ALUMNI ATHLETES AND FRIENDS WILL HOLD BANQUET AT VOSHELL HOUSE TO-NIGHT, AFTER GAME

Arrangements have been completed for the holding of a dinner for alumni of Washington College this evening at the Voshell House, following the football game between Washington College and Susquehanna University.

This gathering is open to all alumni of Washington College, and it is expected that a goodly number will gather at the hotel to celebrate (?), greet old friends, but not to listen to long-winded speeches. The affair will be strictly a get-together, with little if any oratory.

The dinner is scheduled to take place at six o'clock this evening. No advance tickets are being sold. A crowd of alumni from other parts of the country have already signified their intention of attending, and it is hoped that many townspeople in this group will be present.

Crowds Attend Hallowe'en Fete

Cross St. Fete Draws Crowd As Contests Provide Fun

It was a big night in Chestertown —Hallowe'en. The Cross Street Association under Messrs. Fox and Gill Bros.' leadership put on a big show. It was a perfect evening and thousands visited the town and enjoyed the fun.

A special platform for Polk Howard's Polka Dot 7-piece orchestra was erected and the whole of Cross street roped off for dancing. Meal was put on to make the "floor" smooth and the witches and spooks reigned supreme.

Taylor Frank, Jr., won the pie-eating contest.

Etta May Leonard and Skippy Everett won the ice cream eating contest.

Mildred Thrift won the prize for best dressed costume and Mrs. J. Heighe Hill and Howard Pennington for most comical costume.

"Hot dogs" were served hot off stove with mustard and rolls.

Those sponsoring the party were: Fox's 5c to $1 Store, Gill Bros., Shore Radio, Coco's Shoe Repair Shop, Hadaway Bros., H. D. Orem & Son, Herb's Restaurant, The Tire Shop, Brooks' Mill, The Enterprise, LeCates Bros., Dr. W. H. Moyer, Russell Motors Corp., W.Belt Townshend, Republican Candidates, Eliason Motors, Inc., Joseph W. Lewis, Smiths' Kut Rate Drug Store, Bartley and Son, C. W. Kibler and Sons, J. S. Kreeger, First National Bank, Adkins Lumber Company, Chester-Bill's Service Station and Democratic Candidates.

End Investigation Of Scott Beck

Treasury Officials Intimate Of No Violations

Interviewed yesterday in regard to the rumor that he, along with Gilbert Dailey, Collector of the Port of Baltimore, had been reported to Treasury Department officials for political activity prior to the primary election in September, S. Scott Beck, Comptroller of that Port, admitted that the report was true. But Mr. Beck added that an investigation had already taken place, that he had conferred with officers of the Treasury Department, and that he had been given to understand by these same officers that his alleged political activity was not a violation of the Treasury Department regulations.

The activity which was reported and investigated took place prior to the local primary, and the investigation was made fully a month ago, stated Mr. Beck. These reports which appeared in the Baltimore papers this week were merely a belated accounting of a month-old news item which had been relegated to the "Finished Business" pigeon hole.

Norris Kellam, familiarity known as "Corky" Kellam, paid his annual visit to Chestertown last week, and gave an exhibition of expert swimming. Kellam, who is the world's champion swimmer for both long distance and endurance, weighs more than 300 pounds. He swam the distance of a quarter of a mile across Chester River and gave an exhibition of fancy diving which enthused a large gallery.

Read And Act ! !

Democrats, Independents And All Other Voters In The County Who Have The Welfare Of Their County At Heart, Listen.

Before you vote next Tuesday give careful consideration to the following facts and figures: Analyze the registered vote of the county, weigh carefully the effect of the election held in this State and in the County for generations past and fully appreciate the resposibility resting on your shoulders in the selection of your county officials and your Representatives in the Legislature. Can you afford to do other than vote the full Democratic ticket chosen in the county by some 2,000 voters:

Total Registered Vote In Kent County	7570
Total Registered Democratic Vote	4923
Total Registered Republican Vote	2533
Total Registered Independent Vote	114
Total Registered Vote	7570

The 4923 Democratic vote represents 4923 white voters.

The 2533 Republican vote is made up of 541 white voters and 1992 colored voters.

Total Democratic Vote (all white	4923
Total Republican Vote (white)	541
Total Majority White Voters In Democratic Party	4382

Can you afford to place Kent County in the hands of 541 white voters, who vote and act almost as a unit?.

The Voter today is more critical than ever before in our history, is well informed, has an influence for good methods and measures and the 4923 Democratic Voters in this county are the progressive, wide-awake responsible citizenship necessary to insure and demand of its public officials a good, clean, business-like administration. This analysis casts no reflection on the citizenship of the 541 White Republicans, many of whom are our best citizens, but emphasizes the fact that no success in public affairs is possible or permanent except by the backing of a large majority of the White citizenship.

..Make your X in the Square Opposite the Word Democratic. There are 22 candidates.

Susquehanna's Hopes For Victory

SULLIVAN

On either side you will see a stalwart husky who will lend much assistance to Susquehanna University's resolve to end Washington College's winning streak up on Kibler Field this afternoon. To the left is the Pennsylvanians' bulwark of the line, Sullivan. This big boy is a senior and plays guard on the offense, tackle on defense.

On the right is Hanna, probably the outstanding performer of an exceptional Susquehanna football team. Hanna is also a senior, as are many of the visitors' first-string players, and he is fullback. For two years he has been rated the best that school has produced, and is again outstanding this year when Susquehanna has a greatly improved team. They have beaten Haverford, played Ursinus to a close game, and are primed for today's contest.

Death Claims Three Kent Countains

Funeral services for Mrs. Daniel Potts, age 52, of Church Hill, who died Friday at her home in Church Hill, were held Monday afternoon at her home. The deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Rouse Story. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Miss Katherine Potts and Miss Virginia Potts, both trained nurses and one son, Albert Potts, of the United States Marines. Interment was in Crumpton Cemetery.

Frank Nicholas Hardesty, for fifty eight years a resident of Queen Anne's, died at the home of his son, J. Noble Hardesty, in Sudlersville, last Saturday evening, aged 79. He had been ill five weeks. Among his children is a daughter, Mrs. J. Cardoll Connolly, of near Chestertown, and six sons.

The death of John Higgins, a lifelong resident of Skinner's Neck, occurred last Friday. His wife, who died quite young was a daughter of the late Capt. William R. Coleman. They are survived by a son and a daughter in Baltimore. Funeral services were conducted in Raum Chapel by the Rev. Walter Donoway on Sunday. Interment was made in Wesley cemetery.

Advise Study Of Milk Plan

Farmers Urged To Improve Own Facilities

Kent county dairymen are advised by H. D. Allebach, sales manager of the Interstate Milk Producers' Association, to make improvements demanded by the New Jersey inspectors, as well as by the inspector of Dairies, now making a tour of the farms here.

Mr. Allebach described the Philadelphia milk market as in excellent shape and urged dairymen to avoid over-production and to cease buying butter substitutes. Today, he said, the supply of butter is low and the difference in price between New York and Chicago butter is but a fraction of a cent. A recent inspection of butter and cream condemned thousands of tons of butter as unclean.

Five Fine Rallies Are Held In Kent County

Galena and Still Pond towns have been treated to Democratic rallies this week. Willis R. Jones, Esq., of Baltimore, spoke at both and a fine turnout was noted. State's Attorney Collins spoke at Galena and Wm. Medders, Jr., at Still Pond, in addition to others.

Another meeting was held Thursday night at Kennedyville, in Sutton's Garage. Hon. deWeese Carter, prominent young lawyer of Denton, was the principal speaker and the Chestertown's Firemen's Band furnished music. A crowd of some three hundred persons attended.

The Knights of Pythia's Hall at Rock Hall was crowded Saturday night with Democrats to hear the issues of the campaign. T. Alan Goldsborough made a strong appeal to the watermen to stand by their best friends. H. W. Vickers and Wilbur Ross Hubbard and others spoke on the interest of the Democratic ticket.

An oyster roast was enjoyed at Quaker Neck and a good speech made by Mr. Williams, of St. Mary's

Hallowe'en Parties Held At Betterton

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fellows, the recent bride and groom, have our best wishes for a long and happy wedded life. The bride is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Price.

Mrs. John Leigh, brother of Mrs. Mattie Boone, and a former resident here died suddenly last Monday in Philadelphia, where he held a responsible position with the Merchant and Miners Company.

Mr. Paul Crew, of Phoenixville, Pa., spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Crew.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis and daughter, have moved into the Covey house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. William Sykes.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jewell and children, have moved into the Bramble house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Crew, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crew.

Miss Martha Turner is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary Moore attended the Diocesan Convention of the Woman's Auxiliary at Easton on Thursday.

Mr. Richard Moore, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Bramble and Capt. Tom Moore.

Little Betty Ann and Marie Turner spent the week end with their parents, Rev. George Turner and wife at Elk Neck.

Mrs. Harvey Moore has been spending sometime in Baltimore. Her brother, Mr. Hough Gooding is very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Lotan Rasin are making extensive improvements to their home by adding new windows, a bath room, new weather boarding and roof.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton C. Moore are improving their home with fresh paint.

Last Thursday evening a stag supper was held at the M. E. Church, about fifty being present. It is the plan of the pastor, Rev. Moore to hold these suppers each month.

A very enjoyable Hallowe'en social was held in the church basement on Tuesday evening. Many ghosts, witches and goblins were out to take part in the fun.

Members of the P. E. Church will hold a Hallowe'en party on Friday night at the church.

The funeral of Mrs. Helen Taylor Hurlock on Saturday from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Taylor near here, was one of the largest ever held in this locality. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful. The deceased leaves many friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

It requires 22 marks to vote a full Democratic Ticket.

Mark an X in box after the word Democratic.

Falls 30 Feet To Stone Road

Falls From Tree When Limb Breaks, Suffers No Fractures

Norman Patrick while at work for the Chestertown Electric Light Co. on Monday fell and injured himself. He was trimming a tree on Washington avenue when a limb, on which he was standing, broke and threw him thirty feet to the concrete road. He was carried to the office of Dr. Frank B. Hines and afterwards to his home at Worton Station. The doctor found no broken bones and it will require sometime to learn whether there were internal injuries. Mr. Patrick is a careful workman and popular with everyone. His fall was a pure accident.

JARMAN POST TO INSTALL

Frank Jarman Post, American Legion, will assemble at its headquarters here Wednesday evening, Nov. 8, for the installation of its newly elected president, Raymond R. Wilkins, and other officers. Eastern Shore contestants are: Mrs. Vernon Hughes, Salisbury; Mrs. W. W. Rambo, Sudlersville; Mrs. Evelyn Harris, Betterton; Mrs. Raymond Mueller, Cordova; Miss Marguerite Hubbard, Hurlock, and Mrs. Tatiana Sonderegger, Marydel.

News--In--Brief

Next Tuesday, November 6th, will be Election Day, polls open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Every person who is registered should attend the polls and cast a ballot for the candidates of one's choice. It is a privilege, and should be considered a duty.

The Pure Oil Co. has bought a lot from the Smith heirs near the College on which they will build a station. Another station will likely be established across the river opposite the Hotel.

So far as we have been able to understand, Mr. Nice's campaign is simply Anti-Ritchie. Everything that the Governor has done has been wrong. But no remedies have been offered, except $2.00 automobile license tags—a proposition now impractical when depleted revenues are considered.

And yet Maryland's standing is of the highest. Let's keep it so by voting to continue Democratic management.

Annie Bell is negotiating with Messrs Sparks and Perkins for the sale of her property on Maple ave., adjoining the Jones oil station owned by these two gentlemen.

Mrs. Frederick Albee, chairman of a committee recently appointed by the president of the Washington Alumni Association to collect material concerning the early history of the college, has obtained through the Curator of Rare Books of the Congressional Library in Washington, a photostatic copy of the original charter of the college which was granted by the Maryland legislature in 1782, the date of the founding of the ancient Shore institution. The charter has been placed among the valuable archives now in the college library.

Charles Beatty, of Baltimore, was fined $25 and costs by Police Justice Charles R. Kerr, of Rock Hall, on a hit and run charge. A car driven by Beatty struck Andrew Toulson, a farmer of near Rock Hall while he was walking towards Rock Hall, seriously injuring him. Beatty also paid Mr. Toulson $100 to cover medical expenses.

Bill Hepburn is in bed nursing injuries received in an automobile collision Wednesday night with a car occupied by Messrs. Newsome and Solloway. The accident occurred on the hill in town opposite the M. E. Parsonage. Both cars were badly damaged.

Kindly remember, friends, when folks try to belittle the New Deal, just what necessitated such policies, and what party was in power when the country went on the rocks, the pilot asleep at the helm drowsily muttering "Prosperity is just around the corner."
