EUROPEAN WAR NEWS.

A Versailles dispatch states that the bombardment of the French forts on the east side of Paris has proved so effective that only Fort Nogent now replies to the suffered severely. The Germans were driven from all their positions, and the were occupied by the French.

The presure upon Gen. Trochy by the people and local rulers of Paris for a grand sortie continues, and some of the journals there stimulate the furor by accusing Trochu of feebleness. It is said the money, and is still about $75 out. that the armies in the field have been ordered to hasten their movements on Paris. The latest dispatches certainly indicate a After paying a visit of condolence to the widow of General Prim, he proceeded to the chamber of the Cortes and took the oath of office.
