Thursday, June 2, 1898.

WITH this issue of the UNION we publish the laws passed at the last session of the General Assembly in supplement form and shall endeavor to place them in the home of every voter in Caroline county, and ask that every one receiving a copy of said laws take it to their homes and read it carefully and become posted on them. After you have done this lay it away for future references.

THAT the Baltimore Retailer's Association means business with the Eastern Shore, can no longer be questioned. Baltimore business men are aware that we have a rich section to draw from and the sooner they induce the public to trade there, the better. They are beginning to realize that the Q. A. Railroad may be made a valuable feeder to their city. So it could be if they could get it. Philadelphia and Wilmington are also after this trade. The wisdom of securing this trade dates back to the thirties, but with but little success. Since the opening of the Q. A. road Baltimore has endeavored to take a new lease on this section. They imagine that the B. C. & A. Railway and Q. A. road will be strong feeders for her. Merchants in large cities are endeavoring to capture this trade in every known way, they are inducing railroads and boats to give frequent low-rate excursions as inducements to shoppers. So one inducement after another is thrown out to buyers in this section. While all this is being done our merchants [illegible] to sit down and fold their arm[illegible] [illegible]r cities go off with our trade. Our merchants can sell just as cheap as they can in the cities and we believe they do. While our merchants do not carry as large an [illegible]ortment of goods as city merch[illegible] our stores endeavor to keep that [illegible]h is deemed necessary for the trade. It is, therefore, necessary for the good of this community, and others as well, that the trading pub[illegible] [illegible] as much [illegible] money is kept at home [illegible] circulation. It is passed from one to another and therefore the community cannot help feeling the effect. If you want to help your town to become busy and prosperous, try this plan. If you want to kill your section, take all the money you can get hold of and go to the city and spend it, and when you want a long credit go to the home merchant for it. Let a town practice that to any extent and you will soon see a lifeless community. While the individual is carrying on such a game it might be well for him to be careful lest the community in which he lives gives him some of the same medicine. Make it a point to never go away from home for that which may be had at home. Should you be unable to supply your wants at home don't go elsewhere until you have first made your wants known to your merchants. Also consult the columns of the UNION, for there you will find the advertisements of all the leading business men of Denton and some from other parts of the county. The UNION is an up-to-date paper and up-to-date business men use it to make known their business. The paper circulates extensively throughout the county and is hailed every Thursday as a welcome visitor, when its columns are perused for general information. The advertising columns are likewise read to see what is offered for sale. Without entering into further details as to advantages to be derived from home trading, let our people continue to patronize the home industries, for by so doing they are rendering their community a lasting benefit.

NOTICE has been sent out that the Maryland League of Republican Clubs will hold their annual convention in Baltimore, on the 22d inst. Each club in the State is entitled to two delegates and two alternates. Besides preparing for the campaign this year the convention will elect 34 delegates to the national convention of the Republican League, to be held in Omaha, July 13, 14, 15. This State has a league membership of 200 clubs.

THE Queenstown News says the Century Cycling Club, of Baltimore, sent a committee to their place to inspect the roads, and reported them in poor condition for cycling purposes. This, the News, says is unfortunate. We imagine the people of Queenstown would think differently if Baltimore should send a "full" delegation over for a few Sundays.

SINCE the sentence of Col. Cooper to the Trenton penitentiary a few Democratic papers have been endeavoring the make some political capital out of it, claiming that Col. Cooper has been pursued because he was a Democrat. Such a claim is not only weak, but silly. During his trial he had every opportunity to prove himself innocent if he could. The jury, we learn, was composed of six Democrats and six Republicans, and therefore such a charge does the Democratic jurymen an injustice, and others connected with the case also. The foreman of the jury is a personal friend of the Colonel and would have gladly pronounced him innocent if the evidence in the case would have borne him out. Again, if he and his friends didn't get justice at the hands of the jury, they had an alternate but did'nt see fit to even try it, but said we will let the verdict stand, and even Cooper himself said he "would take his medicine like a man." Cooper's own checks convicted him. If one count, the 46th, should send him to prison for 18 months, with a fine of $5,000, what would have been his fines and imprisonment had he been tried and convicted on all the counts? While we sympathize with Col. Cooper or any other unfortunate, we believe he he should pay the penalty for his crime, irrespective of policical ties. Let Boggs also be brought to justice as speedily as possible, as well as others implicated.

ANOTHER disgraceful chapter has been added to the Eastern Shore lynching code. How much longer will the respectable citizens tolerate this thing? Whenever a drunken and infuriated gang of roughs see fit to take the law into their own hands, they do it, and there is none to molest them, at the time or afterwards. See what a lie the Coroner's jury rendered in the lynching of Garfield King last week at Salisbury. "The deceased came to his death at the hands of parties unknown," a formula that is made to duty whenever a lynching occurs in this State. It would be no surprise to the public if such a jury was in favor of the means used. The men that participated in such a crime are the same as King; murders. This boy was in the hands of the law and those weak-kneed officials should be held responsible for his safe keeping. There hasn't been a lynching on this Shore for years but that the sheriffs have known it hours in advance. Several of our counties are cursed by outlaws who pose as respectable citizens but who, nevertheless, are murderers at heart. No attempt has been made to bring the culprits to justice and we shall be surprised if there should be any.

As the wheat harvest approaches, which is not far distant, farmers are prospecting for the final results. Some of our conservative farmer say three-fourths of a crop is a fair estimate when compared with last year's yield. It must be remembered that last year was an exceptionally good year for wheat. Taking the average season it is believed by many the present crop will be close to an average one throughout the county. An unusually large acreage of land was sown in wheat last fall, with an average yield, would mean a large crop for the farmers of the county. The greatest set back to wheat has been the abundance of rain. In Delaware the ravages of the Hessian fly is widespread and of a serious charter. The Dover Sentinel says there is hardly a field of wheat that has not suffering from the fly pest. Some fields have be[illegible] plowed up and planted to corn. It has been estimated that the increased acreage was twenty-five per cent. over recent years, and yet it is feared the yield will not exceed one-half of last year's crop.

JOSEPH Leiter's May wheat deal has closed and he is said to be well-off to live. The trade is speculating on the price the shorts will have to pay in settlement. It is said Leiter will be satisfied at $2 a bushel, although he can easily make it $3. In the famous corner in '88, the price was advanced 58 cents on the last day of the month to $2. Speculators who have been trailing along have sold out at $1.70. At Chicago there is 1,500,000 bushels of contract wheat in store. There has been considerable conjecture over Leiter's profit in his big deal. The president of the largest bank in his city said it might reach $7,000,000, and people in Leiter's office say it will not be less than $4,500,000. Even at the latter figure this would make Leiter's profit since April 2, '97, when he bought his first wheat, $321,400 a month; $446 an hour, or about $7.50 a minute. Not a bad take, eh!

IT is said by those who claim to know the extent of the recent hailstorm in Caroline, Kent and Queen Anne's counties, that the loss will be 50,000 bushels of wheat. This does not include the damage to the fruit crop, all of which will likely foot up $100,000. The storm's greatest severity in Queen Anne's was at Hayden's Station and Ingleside.

"CERVERA Bottled Up at Santiago," has been the leading headline of the dailes for the past ten days. A part of the time it has had an exclamation and then interrigation points after it. Since the truth has been revealed realative to the whereabouts of the Spanish fleet, they did some good guessing, as part of the time they have been bottled up and still they were not bottled up, as part of the fleet was in the harbor and part out. This didn't suit Schley, as he wanted all inside, so he pretended he was disgusted and left long enough for all of the fleet to go in and then he returned and bottled them up to suit himself. He has not only got them bottled up but has the cork in the bottle also. The only way now for them to get out is to swell up and burst. As the government has the fleet where it wants it, attention is turned to getting troops into Cuba so as to begin the land campaign. Reports of an engagement with the Spanish fleet and forts are in circulation, but no losses reported.

A Democratic daily at Wilmington thus compliments the late Delaware legislature: "Things are in a muddle down at Dover. If the Senate passes a bill the House kills it; if the House passes a bill the Senate kills it; if it passes both houses the governor vetoes it, and if the governor doesn't veto it, some lawyer comes along and discovers that it is unconstitutional." Isn't this unkind in our Democratic contemporary? Well, they can't abuse this legislature any longer, as Monday it gave up the ghost and became a thing of the past. One paper went so far as to infer that the State could not get into a proper attitude to observe Merorial Day for rejoicing over the fact that the legislature was to adjourn that night.

Rudolph Cephas vs. Ann E. Cephas. In the Circuit Court for Caroline County In Equity.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce "a vinculo matrimonii" by the complainant from the respondent. The bill states:

1. That on or about the 9th day of November 1876 he was married to his wife, formerly Ann E. Thomas, by the Rev. Charles Ash, in Denton in Caroline County, Maryland, and that he resided with her as husband and wife until some time in the year 1889.

2. That although the conduct of the complainant toward the respondent has always been kind, affectionate and dutiful, she has without any just cause or reason abandoned and deserted him, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for three years, is deliberate and final and the separation beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

3. That since the said abandonment and desertion, the complainant is informed, believes and so charges, that the respondent has been guilty of gross acts of adultery and that as a result of said acts of adultery illegitimate children have been born to her.

4. That the said respondent is not a resident of the State of Maryland, but resides in the District of Columbia.

It is thereupon, this 1st day of June, 1898, ordered by the Circuit Court for Caroline County in Equity that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Caroline County once in each of four successive weeks before the 2nd day of July 1898, give notice to the said absent respondent of the object and substance of this bill, warning her to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 18th day of July, 1898, to show cause if any she has, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
