Baltimore mar-Late Rebel papers state that Jeff Davis of the North—without the knowledge of subject of compromising with the Rebels "Georgia to the rescue," and charged the tion and christianity throughout the world, ket in the purchase of Stock we cannot afford has decided, after a conference with the the prominent League men of this Shore, in arms, he says: "I do not believe that Tigers at the point of the case-knife. The he will do it; which God grant, for peace's there are selling for from 15 to 20 cts. per the call out half a million of black troops, who gratify his determined opposition to Mr. "a compromise to be effective, must be minutes, until the principal combatants are to receive their freedom and fifty acres Crisfield. Commenting upon Mr. C.'s let- made either with those who control the were secured. The fighting was pretty army, or with the people first liberated severe, for one of the physicians of the from the domination of that army, by the party had no less than eleven of the wounsuccess of our army." He further says: ded Georgians to attend. el army, or from any of the men control- RESULTS OF THE CONSCRIPTION. -The that section marked C. S. A. This may CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION, ing it, in relation to any peace compro- Washington correspondent of the Boston be an exaggeration, but there is undoubt-He was shot by a Texan soldier. The assertion that the Administration has. — constitutional; that by the laws of war the Union successes continue rapidly there more permanent than that which is repre- tion of straightout Unionists, and not of constitutional; that by the laws of war the Union successes continue rapidly there more permanent than that which is repre-

The very interesting letter inserted be-their slaves, who can appreciate fully the commodious four-story hotel, now being fixedness and intensity of the Southern erected in our town for Mr. J. C. Voshell General Beauregard's "Retaliation." We have been unable to conjecture the prised, therefore, that the extremity of nature of the "retaliation" with which suffering and the hopelessness of the rebel-Beauregard threatened Gen. Gilmore for lion combined should inspire even many laid, and the walls are up nearly to the shelling Charleston with "Greek fire," un- of those who were eager to enter into it top of the basement story. The exterior, shelling Charleston with Greek are, unless he meant to set the river on fire and burn up the Ironsides and the Monitors!

with the desire to retrace their steps and being of unpressed brick, will present a rough and uninviting appearance until it masses who were forced into it; and we The threat, according to the Richmond can well understand the writer when he receives the casting. It is expected to papers, "provoked a smile" even in rebel- represents the question of emancipation have the house covered before winter, and dom. The Enquirer comes to his relief, regarded in the South as involving utter ready for occupancy early in the spring. and makes a practical suggestion, but of as the only substantial difficulty in the QUARTERLY MEETING. —The second quarcourse the bewildered General had no such way of a restoration of the Union. It is terly meeting for Kent circuit, Methodist means in view when he entered his celee brated protest against the "villianous" great country to say whether it shall, so far as depends on them, have Union and shells. That paper says: the Constitution, or immediate and forci- Saturday and Sunday, September 12th and The reply of Gen. Beauregard to the ble emancipation with ruin to a moiety of 13th. Rev. Dr. Quigley, Presiding Elddemand for the surrender of Fort Sumter the country, protracted war, and a viola- er, may be expected to preach on the and Morris Island under Gilmore's threat ted Constitution. How eloquent and for- morning of both days. to bombard Charleston at first provoked a cible is the appeal with which the writer smile. The idea of retaliation implied recloses his letter, and which, notwithstand- SALE OF A DWELLING. -Dr. J. A. Perupon the Slave States, and admit if it in- Gratiot street prison at St. Louis. ting convention should be allowed to de- belonging to this gentleman, ran away last slavery will not only be in danger of an-Sota has recently taken a fine steamer, in more millions of money expended, upon a for the deficiencies, if any, that may be guards, the Colonel had all the blacks on upon them than any thing else connected jectionable. his plantation-numbering about two hun- with the war; and to escape this now ap-580 bales of cotton on board. She has also captured the side-wheel steamer Cresalso captured the side-wheel steamer Crescent with an assorted cargo of merchandisc. An English topsail schooner has mate of a virtuous, humane and enlight- Buchanan Floyd, at his residence at Ab- main with him, that he had raised them affirm (in fact they expect, they hope, they Wesquote as follows: also recently been brought in as a prize. ened public opinion. He, who is ambiingdon, Va., on Wednesday, August 26th. and protected them, and that when his brought in as a prize. ened public opinion. He, who is ambiingdon, Va., on Wednesday, August 26th. and protected them, and that when his brought in as a prize. ened public opinion. He, who is ambi-The Navy Department has received information of the capture of the brig Atlantic, loaded with cotton, by the Princes Royal.

Norfolk, August 26, 1863.

The Navy Department has received information of the capture of the brig Atlantic, loaded with cotton, by the Princes Royal.

The Navy Department has received information of the capture of the brig Atlantic, loaded with cotton, by the Princes Royal.

The Navy Department has received information of the capture of the brig Atlantic, loaded with cotton, by the Princes Royal.

The Navy Department has received information of the capture of the brig Atlantic, loaded with cotton, by the Princes Royal. loaded with cotton, by the Princes Royal.

Acting Master Smith, of the steamer Ber
New Rye, per bushel,

Whitst in Buchand Standard Capture, with film, and had rather with film, and had rather with film, and had rather were dissatisfied with film but had rather were dissatisfied with him and rather were dissatisfied with film but had rather were dissatisfied with him and ra muda, communicates the capture of the ple of fame than they occupy, and be life he received in a good measure the re- would give them passes and willingly let rebellion, and offer the people protection New Rye, per bushel, British schooner Carmita, loaded with 161 placed in a country's affection and gratibales of cotton.

Advices from Port Gibson to the 24th ington, will make the first and decided the state of the Union of State laws, they will not only their services they were at its disposal, or himself either, as far as he could be of the Union of the Union of State laws, they will not only their services they were at its disposal, or himself either, as far as he could be of the Union of State laws, they will not only their services they were at its disposal, or himself either, as far as he could be of the Union of the Union of State laws, they will not only their services they were at its disposal, or himself either, as far as he could be of the Union of State laws, they will not only their services they were at its disposal, or himself either, as far as he could be of the Union of State laws, they will not only their services they were at its disposal, or himself either, as far as he could be of the Union of State laws, they will not only the union of the Union of State laws, they will not only the union of State laws, they will not only the union of State laws, they will not only the union of State laws, they will not on General Price, were in full retreat. Little springs of individual and national pros- erty, at the opening of the war, Floyd was jured, they became perfectly satisfied to the loss of strongholds, or the reduction of

REBEL OFFICERS FIGHTING AMONG THEM- dent cannot afford to be magnanimous? tian Churches are cordially invited to commune SELVES. -- A letter from Fort Delaware says: If, after the fall of Charleston, he cannot with us on that occasion. The Rev. SYRUS dynasty. That journal still maintains its Our readers will observe, in our adverse of this wicked rebellion The Rebel officers, some six hundred, afford to offer some terms which shall infearless and high-toned course against the Davis conspirators. The revolution there or League Convention Unionists, to send an awful reckoning will they have to give Over one hundred have been sent away, ple to return to their allegiance to the Fed-tice of when it will be preached will be given at A number of prominent citizens of West. delegates to Easton on the 16th of Septem- for their crimes before an offended Deity! being too quarrelsome to remain with the eral Union and the Government of the Uni- the Presbytery. A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT. pally from Georgia and Louisiana; and it ble fame, he will do it; if he wishes to se-The letter of President Lincoln, in reseemed that between the representatives cure to himself the appellation of Abraham Finding it impossible to support ourselves JOHN ADAMS, JR. Cotton. - A correspondent writing from one hundred thousand bales of cotton in belief;" and that "if any such proposition Daily telegraphic reports are now being tion, which the Rebel authorities had col- Congressional District are requested to shall bereafter come, it shall not be re- made all over the country to the provost lected as security for the bonds that their send delegates to a convention to meet in Eas-Del., on Tuesday, for mayor and council.

Natchez. Mississippi, mentions the arrival

The Union ticket carried every ward and precinct.

Shall nerelater come, it shall not be remade all over the country to the provost sympathizers in Europe recently purchasted, and kept secret." This is definite marshal general here, of the number of denial of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of denial of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained, so that an approximation of the truth of Fernando Wood's men obtained the truth of Information from the South confirms the recent letter of the President to the Illi-Information from the South confirms the report of the death of Gen. Pemberton.—
He was shot by a Texan soldier. The assertion that the Administration has.—

Confederate loan. It will convince them gurated by the Administration. No quasi Union men need attend, as they will not be permanent than that which is report.

Confederate loan. It will convince them gurated by the Administration. No quasi Union men need attend, as they will not be permanent than that which is report.

Confederate loan. It will convince them gurated by the Administration. No quasi Union men need attend, as they will not be permanent than that the investment promises to be even mation, the President says he thinks it is men will exceed the number. Union successes continue residue that the Linion successes continue residue that the Linion successes continue residue that the Linion successes continue residue that the Administration has.—

Focal Matters.

THE CORN CROP .- The drought which mind on that subject. We are not sur- of Baltimore, is progressing slowly. A street to J. N. Usilton, Esq. The price has not been made public, but we learn that it exceeds twenty-five hundred dollars.

J. E. SMITH, Pastor.

WE have no doubt that Beauregard, when the devil gets him, will quarrel with fire he shall use in broiling sinners .-Louisville Journal.

"Greek fire" would be particularly ob-

Baltimore Grain Market. 165a175 130a140 71a78 cts. 48#53 cts.

CLOTHING! CLOTHING!

72a75 cts.

TAMES H. SMITH invites the attention of the public to his stock of

NEW FALL CLOTHING,

ask, Messrs. Editors, through the medium of your invaluable journal, if the Presi-will be celebrated The members of other Chris-

SPECIAL NOTICE.

BEST CUTS of Beef 121 cents per pound.

must either practice deception upon the farmer R. SEMPLE ROWE, or the buyer. JAMES BRICE, HENRY W. EARNEST.

of an immense wagon train leaded with Chestertown, Sept. 5, 1863-3t.

cotton, and he states further that there are UNION

edly a large amount of cotton in that sec- THE Unconditional Union voters of the First