----THE OYSTER SEASON .- As the season for taking and catching oysters approaches, licenses are being freely taken out for this purpose. The time limited by law commences on the fifteenth of September and ends on the fifteenth of May in each year. Every person applying for a license to take oysters with a scoop, drag or dredge, must have been, for twelve months they have resided as aforesaid, and there is no lien on their vessels held by nonresidents. The following are the rates named in the law: For any canoe or boat measuring in length twenty feet or less, the sum of four dollars; measuring from twenty to twenty-five feet, the sum of six dollars; measuring from twenty-five to thirty feet, the sum of eight dollars, and all over thirty feet in length, including sloops under Custom House tonnage, the sum of ten dollars each. Vessels so licensed are not allowed to take oysters within one and a-half miles of Talley's Point, Sandy Point, Hackett's Point, Thomas' Point, the three Sisters, Hol-Point and Parker's Creek, on the western side of the Chesapeake Bay, and Swan Point on the eastern side of said Bay and Eastern Bay, inside of a line drawn from the southwest extremity of Kent Point to the northeast extremity of Poplar Island. The law also prohibits the taking or catching of oysters after sunset and on Sundays. The State has an organized Oyster Police force, with a steamer fitted up and equipped, to look after all violations of the law, and bring the offenders before the proper tribunals to be punished. As the law underwent considerable change at the last session of the General Assembly, it would be well for those interested to make themselves acquainted therewith before taking out their licenses.

JUDGE BOND. - At a Republican meeting in Baltimore on Monday night last, a letter was read from Judge Bond, stating that he must hereafter be considered as that this board will pay to G. B. The rent for the school house at Oak Grove at not more than 550,000 drilled men at her communication was very unfavorably re- the rate of $75 per annum, from the time ceived, and remarks were openly indulged in not very complimentary to the absent gentleman. It was freely stated that Judge Bond, having secured a comfortable berth at the hands of the Radical party, would now ungraciously refuse to take an active interest in its workings.

THE MISSION TO ENGLAND .- A Washington correspondent states that the President has determined to tender the English mission to Horace Greely, and that the members of the Cabinet will endorse the action of the President.

Ex-President Johnson .- It is stated by the Greenville Union that ex-President Johnson will not, under any consideration, be a candidate for Congress from
