JAMES MONROE,
President of the United States of America,
TO ALL AND SINGULAR TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING:

WHEREAS a Treaty of Peace and Friendship, between the United States of America, and the Pawnee Marhar Tribe of Indians, was concluded and signed at St. Louis on the twenty-second day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, by Commissioners on the part of the said United States, and certain Chiefs and Warriors of the said Tribe, on the part and in behalf of the said Tribe, which Treaty is in the words following, to wit:

A Treaty of Peace and Frendship, made and concluded by and between William Clark and Auguste Chouteau, Commissioners of the United States of America, on the part and behalf of the said States, on the one part, and the undersigned Chiefs and Warriors of the Pownee Marhar Tribe, on the part and behalf of their said Tribe, on the other part.

The parties being desirous of establishing peace and friendship between the United States and the said Tribe, have agreed to the following articles:

Art. 1. Every injury or act of hostility, by one or either of the contracting parties, against the other, shall be mutually forgiven and forgot.

Art. 2. There shall be perpetual peace and friendship between all the citizens of the United States of America, and all the individuals composing the said Pawnee tribe.

Art. 3. The undersigned chiefs and warriors, for themselves, and their said tribe, do hereby acknowledge themselves to be under the protection of the United States of America, and of no other nation, power, or sovereign, whatsoever.

Art. 4. The undersigned chiefs and warriors, for themselves, and the tribe they represent, do moreover promise and oblige themselves to deliver up, or to cause to be delivered up, to the authority of the United States, (to be punished according to law) each and every individual of the said tribe who shall at any time hereafter violate the stipulations of the Treaty this day concluded between the said Pawnee Marhar tribe, and the said States.

In witness whereof, the said William Clark and Auguste Chonteau, Commissioners as aforesaid, and the Chiefs and Warriors as aforesaid have hereunto subscribed their names, and affixed their seals, this twenty-second day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and of the Independence of the United States the forty-second.

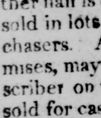
For sale,



A valuable FARM, containing about 550 acres, situated in Caroline county, on Great Choptank River, two miles above Dover Bridge, and within six miles of the town of Easton. The said Farm will admit of being divided into two, one of 350 acres, the other 200 acres, both handsomely situated on the river. About 130 acres of the first is covered with valuable oak timber, near the water, and the improvements thereon are good—a two-story frame dwelling house, nearly new, and a kitchen adjoining, and all other necessary buildings—a good well of water in the yard, and a fine spring of water and spring-house near the dwelling—a fishery and good grazing marsh attached to the same.—There are on the 200 acre lot complete comfortable buildings, a good well of water in the yard, and a spring convenient—120 acres thereof covered with valuable oak and pine timber, directly on the water, and a fishery belonging thereto, equal to any on the river, which will be sold altogether or separate, as may best suit purchasers.

This property is worthy the attention of any person wishing to purchase a comfortable situation, as well as those that may be scarce of timber.

ALSO—One other FARM of 234 acres, situated in Queen-Ann's county, within about eight miles of Centreville, adjoining the lands of Mr. Nathan E. Clements and Dr. John Thomas.—This Farm is of an excellent quality, and has a sufficient quantity of timber, a good orchard—other improvements not very good.

Further descriptions are unnecessary, as no person will purchase without first viewing the premises. The above described property will be sold, and that on reasonable terms. Persons wishing to purchase will please to apply to the subscriber, living on the farm near Dover Bridge.

The Steam Boat MARYLAND.

This superior vessel is now prepared, and has commenced the tour of operations for which she was destined.—She has been planned, constructed and equipped by the ablest artists; and the materials, machinery, furniture, and workmanship are all of the best kinds: These have all been provided and applied under the constant superintendance of Captain Barber and Captain Vickars, in alternate attendance, as the skilful agents of the company; and both are very deeply interested in the undertaking. The greatest confidence may therefore be reposed in the soundness of the vessel, and the safety of her machinery. The accommodations on board, and the arrangement of the apartments for elegance, convenience and security, cannot be exceeded; and her exterior appearance is extremely beautiful.

She will leave EASTON every Monday and Thursday, at 8 o'clock in the morning—call at ANNAPOLIS to land and receive passengers—and proceed to BALTIMORE in the evening of the same days, where she will arrive at 6 o'clock: Returning, she will leave BALTIMORE every Wednesday and Saturday, at the same hour in the morning—call at ANNNPOLIS to land and receive passengers—and proceed to EASTON in the evenings of the same days, where she will arrive at the like hour.

Passengers are respectfully invited to avail themselves of this agreeable conveyance; and they are assured that every care and attention shall be exerted to give them satisfaction.

CLEMENT VICKARS, Commander.

Easton, 5th June, 1819.

N. B. Persons wishing to take horses and Carriages on board, are requested to have them sent to the boat an hour previous to her starting. C. V.
