" REORGANIZATION."

A writer in the Transcript of last Saturday, signing himself "An Old Democrat of the Second Election District, agrees with the editor of that paper as to the necessity of a reorganization of the Democratic party in this county, the only difference between them being that the "Old Democrat" wished to do the thing "immediately" and before the election, while the editor proposed to defer it till after that period. Now we will wager something that this "Old Democrat" has not been known as a Democrat fo more than seven years—that he was no recognized as such when party lines were drawn between whiggery and democracy -that he did not vote for Mr. Buchanar for President-and therefore has no right to speak for the old democracy of Kent. whose duty he essays to point out and cuforce. When yearlings in the service undertake to dictate the duty of old Democrats, it is time for veterans to hold their peace.

This agitation for a reorganization of the Democratic party in Kent county i confined to comparatively few persons who were Democrats under old party organisations, none of whom, so far as we know. Franklin ever were recognized as leaders or men of influence in the party. They are principally persons of narrow and contracted views, whose highest ambition is party McPherson 352 271 204 244 336 1407 much social enjoyment, together with a ascendancy in a county, and who have no Jones practical conception of the means neecssary to concentrate forces and secure the most desirable results in a State and national aspect. Any man who cannot see Wickes that the union of all conservative ele- Stump ments, of all parties, is the great object now to be desired in view of present diffi- Welch culties and the great contest soon to take Bowman place for the next Presidency, must be short-sighted indeed, and is not fit to aspire to the dignity of even a neighborhood Bover or cross-roads politician. The recent elec- Beck tions at the North, to which the Trans- Vannort cript's correspondent refers, is conclusive Turbit party had been "reorganized" in Penn- Briscoe sylvania, Ohio, or New York, prior to the Trew recent elections, who is so blind as to Hines' majority over Briscoe 524 suppose that the result in either of those States would have been as it was? It Crouch was a combination of all the conservative Pearce elements which secured the defeat of radicalism in those States, as it must be in all other States which remain to be re- Gilpin deemed from the misrule of that party.

But let the "reorganization" take place in Kent when it may, if made upon the basis of old party lines, we will venture Pearce something, as we said before, that the Lassell "Old Democrat of the Second Election District" will be found wanting the necessary qualifications, as to the period from which his democracy dates, to be admitted Beck Lusby to the number of the faithful. Upon the Steven same principle, the editor of the Trans. Parks cript, we all know, would be ruled entirely Usilton out! But like a good many others, Scott who never were known as Democrats, Vickers the editor and his correspondent would Fiddis now take the initiative in the "reorgani- Leary zation" of a party to which they never Massey belonged! If Mr. Briscoe's vote for clerk, after deducting his radical support, affords them sufficient encouragement to undertake the job, they are welcome to set State on Tuesday show that the Demoabout it for us.

This result, added to that recently attain- the same. ed in the great States of Ohio and Pennsylvania, is a death blow to radicalism, and cannot fail to exert the most happy effect upon Congress and the country at large. The democratic majority in the city of New York was over 61,000.

NEW JERSEY. The election in New Jersey on Tuesday resulted in a Democratic triumph by over six thousand majority, and a Democratic Legislature. Last year the Radicals carried the State by about 3,000 majority.

Elections were also held on Tuesday in Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Kansas, all of which were carried by the radicals, but by greatly rein Massachusetts is only about 15,000, the Voshell House, on Tuesday next: voted down by a large majority.
