In these days when our Government is urging more intense farming and the demand for every farm product has been multiplied many times in the last two or three years it becomes necessary for farmers to utilize every improved method that means increased production with less labor and less cost.

The FARM TRACTOR

is now as necessary as the horse. It has passed the experimental stage and is dependable. In the near future we expect to give a demonstration of the latest model 10-20 Titan Tractor which has proven to be the size best suited for regular farm purposes. We hope to be ready to give this demonstration during the Fair, but in any event due notice will be given.

Watch for announcement of place and date and don't miss seeing it.

LIBERTY UPHELD

"The God who gave us life gave us liberty at the same time."

THUS Thomas Jefferson, author of our beloved Declaration of Independence, linked liberty with life as the natural heritage of mankind.

ONE Hundred and Forty-one Years have not dimmed the significance of the words for the heart of America.

TODAY we are at War against autocracy and militarism, upholding liberty as the fundamental right of man, not for ourselves alone but for the people of all nations.

WOMANHOOD

The Glory of the Nation.

"Womanhood" is the supreme revelation of the three noblest passions in a woman's life.

Rightly called "the Love Epic of the Screen," it depicts the love of a maid for a man, the love of a mother for her child, and the love of a woman for her country.

So vivid is the story—so gripping is the intensity of the action—that it conveys to the mind and heart emotions so vital and thoughts so powerful that its presentation will leave its indelible impress on your memory.

DEATHS

Mrs. Avis Elizabeth Vannort died at her home in Chestertown early Tuesday morning. She has been a great sufferer from neuritis for several years. She leaves a husband, Col. William J. Vannort, and two daughters, Mrs. Mamie Sheppard and Mrs. Harry Rayner, of Baltimore. Mrs. Vannort was a daughter of the late Col. John M. Denning, of Chestertown.

Mrs. Vannort has been identified with every interest of Chestertown M. P. Church for years. She was a teacher in the Sunday school, a leader when her health permitted, in every social and religious affair given by the church and even to the very last never forget her duty to her early church love. She will be missed in scores of fields. In the erection of the new M. P. Church several years ago she was one of the most enthusiastic members of that noble band of workers that helped to erect this handsome edifice. She was a great worker in the W. C. T. U. cause and in every way did her utmost to instill its teachings among both young and old. In every charitable undertaking she was a leader. She loved her church, her town, her friends, and every interest of theirs was her's also. We record her death with much sorrow for she had many excellent traits of character that are found in few.

The funeral took place Thursday at 4 p. m. with interment in Chester cemetery. Dr. F. T. Little and Rev. J. L. Ward officiated; C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were W. W. Hubbard, H. J. Richardson, T. D. Bowers, H. L. Dodd, J. R. Simpers, Wm. Vansant, J. V. Crouch, C. L. Dodd.

Lewin S. Fowler died at his home in Chestertown on Thursday afternoon at the ripe old age of 84 years. Thus passes away another well-known and esteemed citizen of our town. He has been identified with every interest of the town and county all his long life and always looked up to as a man of high ideals, correct dealing and conscientious conduct. He was in the mercantile business in Chestertown; was the efficient postmaster of Chestertown for several years and was the confidential secretary of the late Richard D. Hynson for several years and held several positions of trust in Chestertown during his life. In every capacity he did his duty thoroughly and efficiently. He was a member of the official board of Christ M. P. Church and in every sense was a high-toned christian gentleman. He was a son of Ezekiel and Elizabeth Fowler and all were born in Maryland. He leaves the following children: Mrs. Frank H. Howard, Mrs. H. P. Davis, of Cumberland; Misses Margaret and Lillie Fowler, Frank W. Fowler, of Baltimore; Commissioner Wm. L. Fowler and Dr. T. Howard Fowler.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 5.30 p. m. with interment in Chester cemetery. Rev. J. L. Ward will officiate; C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers will be W. A. Wheatley, Frank H. Howard, J. W. Russell, Jas. Estes, F. G. Usilton.

Washington Jarman died suddenly in Philadelphia on Wednesday, July 25th, of Brights disease. He leaves one brother, Thos. G. Jarman, of Crumpton, and was a brother of the late John W. Jarman, of Chesterville; also leaves a widow and four daughters. He was buried at Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia. He has been an employee of the Baldwin Works, Philadelphia, for 40 years. He was 60 years old. The great number of flowers were a remarkable sight at the funeral. Messrs. E. S. Jarman, a nephew, and A. W. Wilson, of Galena, attended the funeral on Saturday.

Rev. Dr. John L. Straughn, aged 69, one of the oldest ministers of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, died at his home in Roland Park. On Tuesday he suffered a heat stroke and was found dead in his bed early Wednesday morning. He had been an invalid for more than 10 years, and during that time had been on the retired list of the Methodist Protestant ministers. He was received into the Maryland Annual Conference in the spring of 1870, and was ordained two years later, had been a member of the conference for 48 years. During his active ministery he served some of the best churches within the conference district, both in Baltimore and other parts of the state, as well as Delaware and Virginia. His last charge was at Evergreen, Baltimore county.

Mrs. Sue Lambert Vansant died at St. Luke's Hospital, Philadelphia, early Thursday morning, aged 42 years. She has been sick for several weeks and decided to go to the hospital for an operation. The operation with complications was too much for her system and she died as above stated. Her niece, Miss Sue Miller, a trained nurse, was with her at the hospital. She is well known in Chestertown where she spent all her life until her marriage. She was a daughter of the late Justice W. H. Lambert, a sister of W. H. Lambert and Mrs. Wm. H. Brown, of Chestertown. She leaves a husband and two interesting children. For several years the family have made their home in Philadelphia. The funeral will take place today at 1.30 p. m. from the home of her brother, W. H. Lambert. Interment in Chester Cemetery. Rev. Mr. Beauchamp will officiate; C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers will be W. B. Usilton, M. W. Thomas, A. L. Sparks, Merrick Clements, H. L. Dodd, M. E. Baker.

CHANGE IN EXEMPTION BOARD

Clerk of Court A. Parks Rasin has been displaced as a member of the Kent Exemption Board because he is within the draft age. Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., has been appointed to the vacancy. Mr. Rasin has made an excellent record as a member of the Board and the other members, Dr. F. B. Hines and Sheriff Hadaway regret that the Federal Government found it necessary to displace him.

The examination of the first draft began yesterday.

The official draft list made very few changes in our list published last week. The changes in the first 208 who will be examined are as follows: James W. Joiner, Rock Hall, is in the 94th place instead of W. A. Clayton, Golt; H. L. Ruebsam, Chestertown, is out of the first list; W. S. M. Dawson, Chestertown, is in the 130 place; Joseph C. Gibbs, Massey, and S. R. Powell, Millington, not in first list; H. A. Kratzer is 183rd in the list.

On Thursday 61 young men were examined and 12 were turned down on account of physical condition. The examining board—Dr. F. B. Hines, Sheriff Hadaway and Sidney P. Townshend—were assisted in the examination by Dr. C. W. Whaland and Dr. Frank W. Smith. The board expects to get through the physical examination of the 208 men today, when the District Board will take up the list.

The letters below explain Mr A. Parks Rasin's retirement from the board:

Mr. A. Parks Rasin, Clerk Circuit Court, Chestertown, Kent county, Md.

Dear Sir:—Under instructions from the Provost Marshal General it is necessary to cancel your appointment as a member of the Local Board for Kent county, for the reason that you are between the draft ages. A statement was made to the Provost Marshal General that you were exempt, but he deems it necessary that you should be removed.

This office wishes to thank you for the excellent work that you have done in connection with your board and it regrets exceedingly to lose your services.

Respectfully,
HENRY M. WARFIELD,
The Adjutant General.

Mr. J. Thomas Hadaway, Chairman of Local Board, Chestertown, Kent county, Md.

Dear Sir:—The question of eligibility of Mr. A. Parks Rasin, of your county, was put up to the office of the Provost Marshal General, with the statement of the facts in the case, and that this office considered that Mr. Rasin should be allowed to serve. The Provost Marshal General, however, has telegraphed this office that Mr. Rasin must be displaced and another person appointed in his stead.

The Governor has been requested to appoint another person, and as soon as he does so you will be notified.

This office regrets exceedingly to lose the services of Mr. Rasin, as the work of your board has been very satisfactory, and you state that Mr. Rasin is the man responsible for the work of your board.

Respectfully,
HENRY M. WARFIELD,
The Adjutant General.

CORN HIGHER THAN WHEAT

Wheat was quoted at $2.25 yesterday in the city. Corn was up to $2.30, and for the first time in history was quoted at a higher figure than wheat. The great trouble now is to move grain.

LAST Tuesday was the hottest day Kent has experienced for several years. The thermometer was hovering around 100°.
