For the payment of the expenses of the militia court martial in Pennsylvania, of which Colonel James Wood was president, seven hundred and ninety-eight dollars and eighty-four cents.

For the payment of the balance of the expenses of the militia court martial in the state of New York, of which Brigadier General Gerard Steddiford was president, nineteen thousand two hundred and sixteen dollars and twenty-nine cents.

For the balance of an appropriation made nineteenth of February, eighteen hundred and eighteen to defray the expenses of employing a brigade of militia, being the amount thereof carried to the surplus fund, twelve thousand three hundred and seventy-four dollars and fifty-seven cents.

For replacing the like amount of appropriations made for the survey of certain ports and harbors, which has been carried to the surplus fund, the sum of one thousand three hundred and thirty-four dollars and seventy-eight cents.

For replacing the like amount appropriated to procure medals for officers of the army, carried to the surplus fund, the sum of eight thousand two hundred dollars.

For replacing the like amount appropriated for the relief of Colonel William Lawrence, and others, carried to the surplus fund, the sum of one thousand four hundred and forty dollars and twelve cents.

For carrying into effect the treaty concluded at Chicago, on the twenty-ninth day of August, eighteen hundred and twenty-one, the sum of eighteen thousand one hundred and seven dollars and ten cents.

For carrying into effect so much of the fourth article of the treaty of the eighth of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, between the United States and the Creek nation, in relation to the compensation due to the citizens of Georgia by the Creek nation, fifty thousand dollars.

For the purpose of holding treaties with the Cherokee and Creek tribes of Indians, for the extinguishment of the Indian title to all the lands within the state of Georgia, pursuant to the fourth section of the first article of the agreement and cession, concluded between the United States and the state of Georgia, on the twenty-fourth of April one thousand eight hundred and two, the sum of thirty thousand dollars.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the several appropriations hereinbefore made shall be paid out of any money in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That no money appropriated by this act, or by the act, entitled "An act making appropriations for the military service of the United States for the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two," shall be advanced or paid to any person on any contract, or to any officer who is in arrears to the United States, until he shall have accounted for, and paid into the Treasury, all sums for which he may be liable.

PHILIP P. BARBOUR,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN GAILLARD,
President of the Senate, pro tempore.
Washington, May 7, 1822.
Approved: JAMES MONROE.

AN ACT

In addition to the act concerning navigation, and also to authorise the appointment of deputy collectors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, on satisfactory evidence being given to the President of the United States that the ports in the islands or colonies in the West indies, under the dominion of Great Britain, have been opened to the vessels of the United States, the President shall be, and hereby is, authorised to issue his proclamatiion, declaring that the ports of the United States shall thereafter be open to the vessels of Great Britain employed in the trade and intercourse between the United States and such islands or colonies, subject to such reciprocal rules and restrictions as the President of the United States may, by such proclamation, make and publish, any thing in the laws, entiled "An act concerning navigation," or an act, entitled "An act supplementary to an act concerning navigation," to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That in the event of the signature of any treaty or convention concerning the navigation or commerce between the United States and France, the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorised, should he deem the same expedient, by proclamation, to suspend, until the end of the next session of Congress, the operation of the act, entitled "An act to impose a new tonnage duty on French ships and vessels, and for other purposes;" and also to suspend as aforesaid, all other duties on French vessels, or the goods imported in the same, which may exceed the duties on American vessels, and on similar goods imported in the same.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid first and second section of this act shall continue in force to the end of the next session of Congress, and no longer.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the third, fourth and seventh sections of the act passed the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, entitled "An act to continue in force an act further to provide for the collection of duties on imports and tonnage, passed the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and for other purposes," be, and the same are hereby, revived and made perpetual.

PHILIP P. BARBOUR,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN GAILLARD,
President of the Senate pro tempore.
Washington, May 6, 1822.
Approved:
JAMES MONROE.

AN ACT

For the relief of certain insolvent debtors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That so much of the seventeenth section of the act, entitled "An act for the relief of the insolvent debtors within the District of Columbia," approved on the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and three, as declares that the provisions of the said act shall not be construed to extend to any debtor who has not resided in the District of Columbia one year next preceeding his application for relief under the said act, shall be, and the same is hereby, repealed: Provided, That no discharge under this act, or the act to which it is a mendatory, shall operate against any creditor residing without the limits of the District of Columbia, except the creditor at whose instance the debtor may be confined. This act shall commence and be in force from and after the passage thereof.

PHILIP P. BARBOUR,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN GAILLARD,
President of the Senate, pro tempore.

june 18 4w

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of Talbot county court, at May Term 1822, sitting as a court of Equity. The subscriber will expose to public sale, on the 23d day of July next, between the hours of 11 A. M. and 3 P. M. on the Court House Green in Easton, all that Farm or plantation, whereon Henry Casson lived, and of which he died seized—situated on the Post-Road leading from Easton to Centreville— and estimated to contain three hundred and twenty acres.

The terms of Sale are as follow:

The purchaser, or purchasers, will be required to give bond, with such security as the Trustee shall approve of, for the payment of the purchase money, (with interest thereon from the day of sale) within twelve months thereafter—and upon a ratification of the said sale by the Court, and the payment of the whole of the purchase money, with interest as aforesaid, and not before, the Trustee is authorised to make to the purchaser or purchasers a deed in fee simple.

The situation of this farm is desirable, and the soil adapted to the growth of Wheat, Corn, Tobacco, Clover &c. &c. it is well adapted also to plaster of Paris; and the buildings and improvements will be found complete and comfortable.

The creditors of Henry Casson, late of Talbot county, deceased, are hereby notified to file their claims, with the vouchers thereof, with the Clerk of Talbot county court within six months from the day of sale.

Land for Sale.

THE subscriber will offer at public sale, on Tuesday the ninth day of July next, on the court house green, in Denton, the following property, viz. his undivided right or one half of a Farm or tract of Land, lying in the lower part of Caroline county, now in the occupancy of Mr. Anderton Carmean, containing 185 acres which adjoins the lands of Messrs. Shaderic Layden, Edward Pritchett, John Williamson and John Willis, is convenient to Mills, and adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and rye: is said by the tenants to be as good as any in the neighborhood.

ALSO

One other Farm or tract or tracts of Land, lying in Caroline county, near Anderson Town, at present in the occupancy of Mr. Christopher Gordon, coutaining 111¾ acres.

ALSO

One other tract of Land, lying in Caroline county, in Tuckahoe neck, called Branfield, containing 557 acres, which will be sold together, or divided to suit purchasers. This farm lies within two miles and a half of Denton, and binds with the river a considerable distance: on which shore there is one fishery cleared, and another that might be put in order at very little expence, it adjoins the mill-seat where John Hardcastle, esq. dec'd formerly resided. The improvements are tolerable, and the lands well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat, rye, oats, flax, &c. Part of this tract will be sold subject to the dowery of Mrs Orrell.

The whole of the above lands will be sold on the following conditions:—One third of the purchase money paid down, one third at the end of twelve months, and the ballance at the end of eighteen months from the day of sale, the purchaser or purchasers giving bond with approved security for the payment thereof, with interest from the day of sale. Possession given the first of January next; and when the whole of purchase money is paid, a good and sufficient deed of conveyance will be given free and clear of all incumbrance, except the dowery of Mrs Orrell, above mentioned.

GEORGE W. PRATT.

☞Persons wishing to purchase are respectfully invited to view the premises above described.

Denton, May 30 (june 4) 5

Notice.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of JOSEPH H. DAWSON, late of Talbot county, deceased, are hereby warned to pay the same without delay to the subscriber, or steps will be taken to compel the same.

To be Rented,

FOR THE ENSUING YEAR,

AND possession given on the first day of January next ensuing, the dwelling House and Store, now in the occupancy of Mr. Nicols Layton, situate at the corner of Washington & Dover streets in Easton. This is decidedly the most eligible stand in the Town for a Grocery Store, (and has for a long time been occupied as such) being in a public situation and immediately opposite and contiguous to the Market House. An investment of a very moderate capital, with strict attention and some knowledge of the Grocery business would no doubt ensure to the adventurer a very handsome profit.

For terms apply to Edward Roberts, Esq. the owner or to the subscriber.
