DO NOT FORGET

efore the war. But we must not forget that the two billion fixed charge s here to stay until our bonded debt s reduced.

DO NOT FORGET—that when the Republicans came into control, liberty bonds were selling at 85, or two and one-half billion dollars less than their face value.

DO NOT FORGET—that under the Republican administration liberty, bonds are selling at par and over, and have a market value of three billions greater than when the Republicans came into power.

DO NOT FORGET—that this Republican administration has reduced the national debt three billion dollars and that within the last fiscal year the debt has been reduced one billion and fourteen million dollars.

DO NOT FORGET—that when the Republicans came into power discount rates of the Federal Reserve banks were seven and one-half per cent., and that they are now four and one-half per cent.

DO NOT FORGET—that a Republican Congress passed and Wilson vetoed the Budget act, that Harding signed it when he came into power.

DO NOT FORGET—that a Republican Senate refused to ratify the treaty which would have compelled America to protect the geographical boundaries and political integrity of every European nation, and kept the United Staets constantly in war.

DO NOT FORGET—that it was the Republicans who prevented President Wilson from accepting the mandate over Armenia and plunging us into war with Turkey and Russia.

DO NOT FORGET—that it was through the foresight and statesmanship of President Harding that peace was declared by a Republican Congress with Germany without entering into any entangling alliances with all of Europe.

DO NOT FORGET—that a Republican Congress has passed an act authorizing President Harding to refund the loans made by the previous Democratic administration to European nations with a view to fixing dates of payment.

DO NOT FORGET—that a Republican Congress passed an emergency tariff bill for the benefit of the farmers.

DO NOT FORGET—that Congress authorized the War Finance Corporation—a goverment agency to finance agricultural exports to the great relief of the farmer of America.

DO NOT FORGET—that a Republican Congress has just passed a tariff act which will prevent the admission of foreign-made goods into American ports without the payment of duty.

DO NOT FORGET—that the Republican administrtion is committed to every policy of economy calculated to improve the condition of the American people.

DO NOT FORGET—that the Republican policy is an American policy and the Republican party is wedded to the principle of Americans for America.
