IT is now nearly three years since we first I introduced our Texas Bone Meal the confident assurance that if strictly pure goods would establish reputation, we were sure to obtain it, and the result has confirmed our belief. Farmers who have used it, and dealers who have sold it, give it the preference, and heretofore we have been unable to meet the demand. C. C. Fulton, Esq., editor of the Baltimore American, recently visited Texas and was at our Factory, located at Fulton, Texas. In writing to his paper, under date February 24, 1874, and published in the American Weekly, March 14, he says of our Texas Bone Meal : "After drying the residuum of Bones and Meat, it is ground to a fine powder, producing said a fertilizing material but little interior to Peso seized and taken in execution, to | ruvian Guano.
