FARMERS' AND MERCHANTS' LINE

THE SCHOONERS

Oxford and Tred Haven.

The above vessels are now running between Easton and Baltimore, and will do all kinds of freighting as cheap, if not cheaper, than can be done by any other line. Every effort will be made to give satisfaction. All freight must be paid on delivery of the goods.—Feeling thankful for past favors, we hope, by strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of the same.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

For the relief and cure of all disorders in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to the healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus health, disease is changed into health, the value of which cannot then be estimated by the vast multitude who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their super coating makes them pleasant to take, and perfectly safe. Virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor, and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back, and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and removing effect on the digestive apparatus.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, fallen hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning grey or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

J. CONWAY'S

ANTI-AGUE PILLS,

AN UNFAILING REMEDY FOR CHILLS AND FEVERS.

PRICE, 40 CENTS.

Testimonials:

LAKESVILLE, Dorcester co, Md, Aug 14th, 1871.

I have used J Conway's Anti-Ague Pills with different members of my family, have sold them to customers, and have never known them to fail in effecting a permanent cure, even when other remedies had failed. Believing them to be, in every sense, the best remedy for Chills and Fevers now before the public, I purchase them to the exclusion of all others. S T PHILLIPS.

NANTICOKE, Wicomico co, Md, Aug 16th, 1871.

Mr J Conway—Dear Sir: Having used and sold your Ague and Fever Pills for a number of years, we cheerfully testify that they have given general satisfaction, and are free to say that they are decidedly the simplest and best medicine for Chills and Fever that we have ever known.

JOHN TURNER & SON.

Insure Your Life IN ST. LOUIS MUTUAL, of St Louis, Mo.

The Leading Life Co. of the West.

ASSETS over $6,000,000.
ANNUAL INCOME over 2,000,000.

In fourteen years of successful experience, the Company has paid $2,907,966.97 of Death Losses, and over $1,222,048.71 of Dividends to Policy Holders.

This staunch and reliable old Company makes no experiments, its motto being—Safety, Mutuality and Equity.

Policies are all non-forfeiting, including Whole Life policies.

All Policies participate in the profits of the Company. No extra charge on Railroad or Steamboat men.

Unrestricted residence or travel throughout the United States, Canada and Europe.

No surrender of Policy required to avoid forfeiture. Policies issued to the amount of $20,000 on a single life.

Reasons for Insuring in this Company—

Its managers, men of known integrity and character, have already placed it above suspicion or experiment.

Its risks are well scrutinized by experienced Medical Examiners, and carefully selected.

Its accumulations are ample for every contingency.

Its investments are of undoubted security. The most careful attention is bestowed upon the safe and profitable investment of the funds of the Company. The Directors, regarding unquestionable safety as the first and indispensable requisite in such transactions, always keep this in view.

Hon. Elizar Wright, of Mass., says: "The higher rates of interest in the West give your Company a decided advantage, and the day is not far distant when, if you seek those fields, the St. Louis Mutual Life will draw more money from the East than Eastern Companies now draw from the West." "The indemnity will be as certain, and, on the average, sure to cost less than in companies which cannot invest so profitably."

For the Easton Star.

Tune—"THE WEARING OF THE GREEN."

To Freedom's sons of Liberty!
Who swell the mighty throng
Come rally 'round the standard, thro'
The burden of a song;
To oppose unjust dominion,
The contest has begun—
To place a man of Wisdom in
The chair of Washington!

We have weighed the vain pretender,
For greed and wealth inclined;
Surrounded by his satellites,
Of corresponding mind—
Who will rule with Lordly power,
Ere another term has run,
Unless a Statesman occupy
The chair of Washington!

Then fling your banner to the breeze
Of country, and of town,
And ring all that the Latest Name
Of Gabblers and of Brown;
With patriotic candor, the
Victory must be won!
And Freedom once more occupy
The place of WASHINGTON!!

SARE SOUR.

Song of the Office-Holder.

The following scrap of doggerel, says Leslie's Illustrated, is a significant string of rhymes, telling its story in the blunt American fashion, so peculiar to our humorous, odd, strong Western people. It is called "The Song of the Office-Holder." In explanation of his muse, the author writes, by way of preface, as follows:—"Mr. Editor, this is intended more for truth than poetry. But yet I'm no mean scholar, to prove which I tell you that I got the style of my verses from Shakspeare's Fool Touchstone, in 'As You Like It.' More; being only a Cellar Dog, I must perforce write doggerel. Likewise, being a very little Grant organ, I am perforce ground out. Also, sir, as a small Grant machine, my music must be machine music. So let her rip! Please Mr. Editor, do let her rip! My place depends on letting her rip! The author's motto is, "Who grinds our axes? Grant and the Taxes!"

"Till breath is scant,
I'll pant for Grant!
For Grant I'll pant!
Don't say I shan't!
I do not rant—
'Tis Grant I want,
And stop I can't!
Oh, Grant! Grant! Grant!
Grant! Grant! Grant!
For Grant I went,
And now for Dent,
Also for Lest,
To keep his seat,
Likewise the Ring
I also sing!
Ding, ding!

"O lud! I 'oughter'
Mention Porter!
And Murphy, too,
The sound and true!
And Mr. Jones!
Rise not thy bones,
O Raymond dead!
When 'Jones' is said.
Ring the chimes
For Jones' Times.
Whistle! 'Holler'
To the dogs o' the collar!
Sing the song,
Ding! dong! dong!

"And Daddy Grant,
And Cousin Grant,
And Brother Grant,
And Aunty Grant,
Bob-in Law Grant,
Grand-daddy Grant,
I'm out of rhymes,
But ring the chimes—
Now, fellows 'Holler!'
In chorus follow,
Eternally cure,
Be all the Grant powers!
And then I sing:
And so my song
Goes ding, dong ding!"

SWALLOWING A MAN.

John Thomas was a man of keen wit, and strongly tinctured with a love of the humorous. He had been down to Concord, and had seen the Fakir of Ava perform his wonderful tricks of legerdemain. He was relating his experience in the barroom of the Conway House, and among other things he declared that he had gained an insight into many of the most wonderful tricks, and that he could perform himself.

"For instance," said he, "I can swallow a man whole."

"Bah!" cried Tom Staples, a red-faced woodsman, weighing at least two hundred, "p'r'aps you can swallow me?"

"Yes."

"I'd like to see you do it."

"I can do it."

"I'll bet you fifty dollars you can't."

"I'll take that bet."

"Then let's see you begin."

"Not now. I have just eaten supper. I will do it to-morrow morning in the presence of as many witnesses as you choose, and it shall be done in the square in front of the hotel."

This was agreed to, and the money was put up. By the following morning the news that John Thomas was to swallow Tom Staples whole had become wide spread, and a vast concourse, embracing men, women and children, had assembled to witness the wonderful feat.

At the appointed time the chief actors appeared in the square. John Thomas was smilingly confident, as though sure of success; while Tom Staples looked a little timid and uneasy, as though not quite at rest concerning what was to become of him.

"Are you ready?" asked John.

"All ready," answered Tom. "Begin as soon as you please."

"Will you have the goodness to take off your hat?"

"Certin."

"Now your boots."

Tom removed his boots.

"Next, you will remove your coat. These big brass buttons might stick in my throat."

Tom took off his coat, and as he threw it upon the ground one of the cooks came out from the hotel with a pan of melted lard and a big white-wash brush, which was also deposited by the side of John Thomas.

"Now," pursued John, "you will take off your stockings, and then remove your gentlemen and shirt."

"Eh? D'ye mean for me to strip stark naked?" queried Tom aghast.

"Of course I do. The agreement was that I was to swallow you. You are meat, but your clothes ain't, nor were they in the bond. If you will strip I will give you a thorough greasing, and double the bet, if you wish. I know I can swallow you—or, at all events I can try!"

Tom gave up beat, and invited his friends into the hotel.

"BIG FOOT WALLACE."

Some Account of a Noted Texan Ranger.

This famous Texan fighter, hunter and ranger, known throughout the length and breadth of the Southern country, arrived at Rockbridge, Va., last Thursday morning, on a visit to his friends. Since he left there, in 1836, he has ranged every nook and corner of the Lone Star State, from the Sabine to the Rio Grande, and from the Gulf over 27 Degrees Secondes—through New Mexico, Arizona, California—through the Mexican States of Sonora, Chihuahua, Coahuila—been among Comanches, Lipans and "greasers"—slept under the walls of Monterey while "Old Zach's" cannon thundered—with his trusty rifle he has brought down scores of buffaloes, lions, panthers and wolves—has ridden a mustang a hundred miles a day for a week, and made many a hearty meal of mule steak. Although he has been through many hardships and perils
