VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1905. NO. 18

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

HORSE THIEVING!

Several Teams Stolen from Chestertown and Vicinity—A Young Man From Ridgely Arrested—Teams Recovered.

Mr. Herbert Lusby drove to Chestertown Saturday and hitched his horse near the NEWS office on Court street. When he wanted to return home his team could not be found. A clue to the stolen team was obtained Monday and a young man Wm. Jester, aged 19, of Ridgely, was arrested. The young man had worked one week at the basket factory and says he left in Mr. Lusby's team Saturday night for his home in Ridgely. He remained in a woods all day Sunday and at night started the horse in a trot toward Chestertown. The team was found near Ridgely in a corn field and it will be brought home to-day. Wm. Jester was brought to Chestertown and is now in jail awaiting action of grand jury.

Mr. Johnny Smith, of Queen Anne's, missed his horse from in front of J. K. Aldridge's rack Saturday night and when he found his team it was hitched to Dr. S. E. Ford's tree. The horse had evidently been driven during the evening.

The man who stole Mr. Herbert Matthews team is in Harrisburg prison and will be brought here as soon as proper papers can be obtained. The team has been recovered and turned over to Mr. Matthews.

NEW ENTERPRISE IN TOWN.

An Overall Plant Assured—All Money Subscribed—To be Located at Chestertown Depot.

Mr. T. D. Larrimore, of Easton, arrived in Chestertown about a month ago and assisted by Mr. J. Waters Russell has succeeded in soliciting $6,000 in stock in order to operate an overall plant in Chestertown.

The plant will be located at the Chestertown depot in the old school building belonging to Mr. Charles S. Smith. It will employ from 20 to 25 persons and the managers hope to be able to start operations within a month. A well-known lady of Chestertown will likely be forelady and the affair will be conducted in a first-class manner.

May it succeed is the wish of every loyal citizen.

Paralyzed.—Mr. Frank W. Stevens, a popular young farmer, of near Rock Hall, was stricken with paralysis last Friday night. Dr. Beale was called in and treated the afflicted citizen. Mr. Stevens is only about 35 years of age and has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

THE fast driving horse, "Island Lad," which Rev. A. H. Covey sold to Queen Anne's parties, has been purchased by Mr. Alday Clements.

MAIL DRIVER SCOONE, of Rock Hall, has sold 250 dozen soft crabs in Chestertown during this season, the price averaging 50 cents per dozen.

THE ELEGANT NEW GALENA BANK, of which Mr. Richard S. Wallis is the efficient cashier and Dr. Edward A. Scott president of local board. It is built entirely of concrete, even the floors and counters being made of this non-inflammable material. The cost will be $3,000. It will be completed about November 1st.

SERIES OF ACCIDENTS.

Percy, the 8-year old son of Mr. and Mrs George W. Chambers, fell down a flight of stairs at the Chestertown basket factory a few days ago and bruised his side and face. He had an armful of bottoms and had nearly reached the top of the stairs when he slipped and fell to the bottom.

Mrs. Lucy Houston, widow of Dr. B. F. Houston, fell from the porch of her home at Mr. J. T. Ireland's, High street, last Monday evening and received a severe shock. It is truly a miracle how she escaped serious injury as she is quite advanced in years and not very strong.

Mrs. Etta Nelson has been suffering from a painful wound caused by running a needle, full length, into her hand. Dr. H. G. Simpers dressed the wound.

Mr. Dave Ford, who resides on a farm near Pomona, fell from a wagon load of fertilizer last week and was laid up for several days. His physician at first thought he had broken several ribs but soon discovered his injuries to be only bruises.

Mr. Samuel Lee, of near Melitota, sustained a severe accident last week by getting his foot caught in a disc plow. It has given him considerable pain and he will likely be troubled with it for some weeks.

THE entertainment given in Stam's Hall last Friday night by the Columbia Motion Picture Co., was the best of its kind ever seen here or at any of the large theatres. The pictures cannot be excelled. Profs. W. T. Hitchcock and T. J. Dougherty rendered a number of popular songs.

NEWSY CHURCH NOTES.

The Washington Post in a two column article speaks of the good work being done by the volunteer choir in North Carolina Avenue Church of which Prof. Charles V. Schofield, formerly of Chestertown, is the organist and director.

Bond M. E. Church, Quaker Neck, was re-opened last Sunday after undergoing extensive repairs. The building has been repainted without; papered, painted and grained within and otherwise beautified, including an elegant new brussels carpet and stained glass windows. Mr. W. L. Fowler and workmen did the painting and graining.

The Methodist Protestant churches of Baltimore will hold a bazar in November.

Misses Mamie Thompson and Caddie Nickerson and Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley were named as delegates to the C. E. institute which met at Mardela Springs this week.

The popular Song Service at Christ Church, Chestertown, will be resumed Sunday at 6.45 P. M.

Hon. James H. Baker addressed the Chestertown M. E. Sunday School last Sunday, the occasion being the fall rally of the school. Mr. Baker's address was forceful and earnest and the experienced talker proved popular with his audience.

The C. E. Society of Christ church will hold a grand rally service next Friday evening Rev. C. E. Stone, the sweet singer, is expected to participate.

The trustees of Still Pond M. E. Church are contracting for the work of grubbing and thoroughly cleaning the burying ground surrounding the Church, preparations to seeding in grass and enclosing with substantial fence. The work undertaken is difficult and expensive, liberal contributions are solicited at once from all interested in the enterprise. The pastor, Rev. T. S. Holt, has been appointed to receive contributions to this fund and will cheerfully answer any questions. The work is to be begun at once and completed by December, 1st.

Fairlee M. E. Sunday school will hold a rally next Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock. A fine program has been prepared.

Wedding.—Mr. Charles H. Stowman son of Mrs. Sarah A. Stowman, of East Neck Island, and Miss Gertrude Whaland, daughter of Robert M. Whaland, were quietly married at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. Riley, Baltimore, Sept. 28th. The parlor was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Rev. J. P. Wright, of Union Square M. E. Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was attired in a white linen dress trimmed in white lace. They will reside in Kent. Among those present were the following: Robert and Thomas Whaland, Mrs. Sarah A. Stowman, Mrs. Annie Bawkins, of Cordova, Talbot county, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Olson, Mrs. John Seward, Mrs. Boehm, Misses Grace Kagle, Maud Word, Fannie Boice.

Next Tuesday is your last chance to register or to be transferred.

Democrats Should Avail Themselves Of The Opportunity To Get Registered.

Democrats who failed to get registered Tuesday last, have ONLY ONE MORE DAY LEFT—NEXT TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10TH, between the hours of 8.00 a. m., and 7.00 p. m. Every Democrat should get his name on the registration books. This is the most important campaign for years. If you fail to register you cannot vote, and we appeal to every Democrat in Kent county to attend to this very important matter. If you have changed your place of residence since last election you must go in person to your present voting place and get registered. Tuesday next is your last chance, don't miss it.

CIRCUS NEXT MONDAY.

Robbins Show Meets With Accident Near Belair—Kangaroos Escape.

The big circus will arrive in Chestertown from Centreville early Sunday morning and pitch their tents on W. W. Hubbard's lot near the A. M. E. Church. The new switch recently put in by Mr. H. will prove a great convenience to the showmen. The Democratic Advocate, Westminster has the following:

Frank A. Robbins' circus exhibited in Westminster on Wednesday to audiences that taxed the seating capacity of their mammoth tent, although this is a very busy season in the rural districts. And those who took a day off to witness the parade and circus were well repaid. They enjoyed the occasion and the diversion was rest, amusement and entertainment that will better fit them to resume work The performances were well up to expectation—the bare back riding, the aerial trapeze acts, the horizontal bar performances, the difficult bicycle riding, the dare devil dash of a cyclist, the clowns, the music and all were most excellent. The acting was perfect and the order perfect. The absence of fakes and humbugs which follow some circuses was noticeable.

The circus and menagerie, however was minus one cage and another was slightly damaged. In coming from Waynesboro, Pa., at Waynesboro Junction the cage with the kangaroos projected too far and came in contact with the station, toppling it off the car and the kangaroos escaped in the mountains. While enroute to Belair this week one of the cars, containing horses and elephants, became derailed. Traffic was delayed about an hour before the car could be replaced. The trumpeting of the elephants and the stamping of the horses, who did not know what to make of the unusual proceedings, attracted many of the residents of Woodberry and Hampden to the scene, and the slopes above the tracks were lined with onlookers. The small boy had the time of his life.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Florence Mae Connor spent last Saturday at her home in Queenstown.

The college work is now resumed, with an increase of several students over the number enrolled last year.

At a recent meeting of the Athletic Association Mr. Charles B. Morris was elected manager of the baseball team of 1906.

The young ladies of Normal Hall are taking advantage of these fine, sunny afternoons to play basket ball and croquet.

To-day (Saturday) the first football game of the season will be played on the college campus between the second team of W. C. and the Baltimore City College.

The football teams are practicing hard under the supervision of their new coach, Mr. E. O. Halbert. The manner in which Mr. Halbert is coaching the team promises to make the season a very successful one.

Last Saturday evening the literary societies elected their officers for the coming term. Mr. Curtis W. Long was elected President of Mt. Vernon, Mr. Alfred L. Garrison President of Adelphia, and Miss Novilla P. Kirby President of Pieria.

Among the former students and graduates who visited the college last Friday evening for the first reception at Normal Hall, were: Mr. Harry P. Porter, of Greensboro, Miss Pearl Griffin, of Denton, Misses Sarah Hessey and Anna Melvin, of this town.

NEW $10 COUNTERFEIT!

A Deceptive Note Received at a Chestertown Bank—Sent to Treasury Department in Washington.

Chief Wilkie, of the United States Secret Service, has announced the discovery of a new counterfeit $10 United States ("Buffalo") note. It is of the series of 1901, check letter B, Lyons, Register; Roberts, Treasurer. One of these notes was passed on a Chestertown bank last week and is now in the hands of the Treasury Department in Washington.

It was a deceptive photo-mechanical reproduction on two pieces of paper, between which blue and red silk fiber has been distributed. The counterfeit is fully three-eights of an inch longer than the genuine. The numbering and denominational "X" are darker than the genuine. The lathe work on the note is indistinct and broken in many places The seal is a trifle darker than the genuine. The back of the note is printed in a very dark green. One of these notes made its appearance in New York, and was passed on the subway ticket agent at Broadway and Forty-second street.

THE entertainment given Thursday evening in Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, was enjoyed by a fair audience. Miss Hattie Marine, an elocutionist of rare talent of Baltimore, was the star and gave several excellent reproductions of well-known plays. The program was repeated at Worton last night.
