"I have but one Lamp by which my feet are guided and that is the lamp of experience." PATRICK HENRY.

Seventeen years ago the KENT COUNTY SAVINGS BANK began business in the midst of a panic that closed the doors of many of the strongest Banks in America

Since that time it has survived all panics and successfully met all competition For 5 years it paid 3% on savings or time deposits before any other Bank in Kent county paid anything.

Then the Chestertown National Bank, the richest and strongest bank in this section, advertised to pay 4% on deposits It had a surplus and profits nearly equal to its capital; but when it wound up it had sunk its surplus, and the accumulated profits of twenty years business.

The last Bank to advertise 4% for deposits except a recent venture was the Galena Bank of the Farmers' Trust, Banking & Deposit Co, of mournful memory; and the echo of its crash still lingers, and its depositors still smart from their losses.

Does not Experience teach?

Therefore deposit your money in the soundest, strongest Savings Bank in this part of Maryland and be sure of your Principal and Interest when you need it.

We issue no long time certificates of deposit that will prevent you getting your money should you want it.

Remember, that "Safety Beyond All Else," has always been the motto of this, the Pioneer Savings Institution of this part of Maryland.

So bring your deposits to us where the same rate of interest is paid on SMALL DEPOSITS as on GREAT and all are treated alike.

These will protect your interests

A STARTLING INCIDENT!

Philip Bowser, a well-known colored resident of Chestertown, aged 81, died this week. Undertaker Dodd was managing the funeral in the Bethel A. M. E. Church on Thursday in the presence of a large company. As the bearers were carrying the remains down stairs, Isaac Johnson, son-in-law of the deceased, fell down the steps and died soon afterwards. He suffered a paralytic stroke which caused the sudden fall. He was 65 years old. The incident caused quite a consternation among the colored people.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

SAMUEL HURLOCK.

Mr. Samuel Hurlock, a well-known citizen, died at his home near Cecilton last Sunday afternoon of the infirmities of age, after a long illness. Mr. Hurlock was born near Massey April 12th, 1821, and when about 12 years of age began to clerk in Milington, where he remained for about two years. Shortly after attaining his majority he bought a farm in this county, the "Church farm," near Massey, and resided there until 1881. He then removed to a large farm in Cecil county, near Cecilton, where he has since made his home. Up to within three years ago he did not suffer from the infirmities of age. He was robust and hale and could ride in a fox-hunt close behind the hounds. He was a great lover of out door life and always kept a big pack of hounds. Firm in his allegiance to the Democratic party, he has nevertheless always refused official honors and positions of prominence. He married Miss Mary Rebecca Money, who died some years ago, leaving but one heir, Mr. Clarence S. Hurlock, a well-known and popular citizen of the First district. Mr. Hurlock was the last surviving member of a family of five brothers and four sisters, viz: Sewell, John, Samuel, David, Jacob, and Araminta, Sarah Ann, Wilhelmina and Edna. He owned some of the best farm land in Kent and Cecil counties, one known as the Davis farm, in Cecil county, for which he paid $20,000. Mr. Hurlock was known for his great kindness of heart and his favors to the poor. He was a kind, indulgent and sympathetic friend.

The funeral services were held at St. Clements' Church, Massey, at 12 o'clock noon on Thursday, and the interment was in Massey cemetery.

RICHARD M. BRYAN.

Richard M. Bryan, a highly respected and well-known farmer of this county, died at his home on the Calder farm, near Fairlee, Thursday at noon, after a long illness, aged 62. The deceased was of humble demeanor, but in a family of upright and industrious children has left enduring impression upon the community. He is survived by a widow, who is a daughter of the late Elias Deputy, and the following children: Rev. J. Franklin Bryan; of Baltimore; Rev. B. A. Bryan, of Delaware, Mrs. Ida Metcalf, Baltimore; Thomas B., Worton; Richard, Rock Hall; Miss Anna, Baltimore; Mrs. Carrie Davis, Lankford; Miss Rachel Bryan, at home. The funeral services will take place at 2 p. m. Sunday, in Salem M. E. Church, Rev. Dr. F. T. Little and Rev. Mr. Kelso officiating; interment in Chester cemetery. Charles L. Dodd undertaker.

Dance at Fairlee.—A very delightful dance took place at Fairlee Hall on Thursday evening last. The music was charming and the young folks all seemed to be "care free and joyous." The patronesses were Mesdames James L. Beck, Tylden Brice, George E. Noland, Charles H. Skirven. The floor committee consisted of Messrs. Raymond Walbert, Chas. A. Jessop, Walter Kenley and Hynson Beck.

Gale's Wharf Purchased.—We are glad to announce that the papers have been signed for the purchase of Gale's wharf from Mr. and Mrs. Costello, by the Tolchester Steamboat Co. The price paid was $1000 and other considerations. Capt. W. C. Eliason and Mr. Samuel Vannort made the final arrangements on Monday last with Mr. and Mrs. Costello at Worton Manor Beach farm. This wharf will hereafter be known as Worton Manor. The Tolchester boat made her first stop there on Thursday last and hereafter this will be one of her regular stops. Needed improvements will be made to the wharf as soon as possible. There are several applicants for the position of wharf tender.

Automobile Club.—The Automobile Club of Kent is rapidly getting in shape. Rooms are being looked after in a good location of Chestertown and the Club will be launched forth under very auspicious beginnings. Among the members are: W. Frank Jarrell, J. F. Thompson, Jas. G. Beck, H. B. Breckwidel, Claude F. Parks, P. G. Wilmer, Wm C. Sutton, S. S. Beck, W. I. Walker, J. H. Sides, T. A. Matthews, Isaac Gibbs, Jr., T. W. Perkins, Merrick Clements, T. W. Eliason, Jr., Elwood Whaley, H. B. Simmons, Thos. Massey, A. L. Sparks, H. R. Graham, H. G. Simpers, P. A. M. Brooks, Chas. E. Wood, James Brice, A. W. Carmine, J. Hydie Thompson, G. D. Lofland, H. H. Klinefelter, S. G. Caldwell, T. D. Bowers, E. B. Hines, C. E. Crane, N. S. Dudley, E. S. Valliant, Howard Owens, Wallace Atwell, C. L. Jarrell, R. G. Sparks, A. A. Harris, J. A. Bradley, J. R. Simpers. The next meeting of the Club will take place Feb. 20th.

At a meeting on Wednesday of those interested in the Worton track it was decided to employ Trainer Mallalieu to take charge of the track. A series of races at this old track will be held during the year.

Mr. G. H. IVENS has contracted for over 100 acres of tomatoes at $8.00 a ton for his Lynch cannery.

It is said that the shipment of small pigs to Baltimore have been numerous since Christmas owing to the demand caused by banquets. These pigs in some instances are substituted for diamond back terrapin! Of course an Eastern Shoreman knows better.

THE Treasurer has collected all but about $25,000 of the $166,000, which is a very good showing when the exorbitant tax rate is considered. Mr. Conlyn Noland, deputy, has attended the duties in a most correct manner.
