Public General Laws.

PUBLIC

GENERAL LAWS

PASSED BY THE

The General Assembly of Maryland,

At the January Session, 1880.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

[CHAPTER 387.]

INSURANCE COMPANIES.

AN ACT

To add a fifth sub-section to section thirty of article fifty six of the Code of Public General Laws of this State title title "Licenses," sub title Foreign Corporations and Companies," as amended at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, chapter one-hundred and six, and to amend and re-enact sections thirty-one and thirty-two of said article as so amended, and to amend and re-enact section one hundred and of article twenty-six of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," sub-title "Insurance Companies," as also amended by said chapter one hundred and six of the acts of eighteen hundred and seventy-eight.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a fifth sub-section be added to section thirty of article fifty-six of the Code of Public General Laws of this State title "Licenses," sub-title "Foreign Corporations and Companies," and that sections thirty-one and thirty-two of said article fifty-six, and section one hundred and five of article twenty-six of said Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," sub-title "Insurance Companies," as amended by chapter one hundred and six of the acts of the General Assembly passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, be, and the same are hereby, added, amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

30 (fifth). Every life insurance company, in addition to the above, shall file and annually renew a certificate from the Insurance Commissioner or chief financial officer of the State in which such company is organized, or of some one of the United States, setting forth that such company has deposited with him the sum of one hundred thousand dollars of its capital or assets in gold coin of the United States or invested in notes or bonds of the United States or in bonds of the State of Maryland or of the State in which said company is organized or in bonds secured by mortgage or deeds of trust on unincumbered real estate worth at least double the amount loaned thereon, and that he holds the same in trust and on deposite, under and by the laws of the State in which he resides, for the benefit of all the policy holders of such company in the United States, and that he is satisfied that the securities so deposited by such company and held by him are worth at least one hundred thousand dollars; provided, that every such company not having such deposite made in the State in which it is organized or in some one of the United States, may make such deposit with the Treasurer of Maryland in the manner provided by law for companies organized under the laws of this State.

32. No person shall act as agent or solicitor for any such company, including individuals, whether resident or non resident, partnerships or joint stock associations, except for such companies as may be chartered under the laws of this State, in any manner whatever relating to insurance risks, until all the provisions of this act have been complied with, and there has been granted, by the Insurance Commissioner, a certificate of authority or license, for which said company, individual, resident, or non-resident or association, their agent, shall pay into the State Treasury, the sum of two hundred dollars, and shall also pay into said Treasury a tax of one and one-half per centum, on the amount of premiums actually collected, received or secured in this State, or from residents thereof, during the last license year, by or for said company, individual, resident or non-resident, partnership or association, deducting only from the amount of such premiums, the amount of losses actually paid in this State during the same period, for or by said company, individual, resident, or non-resident, partnership or association under policies of insurance granted therein; but without any deduction for expenses for endorsements which may have been paid, or for any other cause whatever; a report of the premiums so collected, and the losses paid by or for any such company, as above, must be made to the Insurance Commissioner, under oath of the chief accounting officer of such company, or of its general agent for this State, at the time of obtaining the license herein above provided for, any company applying for admission into this State, shall pay for license in like proportion for a fractional part of a year, so that all licenses issued shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next ensuing; in addition to the above license and tax, there shall be paid by each insurance company, individual, resident or non-resident, partnership or association, whether of this State or otherwise, doing business in this State, the following fees, to defray the expenses of executing the provisions of this act, upon filing the declaration or certified copy of charter hereafter admitted to do business in this State, twenty-five dollars; upon filing each annual statement, twenty-five dollars; for each certificate of authority, which each agent of every insurance company not organized under the laws of this State is hereby required to obtain, the sum of ten dollars; provided however, that sub-agents or solicitors, who may be appointed by the general agent of any life insurance company in this State, shall only be required to pay for their respective certificates of authority, the sum of two dollars; for each abstract of their annual statements for publication, two dollars; for every copy of any paper filed in the Insurance Department, the sum of twenty-five cents per folio, and for affixing the official seal to such copy and certifying the same, one dollar; for valuing policies of life insurance companies, thirty dollars per million of insurance, or any fractional part thereof; for official examinations of companies under this act, the actual expenses incurred; provided, that the filing of the papers with the Insurance Commissioner, as required by this act, shall be in lieu of all papers now required by law to be filed with the Comptroller and Clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore city.

32. Any person, body politic or corporate, partnership or association, who shall make, negotiate or solicit within this State, any contract of insurance, or shall effect an insurance or insurances, or pretend to effect an insurance or insurances, or receive and transmit any offer or offers of insurance or insurances, or receive or deliver a policy or policies of insurance or connect any other person or persons with them in any policy they may at the time hold, or shall do any business of insurance of any kind, or make any guaranty, contract or pledge, for the payment of annuities or endowments or money, whether the amount thereof be fixed or contingent, to the families or representatives of any policy or certificate holder or the like, or shall advertise or circulate any card, circular, notice, or open or keep any office for the transaction of said business, except as an insurance broker, duly licensed, without fully complying with all the provisions of this act, shall be subject to the fines imposed by section thirty-six of this article; and the term insurance company, as used in this article, shall be taken to embrace every corporation, association, partnership or individual engaging in any such business; and every such corporation, association, partnership or individual making any engagement for the payment of any money or other benefits in the event of the death of any member, policy or certificate holder, or the like, or entering into any contract or agreements in which the chances or probabilities of the duration of life, or the rate of mortality, are in any way involved, as an element or condition of such contracts or agreements, shall be deemed and taken to be a life insurance company within the meaning of this article, and shall be subject to all the requirements of law applicable to life insurance companies; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as applying to the granting of relief or benefits to members or their families, by any societies of a purely and exclusively religious, charitable or benevolent description, and orders or associations having ritualistic work and ceremonies in the lodges, councils or societies.

106. The Insurance Commissioner shall annually, at the time of issuing a license to each insurance company doing business in this State, publish an abstract of the annual statement required by this act, of each insurance company doing business in this State, once a week for three consecutive weeks in a daily newspaper published in the city of Baltimore, except that in case of insurance companies of this State having their principal office in one of the counties of this State, the newspaper selected for such publication must be published in the county where such company is located, the companies shall in addition publish in another paper said abstract three consecutive times, and the Insurance Commissioner and the company shall cause the first appearance of the publication of fire insurance companies prior to the first day of March, and of life insurance companies prior to the first day of April, and the actual net cost of said publication by the Insurance Commissioner he is hereby authorized to collect from each company, the abstract of whose statement is so published by him; and provided also, that any corporation, association, partnership or individual doing a life insurance business in this State on the co-operative or mortality assessment plan, shall not be subject to the provisions of section 34 and sub-sections second, third, fourth, fifth and eighth of section twenty-eight of article fifty-six of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Licenses," as amended by an act passed at January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, chapter one hundred and six, nor to any other provisions of said article not applicable to the co operative plan, but shall in all other respects comply with the provisions of said article and any amendments thereto.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage, and that all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

STATE OF MARYLAFD VS. CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.

AN ACT

To protect the interest of the State of Maryland in the Chesapeak and Ohio Canal Company, and for this purpose to authorize and direct the Attorney General of Maryland to act in behalf of the said State, in his judgment, shall be proper, in a suit now pending, or which may hereafter be instituted, against the said Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company; and to institute such other legal proceedings as, in his judgment, shall be proper, for the protection of the interest of the State of Maryland in said Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, and for the like purpose to authorize and direct the Comptroller of the Treasury to provide or execute, upon behalf of the State of Maryland, such bonds or stipulations, in suits relating to said Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, as shall be required by the said Attorney General in the premises.

Whereas, a suit in equity has recently been instituted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Maryland District by a certain Daniel K. Stewart against the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company and others, for the purpose of having the management of the said company placed in the hands of a receiver and,

Whereas, the State of Maryland has large pecuniary and other interest in the said company which will be injuriously affected by the granting of the relief sought by the complainant in the said suit; therefore—

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Attorney General of Maryland be and he is hereby authorized and directed to take such action and do all such things on behalf of the State in the suit now pending in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Maryland District, in equity, between Daniel K. Stewart, as complainant, and the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company and others, as defendants, and in any other proceedings which may be instituted or prosecuted against said Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, as shall be proper in his judgment for the effectual protection of the interest of the State of Maryland in the said Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, and the said Attorney General is further authorized and directed to institute and take any and all such other proceedings, in the Supreme Court of the United States or elsewhere, as may, in his judgment, be necessary and proper for the protection of the interests of the State of Maryland in said Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, that the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby directed at any and all times, upon the requirment of the Attorney General of Maryland, to execute any and all bonds and stipulations, whatsoever, in the name and on behalf of the State of Maryland, whether as principal or surety, or by way of indemnification to sureties, which the said Attorney General may certify to him to be executed in or about any proceedings whatsoever, whether at law or in equity, now pending or hereafter to be instituted in any Court or Courts whatsoever, touching the interest of the State in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, or touching the property, tolls, revenues or management of said company.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the faith of the State of Maryland be, and the same is hereby, pledged to the full and perfect indemnity of any surety or sureties, obligor or obligors, upon any and all bonds or stipulations which shall be given in pursuance of the provisions of this act.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage
