"Perhaps the most judiciously edited magazine in the world."—The Nation, N. Y., Sept. 1882.

THE CENTURY

FOR 1882-83.

The twelfth year of this magazine—the first under the new name, and the most successful in its history, closed with the October number. The circulation has shown a large gain over that of the preceding season, and THE CENTURY begins its thirteenth year with an edition of 140,000 Copies.

The following are the leading features:

A New Novel by W. D. Howells, to succeed this author's "Modern Instance." It will be an international story, entitled "A Sea Change."

Life in the Thirteen Colonies, by Edward Eggleston,—the leading historical feature of the year; to consist of a number of papers, on such topics as "The Beginning of a Nation," "Social Life in the Colonies," etc., the whole forming a complete history of early life in the United States. Especial attention will be paid to accuracy of illustrations.

A Novelette of Mining Life, by Mary Hallock Foote, entitled "The Led Horse Claim," to be illustrated by the author.

The Point of View, by Henry James, Jr., a series of eight letters from imaginary persons of various nationalities, criticising America, its people, society, manners, railroads, etc.

The Christian League of Connecticut, by the Rev. Washington Gladden. An account of practical co operation in Christian work, showing how a league was formed in a small town in Connecticut, what kinds of work it attempted, and how it spread throughout the whole State.

"Budder Grange Abroad," by Frank R. Stockton, a continuation of the droll "Budder Grange" stories, the scene being now in Europe.

The New Era in American House-Building, a series of four papers, fully illustrated, devoted to (1) City Houses, (2) Country Houses, (3) Churches, and (4) Public Buildings

The Creoles of Louisiana, by Geo. W. Cable, author of "Old Creole Days," etc.; a fresh and graphic narrative, richly illustrated.

My Adventures in Zuni, by Frank H. Cushing, government ethnologist, an adopted member of the Zuni tribe of Indians. Illustrated.

Illustrated Papers on the National Capital, including "The Capitol," "The Supreme Court," "The White House," etc.

Missions of Southern California, by "H. H."; three or four papers of an exceedingly interesting character, richly illustrated.

Miscellaneous.

Further work is expected from E. C. Stedman, Thomas Hughes, Joel Chandler Harris ("Uncle Remus"), Charles Dudley Warner, John Burroughs, E. V. Smalley, H. H. Boyesen, and a long list of others. Entertaining short stories and novelettes will be among the leading features of THE CENTURY, as heretofore, and the magazine will continue its advance in general excellence.

The subscription price is $4.00 a year, 35 cents a number. Subscriptions should begin with the November number, and to enable new subscribers to commence with the new series under THE CENTURY name, we make the following

SPECIAL OFFER.

A year's subscription from Nov. 1882, and the twelve numbers of the past year, unbound, $6.00. A subscription and the twelve back numbers bound in two elegant volumes with gilt top, $7.50.

ST. NICHOLAS

FOR YOUNG FOLKS.

PARENTS who desire entertaining and wholesome reading for their children, and young folks who enjoy accounts of travel and adventure, historical incidents, stories, pictures, household amusements, and harmless fun, will find these in ST. NICHOLAS, which is recognized by the press and public, of both England and America, as The Best and Finest Magazine for children ever printed. The new volume, which begins with the November number, and opens with a colored frontispiece, will be much the finest ever issued, and the attention of all parents and all reading young folks is invited to the following partial list of attractions:

"The Tinkham Brothers' Tide-Mill."

A new serial story by J. T. Trowbridge, formerly editor of "Our Young Folks," and author of the "Jack Hazard Stories," etc.

"The Story of Viteau."

An historical novelette of girl and boy life in the 13th Century. By Frank R. Stockton, formerly assistant editor of St. Nicholas, author of "Rudder Grange," etc.

"The Story of Robin Hood."

An account of the famous yeoman. By Maurice Thompson, author of "The Witchery of Archery."

"The Story of the Field of the Cloth-of-Gold." By E. S. Brooks. To be illustrated with many remarkable pictures.

"A Brand-New Nation."

A capital and novel play. By William M. Baker, author of "His Majesty, Myself," etc.

"Swept Away."

A serial story of the Mississippi floods of 1882. By E S. Ellis, formerly editor of "Golden Days."

"Elizabeth Thompson."

A biographical paper regarding this celebrated painter of battle scenes. Illustrated with pictures prepared for St. Nicholas by Miss Thompson.

"Where was Villiers?"

A thrilling story of the Russo-Turkish war. By Archibald Forbes, War-Correspondent.

"The Boy at the White House."

An account of the life of "Tad" Lincoln. By Noah Brooks, author of "The Boy Emigrants."

"Comedies for Children."

A fine series of juvenile plays. By E. S. Brooks, author of "The Land of Nod," etc., and including

A Christmas Masque: "The False Sir Santa Claus."

Prepared expressly for holiday times.

There will be short stories by Louisa M. Alcott, and many other well-known writers for young folks; papers on home duties and recreations, out-door sports, occupation and instruction for boys and girls, with popular features and departments.

Price, $3 00 a year; 25 cents a number. Subscriptions should begin with the November number. The succeeding issue, "The Wonderful Christmas Number," will have, also, a colored frontispiece and many unusual attractions.

ROLAND

CHILLED PLOWS.

Every farmer in Maryland should use the "Roland." The Mouldboard is harder than steel. They will do more work than any other Plow with the same amount of draft. They run level and easy to the plowman. They will scour in any soil. Having the reversible slip point, sloping landside and chilled shares, they cost less for repairs than any other plow in the market. Made in Baltimore, the repairs can always be obtained without delay. The workmanship, material and finish is of the best. There are fourteen sizes and kinds, and they are suited to all kinds of soil. Send for descriptive circular.

CHAMPION

GRAIN DRILL.

This Drill has force feed distributors for both wheat and grass seed, and has the only fertilizer distributor that will not clog, and will evenly distribute wet and sticky phosphate. It will sow grain, grass seed and fertilizer more satisfactorily than any other drill in America. It is the simplest and strongest drill made. It is more easily managed and less liable to get out of order than any other drill in market. As it is the leading drill in this market, and several thousands have been sold during during the past few years, a large stock of repairs is always on hand. Send for circular.

BRITISH MIXTURE.

The popularity of this celebrated fertilizer is not due alone to the price, but to the fact that its effects are uniformly good, and that it has been found the equal of the highest priced and best phosphates in the market. It gives more value for each dollar paid than any other fertilizer in the land. Send for circular and price list.

POETRY.

Things in the Bottom Drawer.

There are whips and toys and pieces of strings,
There are shoes which no little feet wear;
There are bits of ribbon and broken rings,
And tresses of golden hair;
There are little dresses folded away
Out of the light of the sunny day.

There are dainty jackets that never are worn,
There are toys and models of ships;
There are books and pictures, all faded and torn,
And marked by the finger tips
Of dimpled hands that have fallen to dust,
Yet I strive to think that the Lord is just.

But a feeling of bitterness fills my soul
Sometimes when I try to pray,
That the Reaper has spared so many flowers
And taken mine away;
And I almost doubt that the Lord can know
That a mother's heart can love them so.

Then I think of the many weary ones
Who are waiting and watching to-night,
For the slow return of the faltering feet
That have strayed from the paths of right;
Who have darkened their lives by shame and sin,
Whom the snares of the tempter have gathered in.

They wander far in distant climes,
They perish by fire and flood,
And their hands are black with the direst crimes
That kindled the wrath of God.
Yet a mother's song has soothed them to rest,
She hath lulled them to slumber upon her breast.

And then I think of my children, three,
My babies that never grow old,
And know that they are waiting and watching for me,
In the city with streets of gold,
Safe, safe from the cares of the weary years,
From sorrow and sin and war,
And I thank God with my falling tears,
For the things in the bottom of the drawer.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Too Big a Start.

Colonel Percy Yerger, although a kind husband, a leading member of the church, a patriotic citizen, and otherwise a high-toned Austin gentleman of culture and refinement, is, nevertheless, not in the habit of meeting promptly his pecuniary obligations. He owes everybody, including Sam Johnsing, his colored carriage-driver, to which trusty Jehu he owes a year's back wages. Of late Colonel Yerger has been exhibiting no uneasiness whatever about the matter, much to the mental disquietude of the faithful African.

"Boss, I tenders a vacancy in my department," exclaimed Sam yesterday, having screwed his courage up to the sticking point.

"Why, Sam, what is it that perturbs you so much?"

"I'se disturbed, boss, bekase I'se a short-winded niggah. My lungses is defected."

"Judging from the way you shout at camp-meetings, I should infer your organs of respiration and articulation were in a perfectly normal condition."

"I reckon dey is, boss, if you say so, but I'se a short-winded niggah, all de same. I can't run wuff a cent."

"What occasion have you to indulge in such violent pedestrian exercise?" asked Colonel Yerger, with his usual suavity.

"Boss, does yer disremember me asking yer when yer was gwine ter pay me my back wages, an' yer tole me my wages was running on all right?"

"Yes, Sam, your pay is running on yet. There is no occasion for apprehension."

"Jess so, boss, but I'se a short-winded niggar, an' my wages has got such a big start ob me in de race dat I feels it in my bones dat sich a short-winded niggah will nebber be able to ketch up. Dem dar wages am bound to keep ahead of me, so I tenders de vacancy in my department."—Texas Siftings.

He Acknowledged the Soft Impeachment.

"You musn't touch the top of the baby's head," said a mother to her little four-year-old; "she has a soft spot there that is very tender."

The youngster gazed at it curiously for a moment, and then asked:

"Do all babies have soft spots on their heads?"

"Yes."

"Did paps have a soft spot on the top of his head when he was a baby?"

"Yes," replied the mother, with a sigh, "and he has got it yet."

And the old man who had overheard the conversation from an adjoining room, sang out:

"Yes, indeed he has, my dear boy, or he would be a single man to day."—Rochester Post-Express.

Didn't Like the Medicine.

A young physician who had long worshipped at a distance, was one day suddenly called to attend her. He found her suffering from no particularly dangerous malady, but she wanted him to prescribe for her, nevertheless, so the doctor took her hand and said, impressively:

"Well, I should prescribe—I should prescribe that—you—get—married."

"O, goodness," said the interesting invalid, "who would marry me, I wonder?"

"I would," snapped the doctor, with all the voracity of a six foot pickerel.

"You!" exclaimed the maiden.

"Yes."

"Well, doctor, if that is the fearful alternative, you can go away and let me die in peace."—Chuck.

"And now, in conclusion," said William Penn, "for time flies and money is twelve per cent., I'll tell thee what I'll do with thee. We didn't come here to rob thee, but if thee has any land thee wants to sell, I'll make thee an offer as square as a horse trade. I don't care to buy anyhow, and I don't want to beat thee out of a foot of ground, but if thee is anxious to sell, I'll give, right here, cash and goods right down on the counter, five hundred dollars for the State of Pennsylvania, with all the dips, spurs, angles, leads, sinuosities, stock, good-will, fixtures, subscription and mailing list, and all the appurtenances thereunto appertaining, be the same more or less, and you can take it or leave it."

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "torpid liver" or "biliousness." In many cases of "liver complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures. At all drug stores.

Boston, November 28, 1881.
Brown Chemical Co.
Gentlemen:—For years I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and could get no relief (having tried everything which was recommended) until, acting on the advice of a friend, who had been benefited by Brown's Iron Bitters, I tried a bottle, with most surprising results. Previous to taking Brown's Iron Bitters I was confined to my house one day out of every three, and I suffered greatly from a nervous weakness in the stomach, which was unbearable. Since taking Brown's Iron Bitters, all my troubles are at an end. Can say any thing other than disagreeable results. I am practically another person. MR. W. J. PARRY,

Have Signed or Endorsed the Following Remarkable Document:

Messrs. Seabury & Johnson, Manufacturing Chemists, 21 Platt St., New York:

Gentlemen:—For the past few years we have sold various brands of Porous Plasters. Physicians and the Public prefer Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster to all others. We consider them one of the very few reliable household remedies worthy of confidence. They are superior to all other Porous Plasters or Liniments for external use.

"Benson's Capcine Plaster is a genuine Pharmaceutical product, of the highest order of merit, and so recognized by physicians and druggists.

When other remedies fail get a Benson's Capcine Plaster.

You will be disappointed if you use cheap Plasters, Liniments, Pads or Electrical Magnetic toys.

A SURE REMEDY FOR ALL ACHES, Pains, Sprains, BEAD'S Perfected COLD and BUNION PLASTER.
