Memorial from Maryland Negroes.

Mr. Sumner presented a memorial from colare put under the feet of cattle; and that although-almost living under the shadow of the Capitol, they are still treated in accordance with the late decision of Chief Justice Taney. Mr. S. said this whole subject was now being considered by the Judiciary, which would doubtless report a remedy.

A more glaring combination of falsehoods never appeared in print than those contained in the above extract. There is not a State in the Union where the colored people are better cared for, better paid for their labor, and more fully profurther progress; victories won were with suggests the existence of supposed ineed.
