LOCAL NOTES

THE Worton Matinee Races have been postponed until next Friday, 11th inst.

THE name of Mr. John N. Bennett's dairy is "Friendship Manor," near Still Pond.

THE McMenamin stable and lot on Calvert street has been purchased of L. B. Russell, broker, by Mr. Owen B. Crow.

THE Jarman farm in Double Creek tenanted by Chas. Jarman and containing 208 acres has been bought by Spencer Coleman for $4500.

GOV. CROTHERS visited Kent Tuesday going over the proposed road from Chestertown to Rock Hall. He took dinner at the Voshell House and went to Centreville and Denton same day.

THE St. James picnic held Thursday on Mr. W. B. Willis' lawn was visited by town two down-pours of rain, but it was an enjoyable occasion for everyone.

THE big Grange meeting in Klinefelter's woods, near Chestertown, next Wednesday, promises to be a grand occasion. The Chestertown Automobile Club will meet the special State steamer and convey the Governor and guests to the picnic grounds. The Centreville Cornet Band will furnish music in addition to the big chorus which will meet in Stam's Hall today for rehearsal. A full program appeared in the NEWS last week.

PRICE'S mill, near St. Paul's, was broken into Saturday night and a quantity of wheat and flour stolen. Mr. Price's son and several companions returning late from Rock Hall saw the mill door open and going in found Emory Comegys helping himself while Louis Jones watched outside. Constable W. A. Bramble arrested Sherman Wickes and Louis Jones, but Comegys is still at large.

THE Downing Circus will show on Walter Wright's lot Sept. 22. The Town Commissioners, in recognition of the services rendered by Robbins' Show last year, will not require any license of them.

THE Kent County Land Co., through real estate broker J. Waters Russell, has sold the lot on Water street adjoining the new home of Mr. J. W. Crouch to a gentleman who does not want his name known at present.

A Big Wheat Crop.—Mr. Charles Jones, on the Jacobs farm, near Galena, on 86 acres raised 2706 bushels of wheat, an average of 31½ bushels per acre. He got 1265 bushels on stalk ground or an average of 26½ bushels, and 1441 bushels on his fallow or an average of 38 bushels. We consider this a record crop for 1911.

A Serious Accident.—Mr. A. H. Malsberger, a well-known merchant of Massey, broke two bones in his leg Monday. He attempted to jump from an automobile without opening the door, in his haste to quiet a fractious horse, tripped and fell heavily to the ground, causing the accident. Dr. Jeter set the bones and the patient is doing fairly well.

Old Land Mark Gone.—The big oak tree near St. Paul's Church in the yard of Mr. Tobe Andersen blew down in the storm last Friday. This was one of the largest trees in Kent. Lightning hit it first and split it and then the wind came along and blew it down. Mr. Frank B. Jester lived at this place 13 years and says he considers this grand old oak tree worth $300. It measured 40 feet in circumference.

Removal Sale.—Mr. W. P. Newnam, the hustling music man, announces on page 2 of the NEWS his great removal sale. He will move into the new Maul Building, in the Burnt District, on September 1, and in order to close out his stock and start afresh will give a discount of 20 per cent. Read his adv. and see him.

Peaches Scarce in Kent.—A few peaches are being marketed in Kent, but the crop will be lighter than for years. Mr. John C. Wood of East Neck Island was in Chestertown Tuesday and he says that of the 20 years he has been on the Island this is third time his peach crop has been a failure.

Mr. John N. Bennett will accept our thanks for a nice lot of peaches.

DELEGATES BUT INSTRUCTED.

The Kent delegates to Democratic or Republican State nominating conventions in September can not vote for whom they please as nominees for governor or other State officers. They will be instructed specifically by the voters to vote for the candidates already named in the primary. The Kent voters will have also told the delegates, at the same primary, who is their second choice and third choice and arrange them in order as far as there are candidates on each ticket.

Kent county will be entitled to three delegates, and these will be instructed for whom to vote for on the first ballot, when if the highest man fails to get 65 votes, then he is eliminated and a second vote taken. On this vote the Kent delegation will have to cast their ballots for the man who secured the highest number of votes in the primary for second choice. If this candidate fails to receive the necessary number of votes, then the third choice is taken up.

In other words, the Kent delegates will go to the convention with their credentials, as made out by the supervisors of election, bearing also the names of those for whom they are to vote and in what order the names are to be voted.

NOTICE.

I will take subscriptions to the "American Issue" and am authorized to accept all contributions of any who desire to help the Anti-Saloon League, the receipt for all monies to be returned by Mr. Anderson.
WILLIAM A. BURKE,
ag4. Chestertown, Md.
