Truck Drivers In Traffic War

Say "Trap" Is Set For Them On Water Street

The NEWS last week noted the fining of a truck driver $5 and costs for driving from High street to Maple avenue via Water street. Since that time several other drivers have been arrested and fined and a traffic war has developed against the Mayor and City Council. Water street is not paved and the authorities claim heavy trucks injure the roadway.

Because of complaints made by residents of the street, regarding the damage done to the roadway constantly by heavily loaded trucks passing over the street, the Mayor and City Council a month ago passed an ordinance prohibiting trucks to enter the street except to load and unload, and placed a sign at the entrance to the thoroughfare. The Mayor and Council placed a special policeman on the street to see that the ordinance was properly enforced.

The policeman was placed at end of the street instead of at the entrance where he could prevent violation. It is this seeming "trap" set for truckers that is objected to.

Hit-Run Driver Smashes Team

Injures Two In Night Crash On Bridge Here

Just as Ches Thomas and his son, colored residents of Queen Anne's, reached the draw of the Chester River Bridge on their way home from Chestertown at ten-fifteen on Thursday night, an automobile came roaring up behind them, struck their wagon a terrific blow, tossed the two men out and went flying on without stopping.

Residents along the waterfront in Chestertown were aroused by the crash, and many of them went out on the bridge, where Edward Noll, night bridge tender, had rushed out of the tender's house and to the colored men's assistance.

A car coming toward Chestertown picked up the younger of the two men and took him in to the office of Dr. Frank Hines for medical attention. The older, Ches, suffered from the shock and bruises but was able to remain at the scene of the accident and aid Mr. Noll in getting the scattered remains of his wagon out of the way of traffic and help the horse to its feet.

The accident occurred just as the team reached the center of the draw, and there was plenty of light from the bridge lamp-posts, in addition to the red lantern which Thomas had on his wagon and which was still burning after the crash happened.

The crash occurred so quickly and the car sped away so rapidly that no identification of the hit run driver was obtainable. While cut and bruised badly, neither of the men are in a serious condition.

Three Candidates Drop From The Independent Ticket

Just before the time expired for the withdrawal of candidates who had filed certificates of nomination with the Board of Supervisors of Elections, Ronald Ashley, candidate for county commissioner on Independent ticket, LeRoy Jacquette, of the Edesville precinct of the Fifth district, and J. Merritt Thompson, of the Rock Hall precinct of the same district, also on the Independent Democratic State Central Committee, withdrew their names as candidates. Their places cannot be filled on the ticket which will be presented to the voters of the county at the primary election to be held on September 12th. Two candidates for sheriff, Frank Ford, of Chestertown, and George Whaland, of Rock Rall, who had announced their candidacies some weeks ago, failed to file their certificates of nomination, leaving the field to seven aspirants for this important office.

Geo. E. Powell withdrew as a candidate on Republican ticket for county commissioner and Harry H. Legg, was substituted.

A Maryland welcome from 20,000 persons was given Gov. Ritchie in Baltimore Thursday when he returned from a seven-week vacation spent in France.

Stops To Fix Tire, Hit By Large Truck

William Hague, 36, of Cecilton, was brought to Union Hospital Sunday night suffering from a possible fracture of the skull and other injuries received when he was struck while repairing a flat tire nine miles from Cecilton on the Chestertown road. While Hague's injuries are not considered extremely serious, it is thought he will have to remain under treatment at the local hospital for at least a week and possibly longer.

The driver of the freighter, a large refrigerator truck, stopped as soon as he found out he struck Hague and called for assistance. The injured man was made as comfortable as possible until the arrival of McKenney's ambulance which which carried him to Elkton Hospital. No charges have been entered against the driver of the truck.

J. C. Tharpe, the man with covered wagon, says he never dealt with more honest ladies than he finds in Chestertown. Mr. Tharpe sells produce.

Harmony And Economy Watchwords Of Regulars

Harmony Ticket Received With Enthusiasm-Watermen, Aroused To Their Interests Give Praise To Work Of Delegate Brice. Leonard Wilson's Record Warrants Real Support

Independents Lose Three Men By Withdrawals--All Of Them From The Fifth District

The Primaries take place Wednesday, September 12th, so that only about ten days more of campaigning is possible. The outlook at this time is rosey for the nomination of every man and woman on the Democratic Harmony and Economy Ticket. Each day brings encouraging news of voters awaking to the real situation in the county.

There was no reason for an independent ticket. Democrats interested in the economic management of the affairs of the county and in the success of the Party, after consulting various men in different sections of the county and at a largely attended meeting presented a Democratic Harmony Ticket. This ticket consists of Organization and Anti-Organization men. Of course it does not please every voter. No ticket could be made that would do this. However, the men on this Harmony Ticket are of high character and willing to give unselfishly and whole heartedly of their time and talents to promote the welfare and best interests of their fellow citizens.

The ticket is headed with that sterling Democrat and friend of the watermen, as well as the farmers, ARTHUR H. BRICE.

One of Kent's best informed citizens and a man for whom the people of the county can take a just pride in casting their vote. He is well-equipped in every respect to serve the people. He accepts the candidacy in the hope that he may do something for his county and his party. What a worthy aspiration! What a lofty motive! It is a great pleasure to support a man of Mr. Brice's high character and wide reputation for good citizenship. The farmers and business people have in him a man of intelligence and ability to grasp the measures which come before him. He also has had experience in the Legislature.

For Legislature, Roy Strong and Wilbur Ross Hubbard will sweep the county. They are ideal men for this office and should receive a unanimous nomination.

The candidate for Clerk of the Court, Leonard Wilson, of Millington, is widely known in Kent for his industrious work for the taxpayers. As President of the County Commissioners he has helped to lower the tax rate to 84 cents and to stand as a bulwark of strength against large expenditures. He is always on the firing line for his Party, in season and out., and his District never fails under his leadership to roll up a fine vote for the nominee of the Democratic Party. Be sure and vote for Mr. Wilson and show your appreciation of his splendid administration of the county's business.

The other candidates on the Democratic Harmony Ticket also are to be recommended for their fitness for the offices to which they aspire. There is that representative of the younger voters, Walter T. Morris, Jr., for Treasurer. He is a college graduate, farmer 23 years old, and will give to the office courtesy and intelligence.

Ringgold Jones, candidate for Register of Wills, is well-known in Kent for his unselfish service to his friends and Party. "Ring" will make a great run and an ideal candidate.

For County Commissioners the Democrats present Samuel C. Loller, Ellsworth C. Leary and Andrew W. Wilson, all men of business ability and well-equipped for for the duties of that office. The county is fortunate in having such excellent men willing to serve in this position. Give them a rousing majority.

For Judges of the Orphans Court Messrs. Scott, Rasin and Stavely measure up to those of the other offices. Give them your support.

Finally, there are the members of the State Central Committee and delegates to the State Convention as follows: Mrs. Jennie B. Whaland, Mrs. Pricie M. Watson, Wm. H. Cooper, Mrs. Mary S. Massey, James W. Crouch, Elmer S. Jarman.

For Delegates to State Convention: Wm. E. Greenwood, Pomona; Charles L. Dodd, Chestertown; Jas. H. Groves, Kennedyville; E. Scott Thompson, Chestertown; W. G. F. Cranor, Quaker Neck; Tilden G. Wilson, Chestertown R. R.

Take a slip in the booth with you with the names of these candidates and mark in the box opposite each name and thus prove your faith and confidence in the leaders of your party who have only the tax-payers interest at heart.

Wheat Contracts To Be Modified

County Agent McVean has just received notice from the AAA that farmers holding wheat reduction contracts are hereby authorized to seed 90 per cent of their three-year average (1930, 31, 32) acreage instead of the 85 per cent as the contract originally specified. In other words, each farm may seed 5 per cent more acres in wheat than was permissible for the 1934 crop.

The AAA estimates that under average weather conditions and allowing for the normal abandonment of wheat acreage, plenty of wheat to care for domestic consumption with a supply of 275,000,000 bushels available in 1935 and 1936 for export and carryover.

The AAA reports that over 51½ million acres out of 66 million acres normally in wheat are covered by wheat contracts. The 5 per cent increased seeding this fall means that over 2½ million additional acres may be seeded to help make up for the effects of the 1934 drought Kent's increase will be above 3000 acres.

Amateur Golf Match At Club This Weekend

The Eastern Shore Amateur Golf Championship is being played today, tomorrow and Monday at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club here, with sixteen participants vieing for the title following the qualifying rounds yesterday.

Today the various contestants will be paired for eighteen-hole play-offs which will cut the field down to eight players, and on Sunday a further elimination will pare the group down to two for the finals on Monday.

Amateur golfers from all the clubs of the Eastern Shore Golf Association are competing in the tourney. Among this group are such notables as John Charles Thomas, world-famous opera singer who is registered as a member of the Talbot Country Club. Thomas arrived in Chestertown Thursday on his palacial yacht, accompanied by several notable friends of the world of the stage and the radio. During yesterday, prior to the start of the tournament, he visited friends in Chestertown; recalling old memories when he held one of the first concerts of his career in the M. E. Church here.

Inspect Bars On Chester River

Representatives of the Watermen's Protective Association examined the Buoy Rock in Chester River this week. They report the oysters have recovered from the poor condition in which they were at the time it was closed, and when it is re-opened it will be learned that this rest period to them has been for the benefit of the oyster industry.

The Department reminds the tongers of this county that when this bar was closed against tonging in January of this year, the time provided for the closing of 324 acres was from January 22, 1934, to October 15, 1934, both dates inclusive. Therefore, this Rock will not be legally opened until Tuesday, October 16.

Dealers Pay 30 and 35c For Tomatoes

Packers are scouring the county in search of tomatoes. One farmer said this week that he was offered 20 cents a basket for his entire yield. It was refused.

When the crops failed in the middle west and there was nothing to gather the canned goods brokers were rushed with orders. Soon the new pack was rolling westward, orders coming in fast and for immediate delivery. Mr. Baldwin, however, says the brokers are offering very low prices.

The Chestertown market has been good all week the price varying from 25 to 30 cents. Kibler and Sons have bought more than 20,000 baskets this week; Capt. Cooper about 15,000 and Campbell about 5,000.

Next week promise to be a big one for the tomato grower.

A log had been lifted and when it was being swung over to the car, shifted and crushed Mr. Reed against the car, inflicting injuries to his chest and neck from which he died at the hospital. He is survived by his wife and several children.
