WHAT IS DYSPEPSIA?

Ask the Merchant, Clergyman, Lawyer, Statesman, the wealth of Genius, and millions of others in the Union, who have suffered from this disease, you could not enjoy life. Dyspepsia is a disease prevalent in the United States, and induced by our habits and peculiarities. The Materia Medica has not hitherto contained a remedy, and the skill of the most learned Physicians has failed to effect a cure. Dyspepsin is the Great Celebrated and Extraordinary Remedy "MILLER'S DYSPEPSIN" is a Certain Cure for Dyspepsia and the Diseases of the Digestive Organs. It has been tested by the public a sufficient length of time to fully test its virtues, and is now recommended to the public as a Family Medicine of the first class. It has resulted in lifting entirely and effectually a vast number of persons who have been for years in the last stage of Dyspepsia, and for which there is no other remedy known to science. Dyspepsin is a fair and honest cure as yourself you will be convinced.

Public General Laws

PASSED BY THE

General Assembly of Maryland

AT JANUARY SESSION, 1874.

[POSTPONED SESSIONS.]

[CHAPTER 238.]

TO ESTABLISH MARYLAND HOUSE OF CORRECTION.

AN ACT

To establish the Maryland House of Correction.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That there shall be established at some accessible point near the city of Baltimore, or at such point as the Board of Public Works and Attorney General may select, an institution, to be called "The Maryland House of Correction," which shall be under the control of the board of managers hereinafter provided for.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said board of managers, of whom the Governor, Comptroller, Attorney General, and Treasurer of the State, for the time being, shall always be ex-officio members, shall consist of six other persons; viz: James I. Harley, John W. Davis, Goldsborough S. Gibson, and A. H. Gibson, who shall serve for the term of six years from the first day of May next; J. Morrison Harris, Daniel M. Henry, Joseph Merriken and Henry Mosheuer, who shall serve for the term of four years from the first day of May next; and R. G. Mitchell, Cornelius Slack, A. H. Gibson and Dutch Pratt, who shall serve for the term of two years from the said first day of May next; and they shall be a body corporate under the title of "The Board of Managers of the Maryland House of Correction," and have power to make such by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as they may deem necessary and proper for the public welfare and the best interests of the institution and its inmates, and shall also have power to appoint the necessary officers and agents, who shall be removable at their pleasure, and shall make an annual report of their proceedings to the Governor of the State, who shall submit the same, with such recommendations as he may deem proper, to the General Assembly at its next session thereafter.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That upon the expiration of each of the terms of office of the board of managers hereinbefore provided for, the Governor shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint four persons, residents of this State, for the term of six years from the first day of May next ensuing their appointment, and until their successors are qualified; and shall appoint from time to time during the continuance of said institution as said terms expire, four persons, residents as aforesaid, for a full term of six years, so that the board of managers shall be divided into three classes, one-third of whom shall go out of office at the end of every two years, and shall also have power, in the case of any vacancy occurring by reason of said absence, from death, resignation, or removal, from the State, to appoint a person or persons to fill such vacancy or vacancies for the balance of the term of said office.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That all monies hereinafter provided for in this act, for or in this act, for the purchase of land and the erection and construction of necessary buildings, shall be paid by the Treasurer of the State, on the warrant of the Comptroller, to the Board of Public Works, and Attorney General of the State, who are hereby authorized and empowered to purchase suitable grounds, and to contract for the construction and erection of the necessary buildings for the said institution, and who shall, before any contract is entered into by them for the said construction and erection, have proper plans and specifications of said buildings prepared, and invite proposals for said work; Provided, however, No contract shall be entered into by them, unless the whole cost of the purchase of the land, construction of the buildings, and other necessary expenses, shall not exceed the amount hereinafter appropriated; and provided further, That no contract shall be entered into except with a responsible party, who shall be required to give such bond as they may require, in the penalty of one hundred thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of purchasing the necessary land, and creating, completing and furnishing the buildings or buildings for the said House of Correction, a fund is hereby created, to be called "The House of Correction Stock Loan," and that the Treasurer of the State is hereby authorized and directed to issue certificates of debt or bonds of the State, to an amount not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be authenticated by the Comptroller, in the name and on behalf of the State of Maryland, which bonds or certificates of debt, together with the lands, buildings and other property of the House of Correction, shall be exempt from State, county or municipal taxation, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually from the first day of [illegible] next, and shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the State, and which said bonds or certificates of debt shall not be less than their par value, and shall be of such form and denomination, and be signed by the Governor and the Treasurer of the State, and countersigned by the Comptroller of the State, and shall be entitled as not to direct the Attorney General of Maryland to institute proceedings against any defaulting officer or agent of said House of Correction, or any other person or persons, for the recovery of any money or property belonging to said House of Correction, and to report to the next session of the Legislature the facts in the case, with such recommendations as he may deem proper.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the sinking fund of the State be authorized by law to be invested.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That the [illegible] all the money and property of the said House of Correction, shall vest in and be held by George William Brown, Gustavus Brown and Robert T. Baldwin, of the City of Baltimore, as Trustees for the State of Maryland.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the trustees of the House of Correction, shall be authorized to receive from the State Treasurer, the sum of twenty-five thousand in money, and private or other property in the discretion of said trustees, and the Treasurer of the State is authorized and directed to pay the same to the Board of Managers of the Maryland House of Correction, on the warrant of the Comptroller, at such times and in such amounts as the said Board of Managers may require.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That no person shall be convicted in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, or any other court of the State of any crime or misdemeanor, shall be liable under existing law to be sentenced to imprisonment for a period not less than three months and not exceeding three years, such court may in lieu thereof, sentence such person to said House of Correction instead of other place of confinement.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of any justice of the peace of this State, to cause to be arrested, and on due proof to commit any reputed habitually disorderly person (not being an habitual drunkard), to said House of Correction for a period not less than three months nor more than six months.

Provided, That no person who may be brought before a Justice of the peace as herein mentioned, shall have the right to appeal to the Circuit Court of the county, or if in the city of Baltimore to the Criminal Court of said city, where the same shall be tried as other crimes and misdemeanors.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That every person committed or sentenced to the said House of Correction, shall be kept at some useful employment, such as may be best suited to his or her age and most profitable to the institution, and if the person shall refuse to perform the work assigned to him or her, or be guilty of acts of insubordination or misconduct, such persons shall be punished in such manner as the regulation prescribed by said Board of Managers shall provide, and a record shall be kept of every punishment inflicted and the cause thereof, in a book which shall be kept at the institution, and shall always be laid before the said Board at its meetings, and it shall be the duty of the Board to exercise a careful supervision and control over the punishments inflicted.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That any person committed to said House of Correction by a justice of the peace, may, upon the writ of habeas corpus, to any judge of any Court of Record, and upon hearing before such judge, if he shall deem it there is sufficient ground for so doing, shall hear the evidence offered and other proceedings in the case, or shall order the application to be heard before the Criminal Court of Baltimore, or any other court of the County in which such person is imprisoned, or shall order the discharge of such person, or shall order the same to be heard before the Circuit
