VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, MAY 5, 1906. NO. 48

RIGHT IN IT!

GET IN THE RING.

We are now ready for the Spring and Summer with the best line of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children that we've ever had, and to the few who do not know about the superiority of our Clothing we say, GET IN THE RING! A suit from us will cost you perhaps a trifle less than if bought elsewhere; it will fit you better, and retain that same style and shape that you pay double the price for at the tailor shop. Grays are the leading shades this season—a very serviceable color, too—and we have plenty of them to show you. Our line of Spring Trowsers for Men and Boys is up to its old-time standard—the best and largest in town.

Hats and Caps—we have hats for particular men—men who are hard to suit—because we have them in all shapes and styles. Derbys, Slouches, Crushes and Straws, in all the latest shades and patterns.

If you want the best half hose on earth, we sell the interwoven heel and toe that wear just twice as long as any ordinary hose. We have the sole right to sell this hose in Chestertown.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

The home of Mr. Isaac Cleaver, at Kennedyville, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening, the contracting parties being his grand-daughter, Miss Bessie Webb, and Mr. Chas. Smith. The home was beautifully decorated, the bridal party being married under an arch of evergreen from which there hung a floral bell. Rev. H. J. Hooker performed the ceremony during which Miss Flora Johnson sang appropriate selections. Mrs. Harry Fallowfield rendered the wedding march in fine style. The bride wore a dress of white Paris muslin trimmed in lace and carried brides' roses. Miss May Webb, one of the bridesmaids wore white silk over blue while Miss Mary Smith wore dotted swiss over pink. Little Miss Mary Watkins, the flower girl, wore white silk and carried a basket of flowers. A rich collation of refreshments were served after the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Maggie Webb while the groom is employed on the Pennsylvania railroad. They will make their home in Kennedyville.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS.

What is "Doing" Among Your Friends and Acquaintances in Kent and Elsewhere.

Ex-Gov. Robt. J. Reynolds and wife, of Del., and Mr. John W. Thomas, who has just returned from Europe, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Wm. T. Smith, at Worton.

Mr. J. W. Crew, of Worton, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Crew is 81 years of age but is active, industrious and jovial. He says he has just learned to live and for the past 13 years has been happier than for a long time.

Mr. Thomas S. Bordley, one of Chestertown's Town Fathers, has suffered great pain for a week with a boil or carbuncle on his eyelid. It has entirely closed one eye and the other one is affected. Dr. Simmons is attending him.

Mr. Owen C. Smith, a former Chestertown boy, is now proprietor of two large drug stores, in Baltimore only recently moving into larger and handsomer quarters to accomodate his increased patronage. He occupies a prominent position among the drug trade of that city and fills positions of responsibility in pharmaceutical associations. We are glad to note his success.

Dr. J. B. Schwatka will accept our thanks for an invitation to the commencement of the Maryland Medical College of Baltimore held at Albaugh's Theatre Thursday.

Mrs. A. Reese Crew and son, of Wilmington, are guests of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Hodgkins, Queen street.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davis are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a little girl.

Mr. R. Snowden Thomas attended a banquet tendered the agents of the National Life, of Vt., at Dover last Friday.

Mrs. Thomas Storke has been quite sick for several weeks at her home on Front street.

Dr. H. B. Simmons spent Wednesday at Havre de Grace.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hubbard, and children, of Baltimore, were guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubard, Washington avenue.

Mr. W. E. Valiant, of Laurel, spent Tuesday in town on business.

Dr. W. Frank Hines and wife returned Tuesday from Baltimore.

Mr. George Bacon has accepted a place at the basket factory in place of Mr. A. E. Ringold, resigned.

Mr. John F. Hudson, of N. Y. Clothing House, visited friends in town this week.

Mr. James Taylor, who has contracted to lay the bricks on the new college building, has removed his family from Baltimore to the dwelling over the post-office.

Mrs. A. P. Matthews spent several days in Baltimore this week with her son, Roland, who has secured a position in the city.

The three children of Capt. Geo. W. Tarbutton, of Galena, are quite sick with typhoid fever.

Mr. Wm. Dempsey, son of Mr. Theo. Dempsey, of Galena, is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Mr. George A. Mellott, of Kansas, was in town Tuesday in company with Mr. B. F. Davis looking for a farm.

Mr. Lucas Aldrichs, a direct descendant of the second Governor of Delaware, celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday Thursday at his home, 2433 Barclay street, Baltimore. He formerly lived in Worton where he and his family made many friends. He is in good health and comparatively active.

Mr. Aldrichs was born in 1821 near Wilmington, Del., on the homestead which was in possession of the family from 1827 to 1882. The house in which he was born and which is still standing was built in 1754. The first Governor was Jacob Aldrichs (old spelling), and his nephew, Peter Aldrichs, was the second Governor. Mr. Aldrichs left Delaware in 1882 and came to Kent county. In 1898 he went to Baltimore. He has six sons and two daughters. They are Messrs. Frank C., Benjamin P., Louis P., Lucas Lee, Milton K. and Clifton P. and Miss Mary M. Aldrichs and Mrs. A. B. Gale. He has 10 grandchildren. The NEWS extends best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Copper are recipients of congratulations upon the arrival of a bouncing baby boy.

Messrs. James P. Beck and Chas. H. Hurlock visited Delaware this week and report the outlook good for wheat and all kinds of fruit.

Mr. Earle Latham has accepted a position with the Diamond State Telephone Co., Chestertown.

Mrs. Elmore Skirven, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morris, Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ford spent Sunday in Elkton.

Miss Sadie Lewis, of Elkton, is visiting her cousin, Miss Evalon Ford, near Galena.

Miss Griffin, of Denton, and Miss Rolph, of Queen Anne, have been the guests of Miss Anna Melvin, as have also Misses Baden and Rochester, of Washington College.

Mrs. Lawrence Legg, of Marlton, N. J., is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Edw. Newton, Jr., of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Wilmer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting Chestertown. They are on their happy honeymoon and renewing some of the acquaintances of the well-known Wilmer family.

Dr. James W. Cain, of Washington College, will be one of the judges of the oratorical contest next Friday night at Pocomoke City between the high schools of Salisbury, Princess Anne, Snow Hill and Pocomoke City.

Col. W. J. Vanort attended the big G. A. R. banquet in Baltimore this week.

J. T. FERGUSON DROWNED.

A Popular Young Man, of Millington and a Bright Young Lady, of Schoolfield, Go Boating and Meet With a Fatal Accident.

Like a thunderbolt from a clear sky came the sad news last Saturday morning of the drowning of one of our former town boys, Mr. James T. Ferguson, son of Mrs. Dr. Gowman. Until about two weeks ago Jim had been employed in Baltimore as electrician, he then accepted a like position with the new cotton plant at Danville Va.

The Danville Register publishes following: While out boating in the pond above the new dam Friday afternoon Miss Sallie Dyer, a pretty and attractive brunette of 16 and Mr. J. T. Ferguson, a young man employed as electrician at the new cotton mills at Schoolfield sank to watery graves. The double tragedy is the saddest ever known in this city. The drowning is not devoid a story of romance and heroism and eye witnesses to the battle against the surging stream declare young Ferguson died as a result of his courageous efforts to rescue his fair companion who first fell from the frail canoe. Both bodies were recovered that evening.

Mr. Richard Weiford accompanied by Miss Powell and Miss Dyer while being shown through the building were introduced to Mr. Ferguson who suggested that the ladies go boating with him. Miss Dyer accepted the invitation despite the warnings and protestations of friends. Mr. Weiford and Miss Powell were sitting on the bank talking and did not pay particular attention to the occupants of the boat coming back from their trip until it was noticed both were in the water. The distance from the shores was too far for anyone on the banks to render any assistance of value. A negro who was standing on the river bank says that in some manner Miss Dyer tilted the boat and fell out, Mr. Ferguson then jumped out in an effort to save her, they struggled for at least five minutes and were seen to separate, Miss Dyer sank and Mr. Ferguson started to swim toward shore, he swam only a short distance before he was seen to sink. Dr. and Mrs. Gowman left Saturday afternoon for Danville, the remains were taken Monday to Tampa, Florida and interred in the family burying ground. Jim was a bright fellow, very popular with all who knew him and the family has the deepest sympathy of this community in their sorrow and distress.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. Hamilton Crew died at his home near Betterton, on Monday morning last after a lingering illness of cancer of the liver, aged 67 years. He leaves a widow who was formerly Miss Catherin Harris, also two sons and two daughters, viz., D. Harris, Roland, Mrs. Samuel G. Roseberry and Miss Jessie. The deceased was one of the best known and most highly respected farmers of Still Pond neighborhood. His farms always evidenced care and industry and only recently he had erected a splendid house on the home farm. Mr. Crew was a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a citizen of high moral character. He leaves one brother Mr. Alexander H. Crew.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. T. S. Holt officiating. Interment was in the family lot in Still Pond Cemetery. The bearers were: C. B. Krusen, James S. Harris, R. T. Turner, Jr., E. M. Bonwell, W. D. Pennington, F. H. Harper. Undertaker Wm. H Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Henry S. the 8-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allston died at the home of his parents 624 W. 7th st. Wilmington on Monday night last of enteritis bocly was brought to Still Pond on Tuesday afternoon train and funeral and interment took place Wednesday morning 10 o'clock Rev. T. S. Holt officiating. Undertaker Krusen in charge.

JOHN K. BOSEE.

Mr. John K. Bosee died at his home, 2233 Eutaw place, Baltimore, Tuesday after a brief illness. Mr. Bosee was born at Millington, this county, on July 3rd, 1843, and was a son of the late John and Catherine Bosee. After attaining his majority Mr. Bosee removed to Baltimore and engaged in the commission business. For a number of years he was with the old commission firm of B. Brook Nyce & Co. He subsequently associated himself with the late M. J. Owens, under the first name of Owens, Bosee & Co. For the past 20 years Mr. Bosee has been associated with Mr. Summerfield B. Medairy in the commission business, the style of the firm being Bosee, Medairy & Co. He is survived by a widow, the daughter of the late Capt. Wm. H. Thompson, two sons—Messrs. J. K. Beose, Jr., and Thompson Bosee—and one daughter, Mrs. Channing Lilly. He owns a nice farm near Morgnec where he and his family spend their vacation.

Mrs. Joseph Manlove, aged 68, died in Cecilton Thursday. She is survived by a devoted husband and four children, James, Harry, H. B., and Mrs. John C. Manlove. The funeral services were held from the residence of her husband near town, on Monday at 1.30 p. m. Interment was made in Forest Cemetery, Middletown,, Delaware.

BIG STOCK PURCHASE!

As noted in the NEWS heretofore, F. H. Harper & Son have purchased the C. L. Jarrell stock of dry goods, and they are now invoicing the same. In the NEWS next week will appear a special list of bargains sold by this energetic Still Pond firm. Watch for it—wait for it.

J. R. BENNETT, of Kennedyville, takes the prize for early vegetables. He had tomatoes this week raised in his garden. Where are you, Colonel?

R. G. NICHOLSON, the "ice man," says there will be no advance in ice and that the price will be just the same as it was last year. The article made at the Chestertown plant is hard to excel.

H. S. BARNET received several boatloads of wood the past week from down the shore.
