KENT AND QUEEN ANNE'S FAIR

Rain Interferes With Tuesday And Wednesday's Program—Fine Races —Track Record Broken — Ladies Make Exhibits Of Canned Goods—Cattle Awards.

"All's well that ends well" may be truthfully said of the Kent and Queen Anne's Fair. It started on Tuesday with an attendance of over 700 but the rain prevented any of the races being finished that day, only a heat in each race being run. No fair was held Wednesday because of rain.

Thursday dawned clear and ideal and over 3,000 persons enjoyed the various features of the Fair. The Midway was filled with entertaining features and all were well patronized especially the carousal.

Mrs. Belle Smith and Miss Annie Copper had charge of the ladies' department of exhibits and will complete their awards today.

Porf. Burrell has given a list of the winners in the cattle show which was under his superintendency.

Sweepstakes

Best herd, any breed, one registered as bull. Holsteins won, 1st, S. G. Caldwell.
Best bull, any breed. Ayrshire, 1st, Foster Parker.

The local officers kept most excellent conduct and more than usual commendation was made of the racing. Weber's band furnished good music.

Miss Mabel L. Stephenson, District Agent of Home Economics for the Eastern Shore and Miss Hettie Newnam, County Demonstration Agent of Queen Anne's, gave demonstrations in canning, drying, yeast, breads, quick bread and cakes at the Fair.

The event of the day was a fast mile by Harry J. S., to beat the track record of 2.14¼. He made the mile in 2.10½. First quarter in 33½, half in 1.06, three-quarters in 1.37 and the last half in 32½. This fine gelding is owned by Harry Stoockel, of Wilmington and was driven by Herman Tyson. He holds the world's race record.

There were five races on Thursday. In the 2.30 trot there were 9 starters, the winners being Oros, b. g., M. Mitchell, Newark, Del.; second, Axye Todd, b. s., W. L. Bull, Va.; third, Luckstone, b. m.; fourth, Lomedra, b. m., J. R. Sparks, Philadelphia. Best time, 2.17¼. It required six heats to finish this race. The other races was as follows:

HAND OF DEATH

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Walls, a highly respected and aged resident of the upper part of the county died at the home of her son-in-law, Chas. Faulkner, near Blacks Station, last Tuesday after a long illness of general disibility and Brights disease, aged 78 years. Funeral services were held from her late home yesterday, Friday afternoon, at half past two o'clock. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen in charge. Interment was made in the M. E. Church yard at Galena.

Among the sad duties which fall to our lot is to chronicle the deaths of friends and neighbors. Such is the duty now before us. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Lambert, wife of James W. Lambert, died at her home on Mill street last Friday afternoon of progressive paralysis, aged 78. For three years Mrs. Lambert was confined to her room. She was a good woman, motherly and kind, and a devoted and faithful member of the M. P. Church. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Avis L. Bacchus, wife of Jefferson D. Bacchus, a grand-daughter, Miss Ethel Bacchus, a grandson, James Lambert Bacchus, now in hospital service with the U. S. Forces in France. William S. Carroll is a brother, and Mrs. Wm. B. Copper and Miss Palmer Carroll are neices. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. J. L. Ward interment in Chester Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Wm. Walter Chapman, James W. Chapman, Jr., Fred. G. Usilton, Wm. B. Usilton, Jefferson D. Bacchus, W. B. Copper, Wm. E. Loud and Dr. H. L. Dodd. Undertaker, Charles L. Dodd.

E. W. Elmore, a former resident of lower Kent, died July 27th at the State sanitorium at Cambridge, aged 65 years. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd brought the remains here Saturday night and interment was made at St. Paul's Sunday morning. The deceased leaves a widow, Mrs. Beulah Elmore and one infant child.

Mrs. Mary E. Ford, wife of Robert T. Ford, died at her home in Quaker Neck on Monday last, after a long illness of paralysis, aged 59 years. Besides her husband she is survived by three children: Mrs. Carrie Knight, of Kent; Mrs. Nannie Brown and Lester J. Ford, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held from her late home Wednesday morning, conducted by the Rev. A. H. Covey. The pall-bearers were William S. Scoone, Frank Shinn, Charles J. Reiche, George V. Hendrickson, Joseph Brice and J. Romie Byrom. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd.

Miss Wilhelmina Smith died Wednesday at the home of her cousin, Charles Smith, after a long semi-invalidism followed by paralysis. She was about 76 years old. Interment was made at Wesley Chapel Cemetery on Friday where Rev. A. F. T. Raum read a burial service.

Mrs. Elona Jones Parsons, wife of Joseph L. Parsons died at her home in Middletown, Del., last Friday morning of a complication of heart and kidney diseases, after having been a great sufferer for several months. Mrs. Parsons had been a lifelong resident of Middletown, and was a daughter of the late John A. and Elizabeth David Jones. She was in her sixty-first year and leaves her husband and mother, two brothers—Arthur P. Jones, of Wilmington and Charles E. Jones, of Philadelphia—and one sister, Mrs. Clifton Wood, of Philadelphia. The funeral took place from her late home on Sunday afternoon.

On Saturday morning, June 13, at 6.30 a. m., Mrs. Edith Clutterbeck, entered into rest, after a brief illness and operation, at Newark, N. J., The remains were brought to her birthplace, Crumpton, Md., by her uncle, William J. Sparks, who had charge of the funeral. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. James Patterson Kerr, pastor of the Saint Helena Presbyterian Church, Saint Helena, Md., where Mrs. Clutterbeck was a communicant member in good and regular standing. Burial was in the cemetery at Crumpton, Md., The funeral services were largely attended and very impressive. Her grave was dug by an old friend of her mother, John Hubbard, and was beautiful in design and workmanship. Mr. Hubbard certainly tried to make this much dreaded part as attractive as he possibly could. All seemed to be of the opinion that it was the best one he had ever dug.

Mrs. Clutterbeck was born near Crumpton, Md., and is the daughter of Robert Benton and Elva S. Chew and the granddaughter of L. S. Chew, one of the oldest residents of Crumpton, now living, and the late Annie E. Hendrix. She is survived by her husband, Edward Clutterbeck, and three children, Mildred Benton, Norman Robert and Helen Elva Clutterbeck; by her parents and three sisters, Mrs. Helen DoVell, Mrs. Beulah Faulhaver, Mrs. Elva Gill and Wright and Warner Benton.

Before she left her home in Saint Helena, Md., she united with the church. She lived a Christian life and died a Christian, fully prepared to meet and live with God.

George Beck died at his home in Broad Neck suddenly Thursday afternoon in his 72nd year. The deceased suffered a stroke of paralysis about 13 years ago but had been able to attend to business until the day of his death, when he was stricken with heart trouble and died about 4.30 p. m. The deceased was one of Kent's noblemen and esepcially in lower Kent was a useful and highly respected citizen. He was active in all those walks of life which were for the best interest of his neighbors, friends and for his county. Early in life he was a merchant but found his natural bent in farming. He was a vestryman at St. Paul's and loved his church as a parent loves his child. For 43 years he held the position as vestryman and 30 years was treasurer. He was kind faithful and intelligent. He married Miss Kate Rosa Harris, who survives with two children, S. Scott Beck, Esq., and Miss Violet Beck. The funeral will take place at St. Paul's Church Sunday afternoon at four o'clock with interment in cemetery adjoining. The bearers will be Wm. W. Beck, J. Page Gale, C. A. Jessop, T. Hynson Beck, Walter B. Strong, James Springer. Rev. Dr. Dickerson will officiate; C. L. Dodd undertaker.

DIED WHEN AT PRAYER

Mrs. Lavina Crouse, wife of the Rev. Dr. Thomas O. Crouse, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church of Denton, died suddenly in East Denton last Saturday night. She was about to retire when her daughter, Miss Lavina Crouse, heard her fall. Hastening to her mother's room, the daughter found her mother dying by a chair where she was accustomed to pray. Mrs. Crouse was a native of Chestertown, where her father, Alfred M. Russell, was a merchant. Mrs. Crouse spent about 18 years of her life in Baltimore. Other daughters are Mrs. Frank H. Wiatt, Mrs. Henry S. Wells and Miss Helen Crouse, of Baltimore. Alfred Harry Russell, a Baltimore business man, is her only brother. The funeral took place Tuesday with interment in Baltimore. The deceased was a lovely character and an ideal minister's helpmate.

WEDDING NOTES

At the home of Mr. W. H. Alderson, of Cecilton, his daughter, Miss Ruth W. Alderson, was married to Private John A. Manlove, of Camp Meade. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. T. Alderson, an uncle of the bride. The couple had planned to be married several weeks ago, but the groom was unable to get a furlough for the time set, and later he was placed in quarantine for three weeks on account of the measles.

Miss Grace P. York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. York, 1243 North Patterson Park avenue, and James L. Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Jenkins, 2115 West Baltimore St., were quietly married at the parsonage of the Presbyterian Church of Alexandria, Va., on July 17. After a short trip to Washington and Norfolk the couple returned to the city, as the bridegroom had to report at Camp Meade. Mrs. Jenkins will reside at the home of her parents while Mr. Jenkins is in the service. The bride will be remembered here as the crippled daughter of Chas. E. York, formerly of Chestertown.

TO ESTABLISH MOTOR PARCEL POST ROUTE

Messrs. Opdyke and Mullen, Inspectors from Philadelphia were in conference with Postmaster Bowers on Tuesday and Wednesday in reference to the establishment in the very near future of a Motor Parcel Post Route between Eastern Shore towns and northern cities. It is proposed to make the Chestertown Postoffice headquarters for the route in this county, and there will be what are known as "Feeders" running to Tolchester, Rock Hall and Betterton. All kinds of farm produce, as well as merchandise will be accepted, and orders will be filled in the large cities for the farmers and merchants here.

Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., has been made Chairman of the Council of Defense in Kent vice W. W. Beck, Esq., resigned.
