CHESTERVILLE, MD., Nov. 22, 1905.
MESSRS. J. N. WHEATLEY & CO., CHESTERTOWN, MD.—Dear Sirs: I take much pleasure in thanking you and the company represented by you for the satisfactory manner in which you adjusted my loss and the promptness with which you settled the claim for insurance caused by fire on Nov. 10th, 1905, which burned my grain, feed and implements. I thank the gentleman who adjusted the insurance asked for both for the company and myself. Drafts arrived days after fire to cover loss, as far as policies called for, and shall in the future place a share of my insurance business with companies represented by you. Thank you all for your kindness, for insurance and insurance companies are a poor man's friend. Money invested in insurance is well spent, even if you have no fires.
Yours truly,

CLOTHING

Both Suits and Overcoats To Be Sacrificed

Owing to the exceedingly mild winter, heavy suits and overcoats have not been moving as rapidly as desired, and as they MUST BE SOLD, we have adopted this plan to move them quickly.

Our stock this season is the largest and most complete we have had for ten years, and consists of the very latest and nobbiest styles of the finest and most perfect fitting suits and overcoats ever shown in this market, including Vicunas, Thibets, Venetian Lined Granites, Double and Twisted Worsteds of plain and fancy weaves; also a line of Genuine Scotch Cheviots. Among these suits, in addition to regular sizes, will be found a plentiful supply of stouts and slims, cut especially for short and fat and long and slim men. Also about 250 Overcoats, including the popular Cravenette Rain Coat, Kerseys, Meltons, Oxford Grays, &c.

Space forbids the mention of a tenth of the bargains, but to give you some idea of the CUT in the prices, we name in part as follows:

Many $10 and $12 Suits and Overcoats have been cut to $7.50 and $8.00.

For instance, we will sell you a genuine ALL wool Cravenette Rain Coat, with silk sleeve linings, for $7.50.

A Splendid Line of Suits, which we have been selling for $10 and $12, will be sold for $7.50 and $8.50.

You who have been blindly going, season after season, to your favorite store and paying any price asked for your clothing, will be most agreeably surprised at the quality, fit and PRICES of this stock. I respectfully invite you to call and look at these suits and overcoats. You will not be importuned to buy, but you owe it to yourself to at least look and see if what I have said in this advertisement is not true to the letter. We have added a complete line of Hand Sewed, Welted Shoes for Gentlemen, worth and sold everywhere for $3.00, which we intend to advertise next week at $2.50. Respectfully,

THOS. S. BORDLEY.

CHURCH TIDINGS.

Temperance Day Marked by Interesting Services in Chestertown—Parish House Opened Friday Night.

Sunday was Temperance Day throughout the world. It was a marked day in Chestertown churches. Revs. D. L. Greenfield and W. L. White preached appropriate sermons to the Methodist congregations at the morning services. In the afternoon Christ Church Sunday school presented a special program under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Vannort, President of the local union. Miss Eva Hurlock trained a choir of young singers who presented several choruses. Mrs. D. B. McMenamin read a beautiful selection in her characteristic effective manner and Miss Hallie Kelley rendered a sweet solo. The event of the afternoon was an excellent address by Mrs. Tilghman Shafer, of Kennedyville. This address may be found in full on the second page of the NEWS.

At night a union service was held in Christ Church, at which Rev. Albert Jamison, of Kennedyville Presbyterian Church, delivered the sermon. The popular pastor greatly pleased his large audience and gave some encouraging words to the valiant workers in the temperance cause. Rev. Mr. White put a few cap sheaves on at the close. Dr. Greenfield directed the services.

Revival services were begun Sunday evening at Bond M. E. Church, Rev. E. B. Taylor, pastor.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. R. S. Rowe, pastor. Public worship with preaching on Sunday, December 3rd, at 10.30 a. m., and 7 p. m. Communion after the morning sermon, and revival services in the evening.

Arrangements have been completed to reopen Wesleyan Chapel next Sunday with appropriate ceremonies. The program as arranged by Rev. J. W. Parris and the committee is as follows: 10.30 a. m., preaching; 2.45 p. m., Sunday School Rally; 7 p. m., Song Service; 7 30 p. m. preaching; Rev. J. M. Sheridan, Dr. T. H. Lewis and Rev. C. K. McCaslin will participate. Capt. Columbus Leary will address the Sunday School.

Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, Rev. Albert C. Jamison pastor, Sunday, December 3rd, 10.30 a. m., preaching and communion.

Revival services at 7.30 p. m., Worton.

The beautiful Parish building of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church was opened Friday evening with appropriate benediction services under the direction of the faithful pastor, Dr. Martin. Words of praise were given to all who had shared in the great improvement. Miss Caroline Thompson, who bequeathed the tower, was kindly referred to and the late beloved rector, Dr. Roberts, was feelingly spoken of by all the speakers, Dr. D. L. Greenfield, especially, made a touching address upon the work of the late rector and Rev. W. L. White made a stirring speech upon the good work going on. Chocolate and wafers were served during the evening by the King's Daughters. The new building cost about $7,000 and was erected by W. S. & A. M. Culp, contractors.

Rev. James H. Straughn, son of Mrs. Laura M. Straughn, of Centreville, and pastor of the Methodist Protestant church at Lynchburg, Va., who was appointed superintendent of the Christian Endeavor work of his denomination in the United States, has declined the position and his wife who was also at the same time appointed superintendent of the junior work, has taken a similar step.

Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley, Jr., led the song service in Christ Church Sunday and had an interesting program.

Dr. D. L. Greenfield preached the Thanksgiving sermon to the Methodist congregations in the Chestertown M. E. Church Thursday morning. His theme was "Redemption" and his address was well received. The singing under Dr. A. S. Hall was especially fine.

St. James Sunday School will hold a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Davis, near Hanesville, next Tuesday evening.

The usual services will be held in Christ Methodist Protestant Church. Christian Worker's Song Hour at 6.45 p. m. The sermon theme of the pastor at 7 30 p. m. will be, "A Human Being in the Eternal World."

Harvest Home services in Union M. E. Church, Worton, on Thursday, Dec. 7, 1905, preaching by Rev. W. L. White at 2 30 p. m. Public invited. Supper will be served in the hall.

Easy For Washington College.—In two 20 minute halves Washington College defeated the Sans Tache Athletic Club, of Baltimore, Saturday, 49 to 0. The difference in weight of the two teams accounts for the big score.

The county commissioners met on Thursday last and organized by making Mr. John H. Evans president of the board and James T. Bright counsel. On Tuesday they appointed Mr. H. B. W. Mitchell, a young attorney of Centreville, their clerk. Mr. Samuel Sen y, the newly elected clerk of the court, qualified and appointed as his deputies Mr. George T. LOST HALF A GALLON!

A Queen Anne's Farmer Proves His Eating Ability on a Wager in Kent.

Mr. Bedford Titter, the Quaker Neck oyster dispenser, lost a half gallon oysters Tuesday on a wager. He was on his way to Mr. Alday Clements' when he stopped for a "rest" at Capt. Walmsley store at Morgnec. While there he met a gentleman from Queen Anne's who boasted of his appetite and eating capacity.

The stranger offered to bet a dollar against Mr. Titter's half gallon of oysters that he could eat said quantity within a half hour! Mr. Titter, coming from where men knew how to enjoy oysters determined to risk his oysters. The Queen Anne's resident began to devour the bivalves and within seven minutes he had eaten the whole half gallon solid measure! Mr. Titter, remarked as the man finished, "well, you are welcome to my oysters!" The man replied, "the sad look on your face belie your words, and I am now ready to bet you I can eat a quart more!" Mr. Titter was satisfied and left.
