ROCK HALL ITEMS

The Budget Arrived Last Saturday Afternoon at 4 o'clock—Rev. Mr. Burr's Dream—Personal Tidings of Interest.

Sunday services at our churches were largely attended. Parson Burr delivered an interesting sermon from Nu. 11: 1. A special song feature was also enjoyed. The muddy roads of the afternoon did not deter 263 members from attending Sunday school. The Epworth League service of the evening was conducted by Mr. James Taylor.

A successful quarterly conference is expected to take place this evening in the M. E. Church. Presiding Elder Koons will preach tomorrow at 10 a. m. and will also address the Sunday school in the afternoon.

Rev. Mr. Burr dreamed a few nights ago that someone was seeking admission to the parsonage, and opening the door, he beheld a number of persons, who had the appearance of a donation party, but did not prove to be such. On Saturday night last his dream materialized into the real thing. While in his study he heard someone outside, but paid little attention, thinking, perhaps it was Miss Ada Joiner, not coming however to be married, from the racket she was making, but with her usual meriment, on some social or business matter, finally on realizing that an entrance was about to be affected, he went into the hall and was confronted by a goodly number of determined persons who gave him and his better half a pounding surprise in numbers and in many substantial things that goes toward making life worth living. Pastor and wife enjoyed the surprise and so did the surprisers. The good man says he is always happy to have such company with or without the good things that makes glad the inner man. The latch string of the parsonage door not only hangs outside, but the door is ajar. Come in and find welcome.

Mr. Charles Trimble is building a boat for use in the prosecution of his fishing and oyster business. For beauty, neatness, workmanship and swiftness she will be unsurpassed.

Jack Collison and George Colver are also building a 23 foot boat for fishing interests of the latter.

Capt. G. T. Sewell has begun work on a "notion," it will be of North Carolina planking, 45 feet long, 10 feet beam and about 20 inch deep, and will be fitted out with 6 horse power gasoline engine. It will be used in connection with his pound net fishing.

So much fine weather recently lured the Grey's Inn factory people from inactivity last week. The toot of the whistle has been a familiar feature since.

On Thursday of last week the steamer Gratitude plowed her way through 10 inch ice to reach this place. This does not look like any intention on the part of the new company to slight our interests. All honor to them.

Mr. S. J. Wickes is supplying patrons of the R. F. D. routes with regulation mail boxes. They are metal, of good size and easily managed. Cost $1.25.

Mr. L. H. Crockett is quite ill at his home on Catholic avenue. Mrs. Wm. F. Apsley is also in care of a physician.

Master Walter Taylor fell headlong from a window of the public school on Friday and slightly injured.

Mr. Thomas R. Reiche is plying his trade, visiting friends and having a general good time in our village and vicinity. He is now papering the home of Mr. J. M. Collison. After the work began Mr. Collison made inquiry about the cost. Tom replied $150.00, since then, in order to economise in his outgo, Jack has given up smoking Havana filled cigars and returned to the pipe.

Mr. H. W. Davis is home for a season of recreation. It is rumored that he has resigned his position as policeman at the Monumental Theatre.

The ice left our water front on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the oystermen reached the oyster bars and made small catches, selling the same at greatly reduced prices.

One of our citizens procured oyster license on the 2nd inst., the number of which is 629 it is said. This is a large fall off, a few years ago the number reached over 800 Where are the other 171 or 200? There are lots of new boats and the old ones it is said are still in commission.

Thanks Messrs. Editors for the explanation given in last issue on tax notices, &c. Still the matter continues to bob up; now it is rumored, our worthy Treasurer, enploys a man at $3.00 per day to deliver notices. Lots of fellows in the district would be glad of the job at 50 per cent less salary. "Uncle Sam" himself, will do the job at 2 cents each.

Snow Nov. 13, Dec. 5, 10, 12, 17, 24, Jan. 3, 5, 11, 13, 23, 24, total number to Tuesday last 13, the last being a terrific one followed by a blizzard that has caused impassable roads by tremendous drifts. Shovel brigades and other devices have been resorted to in order to open up travel. Fortunately most of our residents are in good shape to weather the cold wave, a few are in scanty supply of fuel. Our doctors and postmen are having it rough. Many of our people went to Baltimore on Tuesday, little thinking such a terrific blizzard would confront them on the return trip Wednesday. Such is life. We have been shut in from the outside world, no mail or other communication for two days. There is a lot of complaining about mail carrier Kelley not making his trips Wednesday and Thursday, but it should not be so. The fellow that did not have the blizzard to face does not know the difficulty of making such trips. Milk man Coburn is the "stuff," he faithfully served his route all through.
