Laws of the United States

BY AUTHORITY.

AN ACT

In addition to "an act to prohibit the introduction of slaves into any port or place within the jurisdiction of the United States, from and after the first day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eight," and to repeal certain parts of the same.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That from and after the passing of this act, it shall not be lawful to import or bring, in any manner whatsoever, into the United States or territories thereof, from any foreign kingdom, place, or country, any negro, mulatto, or person of color, with intent to hold sell, or dispose of any such negro, mulatto, or person of color, as a slave, or to be held to service or labor; and any ship, vessel, or other water craft, employed in any importation as aforesaid, shall be liable to seizure, prosecution, and forfeiture, in any district in which it may be found; one half thereof to the United States, and the other half to the use of him or them who shall prosecute the same to effect.

Sec. 2 And be it further enacted. That no citizen or citizens of the United States, or any other person or persons, shall after the passing of this act, as aforesaid, for himself, themselves, or any other person or persons whatsoever, either as master, factor, or owner, build fit, equip, load, or otherwise prepare, any ship or vessel in any port or place within the jurisdiction of the United States, nor cause any such ship or vessel to sail from any port or place whatsoever, within the jurisdiction of the same, for the purpose of procuring any negro, mulatto, or person of color, from any foreign kingdom, place or country, to be transported to any port or place whatsoever, to be held, sold or otherwise disposed of, as slaves or to be held to service or labor; and if any ship or vessel shall be so built, fitted out, equipt, laden, or otherwise prepared, for the purpose aforesaid, every such ship or vessel, her tackle, apparel, furniture, and lading, shall be forfeited, one moiety to the use of the United States, and the other to the use of the person or persons who shall sue for said forfeiture, and prosecute the same to effect; & such ship or vessel shall be liable to be seized, prosecuted, and condemned, in any court of the United States having competent jurisdiction

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted. That every person or persons so building, fitting out, equipping, loading or otherwise preparing, or sending away, or causing any of the acts aforesaid to be done, with intent to employ such ship or vessel in such trade or business, after the passing of this act, contrary to the true intent and meaning thereof, or who shall, in any wise, be aiding or abetting therein, shall, severally, on conviction thereof, by due course of law, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, nor less than one thousand dollars, one moiety to the use of the United States, and the other to the use of the person or persons who shall sue for such forfeiture and prosecute the same to effect, and shall moreover be imprisoned for a term not exceeding seven years, nor less than three years

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That if any citizen or citizens of the United States, or other persons resident within the jurisdiction of the same, shall, from and after the passing of this act, take on board, receive, or transport from any of the coasts or kingdoms of Africa, or from any other foreign kingdom, place or country, or from sea, any negro, mulatto or person of color, not being an inhabitant, nor held to service by the laws of either of the states or territories of the United States, in any ship, vessel, boat, or other water craft, for the purpose of holding, selling or otherwise disposing of, such person as a slave, or to be held to service or labor, or be aiding or abetting therein, every such person or persons so offending, shall, on convicton, by due course of law, severally forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five thousand, nor less than one thousand dollars, one moiety to the use of the United States, and the other to the use of the person or persons who shall sue for such forfeiture & prosecute the same to effect, and, moreover shall suffer imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years, nor less than three years; and every ship or vessel, boat, or other water craft, on which such negro, mulatto, or person of color, shall have been taken on board, received, or transported as aforesaid, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the goods and effects which shall be found on board the same, or shall have been imported therein the same voyage, shall be forfeited, one moiety to the use of the United States, and the other to the use of the person or persons who shall sue for and prosecute the same to effect; and every such ship or vessel shall be liable to be seized, prosecuted, and condemned, in any court of the United States having competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That neither the importer or importers, nor any person or persons claiming from or under him or them, shall hold any right, interest or title whatsoever in or to any negro, mulatto or persons of color, nor to the service or labor thereof, who may be imported or brought into the U. States or the territories thereof, in violation of the provisions of this act, but, the same shall remain subject to any regulations, not contravening said provisions which the legislatures of the several states or territories may at any time heretofore have made, or hereafter may make, for disposing of any such negro, mulatto, or person of color.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons whatsoever shall, from and after the passing of this act, bring within the jurisdiction of the United States in any manner whatsoever any negro, mulatto, or person of color, from any foreign kingdom, place or country, or from sea, or shall hold, sell or otherwise dispose of any such negro, mulatto, or person of color, so brought in as a slave, or to be held to service or labor, or be in any wise aiding or abetting therein, every person so offending shall, on conviction thereof by due course of law, forfeit and pay for every such offence, a sum not exceeding ten, nor less than one thousand dollars, one moiety to the use of the United States, and the other to the use of the person or persons who shall sue for such forfeiture, and prosecute the same to effect; and moreover shall suffer imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years nor less than three years.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons whatsoever, shall hold, purchase, sell, or otherwise dispose of any negro, mulatto or persons of color for a slave, or to be held to service or labor, who shall have been imported or brought in any way from any foreign kingdom, place or country or from the dominions of any foreign state immediately adjoining to the United States, into any port or place within the jurisdiction of the United States, from and after the passing of this act, every person aiding or abetting therein, shall severally forfeit and pay for every negro, mulatto, or person of color so held, purchased, sold or disposed of, one thousand dollars, one moiety to the use of the United States, and the other to the use of the person or persons who may sue for such forfeiture, and prosecute the same to effect, and to stand committed until the said forfeitures be paid: Provided, That the aforesaid forfeiture shall not extend to the seller or purchaser of any negro, mulatto, or person of color, who may be sold or disposed of in virtue of any regulations which have heretofore or shall hereafter be lawfully made by any legislature of any state or territory in pursuance of this act, and the constitution of the United States,

Sec 8 And be it further enacted, That in all prosecutions under this act, the defendant or defendants shall be holden to prove that the negro, mulatto, or person of color, which he or they shall be charged with having brought into the United States, or with purchasing, holding, selling, or otherwise disposing of, and which, according to the evidence in such case, the said defendant or defendants shall have brought in aforesaid, or otherwise disposed of, was brought into the United States at least five years previous to the commencement of such prosecution, or was not brought in, holden, purchased, or otherwise disposed of contrary to the provisions of this act; and in failure thereof, the said defendant or defendants shall be adjudged guilty of the offence of which he or they may stand accused.

Sec. 9 And be it further enacted. That any prosecution, information or action, may be sustained for any time within five years after such offence shall have been committed, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec 10 And be it further enacted, That the first six sections of the act to which this is in addition, shall be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, That all offences committed under the said sections of the act aforesaid, before the passing of this act, shall be prosecuted and punished, and any forfeitures which have been incurred under the same shall be recovered and distributed, as if this act had not been passed.

H. CLAY, Speaker of the House of Representatives
JOHN GAILLARD, President of the Senate pro tempore.

Valuable Property for sale.

I WILL sell the following property in Talbot County, at Easton Point, real and personal, viz. one Dwelling House and Kitchen, with two good cellars and several good out houses, all in excellent repair, a pump of nice water close at the door; a wharf and ship yard, as good a stand as any on the Eastern Shore for a Ship Carpenter; a large Garden well inclosed, and every convenience that is requisite. The terms of sale will be made easy to the purchaser, and a title given clear of any incumbrance.

In addition to the above, I offer one Lot of Ground, containing one acre, near Easton, binding with the road leading from Easton to the Point. One large pair of timber wheels and chains—one Carriage in good repair; Household and Kitchen Furniture, too tedious to mention.

If the above property is not disposed of at private sale by the first day of September next, it will on that day be offered at public sale, at ten o'clock A. M. at Easton Point. Attendance given by JAS. STOAKES.

Land for sale

THE subscriber will sell Four Hundred acres of Land lying on the stage road from New Market to Vienna in Dorchester county, Md. within four miles of the latter, and adjoining Reid's Grove—about one hundred acres are cleared, the rest in timber, most of it heavily set in white, red and Spanish oak—there is a small tenement on said farm. Persons desirous to purchase will view the premises, and apply to the subscriber living in Easton for the terms which will be accommodating.

Also—The House and Lot in the Town of Easton, where he resides, on Washington street—fronting on said street 30 feet, and running back to Harrison street, containing one quarter of an acre of ground on which is a good frame dwelling house, calculated for a store and family, with an excellent well of water in the yard, kitchen, &c. For terms apply to

JAMES THOMAS.

N. B. Those indebted to the subscriber on bond, note or book account will close the same without delay, as he intends leaving Easton in course of the fall, and those neglecting, will be proceeded against for collection.
