THE Kent County banks are in a healthy and flourishing condition and are under wise management.

LAWYER ROSE is loath to let go the barrel Congressman. There is money in it for the lawyer if for no one else!

Kent county gets $4,585.82 of the State public school fund under the last quarterly distribution and the School Commissioners have the power to spend it as they may see proper without reference to white or colored.

HON. THOMAS A. SMITH'S legitimate majority in the first Congressional district, without the Jackson "barrel" against him, would have been over two thousand. The 1500 majority less than that which Smith got simply represents the bribed vote, purchased openly and brazenly with Jackson's money.

THE annual meeting of the Maryland-Delaware Peninsula Horticultural Society will be held at Seaford on January 17. The address of welcome will be made by A. C. Brown, of Seaford; response by Capt. R. S. Emory, Chestertown; Mr. James S. Harris, of Still Pond is to make an address on "Pear Culture" Tuesday.

CHESTERTOWN has been warned to make better provision for fighting fire. It is the duty of our Town Fathers to take initiative steps toward improved conditions. We need more hose, new fire plugs, new hose stations and ladders AT ONCE. Don't put this matter off. Now is the time to act. A dollar spent now may save thousands later.

The Opportunity Presented.

If there has been in recent years a more glaring instance of bribery—wholesale, debasing and corrupt bribery—than was witnessed on the Eastern Shore of Maryland in the last election then we are unable to recall it. And this wholesale system of bribery was believed to be fathered by Congressman Wm. H. Jackson to secure his re-election. Now this gentleman steps to the front and charges that the Democrats cheated him out of the election! The opportunity is now presented to secure a full expose of this corrupting bribery business. Get evidence. Bring Jackson to book to face the misconduct which he is so freely charged with and the bold bribery he is so generally believed to be guilty of by our people. He has opened the door. Step in and confront him.

"I charge particularly that in the Counties of Kent and Talbot, as well as in other counties of the district, the ballot was printed on such paper and so prepared that the judge of election who received the ballots and who in those counties, was uniformaly a partisan of yours, could tell invariably whether the voter had voted for you or not."

This is a section of the exhibit of Hon. Wm. H. Jackson in his written charges filed by Attorney Rose noting a contest for the seat of Congressman Smith. This comes home to us. We know certainly something of the election here We printed one-half of the tickets, and we are prepared to say that the above statement—so far as it relates to Kent county, is a bold lie. The tickets were carefully printed on good paper; they were honestly folded, and in no case was there a purpose to deceive the voter. If the rest of Jackson's charges have no more truth than the Kent reference, the "contest" begun by the "barrel" Congressman will prove to be the most contemptible farce ever presented to the National Congress.

Smith Gathering Evidence.

Messrs. Miles & Gorman, who have been retained by Congressman-elect Thomas A. Smith of the First district to defen the contest for his seat instituted by Congressman William H. Jackson, are gathering material for their answer, which must be served upon Mr. Jackson within 30 days from December 27, when Mr. Jackson's notice of contest was served upon Mr. Smith.

The answer will deny pretty nearly all of the allegations in Mr. Jackson's statement except that an election was held on November 8 last. It will deny that any ballots were wrongfully counted for Mr. Smith, or that any properly marked for Mr. Jackson were not counted for him. The answer will also introduce new matter into the controversy by alleging crookedness on the part of Mr. Jackson's workers, particularly that they used large amounts of money in bribing voters.

After the answer is served, there will be 90 days for taking testimony. Mr. Jackson will have the first 40 days, Mr. Smith the next 40, and the remaining 10 days will be allotted to Mr. Jackson for taking testimony in rebuttal. The whole record will be made up and submitted to the next House of Representatives, and such parts of it as are necessary will be printed.

A dispatch from Denton Md., says: "Representative William H. Jackson has engaged former State's Attorney Albert G. Towers of this county to act as local counsel in his contest. It is said that Mr. John C. Rose of Baltimore, Representavive Jackson's attorney in the contest at Washington, will be assisted in every county of the district by local lawyers. The friends of Mr. Thomas A. Smith, who have been given the certificate of election, ridicule the claims of the defeated Congressman that 210 more votes were counted for the Democratic candidate in his home county than he was entitled to." John D. Urie, Esq., will assist Mr. from Kent County.

THE Cecil court convened at Elkton Tuesday. John Holland, one of the two negroes indicted by the grand jury last month for the murder of Albert Constable, was placed on trial before the court, the prisoner having waived his right to a jury trial. H. W. Vickers, Esq., of Chestertown, was an important witness for the State.

ANDREW CARNEGIE has given $263,000 to Baltimore city for the rebuilding of Maryland Institute. It is highly appreciated.

The donation is the second that has been given to the citizens of Baltimore by Mr. Carnegie, the other one having been for $1,500, which he presented to the Babcock Memorial Church with which to purchase an organ.

He is a striking example of what can be accomplished by sagacity, shrewdness and determination. Coming to this country from Dunfermline, in Scotlan, when a boy, without a dollar, he pushed his way upward and onward until he has become a millionaire.

He was born in 1835 in the dirty town of Dunfermline, in Scotland. He came to this country with his parents when he was a boy and secured employment as a messenger at a weekly wage of $2.50. Being shrewd and canny, he worked his way upward, and he now controls four of the largest iron and steel works in the country and is very rich.

His income is estimated at $26,000,000 a year. This is $2,166,666 a month, 500,000 a week, $71,428 a day, including Sunday; $2,976 an hour, day and night, or $50 for every minute.

State Insurance Commissioner.

The Board of Public Works on Wednesday last elected Hon. Frank I. Duncan, of Baltimore county, State Insurance Commisioner, to succeed Hon. Lloyd Wilkinson, who has held the office for five years past. Mr. Duncan is the editor of the Baltimore County Democrat and a lawyer of marked ability; he is a vigorous and earnest party man and is in every way qualified for the responsible position for which he has been selected. Mr. Wilkinson retires with the respect of everybody. The office was never conducted better than under his administration and his many friends may congratulate him, while they wish the new incumbent every success.

PORT ARTHUR FALLS!

Port Arthur has surrendered and the victorious Japs are in possession.

At 5 P. M. Sunday a flag of truce from General Stoessel, commander of the garrison, appeared at the Japanese lines. The bearer had a letter from Stoessel to General Nogi, the Japanese commander, proposing surrender, saying that he found "further resistance useless." General Nogi appointed a commissioner, who met Russian representatives at noon Monday, and the articles of capitulation were arranged.

Before deciding to surrender it was agreed that six destroyers—the only effective ships remaining of Russia's once superb Port Arthur fleet—should attempt to escape. Four of them went to Chefu, where they disarmed and will be under the protection of China until the close of the war. The two others, accompanied by a transport, bearing 800 wounded men, took refuge at Tsingtau, in the German sphere of China where it is expected they also will disarm.

Cammander Kartyow, of the destroyer Vlastni, now at Chefu, says the surrender was made because the ammunition gave out. Starvation, exhaustion and nerve strain had reduced the soldiers to the limit of endurance. Stoessel obstinately insisted on continuing the struggle, but was overruled by his advisers.

According to one account there are 15,000 sick and wounded at Port Arthur, and in the last stages of the seige the forts were manned by 5,000 "able-bodied convalescents." The Russians blew up several of their own forts and set the hulks of their disabled warships afire.

The seige has lasted since May 30—seven months. It is estimated that the victorious army now numbers 80,000. When the seige began Stoessel had 40,000 men. It is believed the Japanese have lost 50,000 in killed and wounded and the Russians about half that number.

Prize Winners.—Capt. Robt. S. Emory of Chestertown, took first prize on Kieffer pears at the 7th annual meeting of the State Horticultural Society at College Park last week. The display of fruits at this meeting was said to have been fine and would have been creditable to the State of Maryland had they been exhibited at the St. Louis Fair.

Exercises of the Loyal Legion and young people of Fairlee neighborhood, deferred on account of inclement weather will be held on the regular monthly day, first Saturday of January, in Salem Church, at 2.30 o'clock.

CHESTERVILLE CHURCH

The Sunday school of Emanuel M. E. Church South, Chesterville, held a Christmas entertainment at one o'clock Tuesday Dec. 27. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with holly and evergreens. A grand Christmas tree trimmed with the usual tinsil and balls with bags of candy and oranges hung upon its branches, stood in one corner. The day was gloomy without, but the bright lights from the chandelier broke upon the decorations and lighting the faces of happy children presented a cheerful and pleasing scene. A large audience was entertained by recitations and music rendered by members of the school and by Misses Shepp and Stevens of the State Normal school. After the entertainment, presents were distributed to the ninty members of the school by Mr. W. Davis, the superintendent, assisted by Messrs. Merridith, Ringgold, Ford and Edwards. Each member of the school received an orange, a bag of candy and some suitable gift. The girls of the infant class received dolls and each little boy was made happy by being presented with a horn. Mrs. Moffett, Mrs. Stevens, Miss Clements, Miss Brinsfield, Mrs. King, Mr. David Clements, Mr. Davis, Mr. Moffett, Mr. Biddle and other members of the congregation assisted the pastor, Rev. J. H. Kulhman and wife in the trimming of the tree and preparing the treat. Much credit is due Mrs. Kuhlman who had charge of the training of the children and was untiring in her efforts to make the entertainment a success.

Removals.—Among changes about Locust Grove the following are noted: Mr. Samuel Cooper, of Worton, comes to the Merrit farm; Charles M. Sutton coming from Galena to the Dr. Black farm; Mr. Tom Wiltbanks going to Kennedyville; Mr. Lewis Grantlin goes to the Hurtt farm at Kennedyville, and Mr. Camel takes the farm vacated by him—Mr. Camel takes unto himself a bride; Mr. John McGuire comes from Galena to the village. Ex-Judge John W. Wright comes from Galena to the village, also Mr. Joseph Cully from Shallcross Wharf; Mr. James Haggerty will move in the Mrs. Sutton property which he recently purchased, as soon as Mrs. Sutton is relieved of the postoffice.

In Loving Memory of Mrs. A. E. Sanner.

Just as the sun set blushing red
over the hilltops somebody said,
In broken accents of mourning woe
Sobbing aloud, then sobbing low
Mother is dead!

On the evening of Nov. 5th, at her home in Baltimore, the spirit of Mrs. Ann E. Sanner took its flight to the land beyond, and although she has passed away from us, she still speaks with eloquence only made possible by the hush of mother's voice in the embrace of death.

She speaks and is heard above the din confusion of the busy world, she speaks and is heard above the roar of the tempest lashed ocean waves; she speaks and is heard above time's rolling thunder. Listen! as she speaks from memory's storehouse, as the children in infancy played about her as the sun plays through the window, and all alone the varied scenes of home life she speaks with almost infinite pathos,

Listen! as she speaks to us from her casket and while we looked she spoke of her tired hands that were now still, her tired eyes that were resting, the aching head that was cold and her face that was whitened by the icy touch of death; and while we listen the words of the poet reach our ears.

I stood by a coffin one day
And my mother's hands were so cold and white;
As peaceful and quiet she lay,
She has passed the boarder land.

She lives beyond, and we are impoverished by the loss of a dear mother in this world, but the thought is cheering that she is still our mother and still loves us and will continue to love the children of her life.

The deceased was the daughter of Richard J. and Mary A. Frisby, of Kent county, and widow of Rev. Sylvester Sanner. She is survived by one sister, Mary V. Frisby, several children and grandchildren, and two little great grandchildren, one of whom is the little daughter of Claude F. Parks, of Chestertown. H. M. S.

LAST WEEK OF "THE SHEPHERD KING"

The return engagement of Wright Lorimer's big Biblical spectacle drama, "The Shepherd King", to the Academy of Music, Baltimore, has been somewhat like the home coming of the Prodigal Son, so hearty has been its welcome.

Beginning with the first performance, a special matinee Monday, the audiences that have greeted the star and his play have been immense, and the predictions, based upon the advance sale of seats, to the effect that "The Shepherd King" would break even its own record during the second visit seem more likely than ever to be fulfiled.
