CHESTERTOWN: SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 2, 1864.

THE NEWS.

A despatch from General Grant's headquarters, dated on Tuesday, says that the left wing of our army now holds possession of the Weldon Railroad at a point about four miles from l'etersburg, and that the lines of the enemy had been contracted. On Saturday last quite a severe engagement took place at one of the crossings of the Chickahominy, between Gen. Sheriempted at that time.
