While in the attitude of prayer at the evening service in Wesley M. E. church, Georgetown, last Sunday, the worshippers were badly frightened when a large electric light globe fell from the ceiling and smashed in a thousand bits. It landed in a vacant space on a seat occupied by Mrs. Catharine G. Walls and Mrs. Mary W. Clark, missing them by only a few inches, and they consider themselves very fortunate in escaping injury. At the time of the crash an electric storm was approaching and the first thought of those in attendance at the service was that the church was struck by lightning. Everyone was startled, but the pastor, Rev .T. F. Beauchamp, continued to pray and the solemnity of the occasion was not disturbed.

MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

SELECTED POETRY

War
I abhor
And yet how sweet
The sound along the marching street
Of drum and fife. And I forget
Wet eyes of widows, and forget
Broken old mothers, and the whole
Dark butchery without a soul.

Without a soul—save this bright drink
Of heavy music, sweet as death;
And even my peace-abiding feet
Go marching with the marching street;
For yonder, yonder, goes the fife,
And what care I for human life.

The tears fill my astonished eyes,
And my full heart is like to break;
And yet 'tis all embannered lies,
A dream those little drummers make.

Oh! it is wickedness to clothe
Yon hideous grinning thing that stalks
Hidden in music, like a queen
That in a garden of glory walks
Till good men love the thing they loathe!

Art, thou hast many infamies
But not an infamy like this.
Oh! snap the fife and still the drum
And show the monster as he is!

Eastern Shore Happenings

Chestertown, Md., Aug. 2—To stimulate interest in the growing of tomatoes on a much larger scale next year and to bring to the attention of the growers the advantages of early production, County Farm Agent Horace Derrick has arranged a tour of the tomato-growing sections of the county for Tuesday. The trip will form a part of a tour recently arranged by a number of progressive growers and canners in Delaware to study agricultural conditions on the peninsula as they relate to the growing of early, mid-season and late tomatoes.

Georgetown, Del., Aug. 2—Four young men of Georgetown, Freeman Johnson, Delbert Downs, Linden Short and Howard Phillips, narrowly escaped being crushed to death when a machine equipped with a derrick and used for towing wrecked automobiles capsized on the du Pont Highway, between Houston and Harrington, and pinned three of them beneath it.

Johnson sustained injuries to the left leg and his left hand, Downs was injured slightly about the body and legs and Short was cut about the face and bruised. Phillips escaped injury.

The four were on their way to the scene of an accident in which Norman C. Jones, Georgetown, was seriously hurt when, in attempting to avoid an automobile approaching from a side road, his car was hit by another machine and left the roadway, colliding with a telephone pole. Mr. Jones is in the hospital at Milford.

Georgetown, Del., Aug. 2—Farmers in some sections of eastern Sussex have begun to dispose of their wheat crop and within the next few weeks many carloads are expected to be shipped from lower Delaware. A few days ago a car was loaded at the station at Nassau, between Georgetown and Rehoboth Beach, for $1.25 a bushel.

From all sections of Lower Delaware comes the report that the acreage of wheat this year yielded much better than was anticipated early in the spring. The wheat headed up fairly well, but the straw crop was not as heavy as in former years.

Chestertown, Md., Aug. 2—Residents of Millington are arranging to dedicate the new Community Fire House, nearing completion, on August 26, when Benjamin F. Duling, contractor, expects to have the building ready. The celebration will form a part of a program in connection with the third annual carnival to be held by the firemen August 21 to 29.

Smyrna, Del., Aug. 2—Shortly before daylight Tuesday burglars broke into the home of Alexander Carson and when detected by Mrs. Carson, choked and beat her. Her husband, hearing her calls for help, went to her assistance and the two men ran down a stairway and leaped through a dining room window, carrying the sash away.

Mrs. Carson is 60 years old and her husband about 50. The police were notified and a short time later arrested two negroes, one known at "Buzzard" Davis, who formerly worked for Carson, and another who gave his name as Gibbs.

To have a large buzzard come crashing through the windshield of their Dodge car, was the unusual experience of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cray, of Atlantic City, while motoring between Church Hill and Sudlersville, Thursday afternoon. Though the windshield was smashed to atoms by the unwelcome visitor, both occupants of the car fortunately escaped injury.

College Park, Md., Aug. 3—Some time early on the morning of November 1 an ambitious pullet will lay an egg and the race will be on between several hundred of Maryland's choicest fowls entered in the first long-distance egglaying contest to be held in the State.

At the University of Maryland here, where the contest is to be held, arrangements are being made to provide buildings and runs for more than 1,000 birds.

According to the data gathered by W. T. Derrickson, director of the Division of Markets, the early apple crop in Delaware this year will be about 25 per cent. greater than the crop of last year's early apples.

Including the shipments made on Tuesday of last week there have been a total of 1032 cars shipped so far this year. It is estimated that the total for the season will be almost eleven hundred cars in addition to the quantity moved by trucks over the State highways.

Considerable excitement and comment was caused in Milford Tuesday morning when John Bennett, a local barber, found a wax head floating along the edge of the Mispillion river near the Valliant Fertilizer factory. The head was put in a bag and taken to a nearby wharf, and the rumor spread like wildfire that a murder had been committed and a search was about to be started for the body. Further examination disclosed the head to be a wax figure.

Mrs. Sophronia Tucker, aged 45 years, wife of John Tucker, a farmer living between Harrington and Felton, died in the Milford Emergency Hospital last Saturday morning as the result of being shot by her husband. Mr. Tucker states that he and his wife were hunting a rat, Friday morning, which he ran under a chicken coop, when the gun he was carrying was accidentally discharged, the load entering his wife's head under the jaw.

Although Mrs. Tucker was conscious until shortly before she died, she was unable to talk and give any information regarding the affair.

A change in the construction work on the Ocean City road just outside of Parsonsburg is being made. Following a recent visit of Chairman John N. Mackall, of the State Highwas Commission, District Engineer Morrison, of Salisbury, was authorized to change the plans for the widening of the road.

Instead of a three foot shoulder of concrete being added, the construction company, Hannaman and Burroughs, have been instructed to put a two foot shoulder on each side, slightly raised above the present elevation. Then in the fall, a covering of the main section of the highway will be made with ameiscite.

Walter Wells, a colored farm hand on the farm of James Groves, near Kennedysville, was found dead in his team on the public road between Locust Grove and Chesterville, Saturday by the crew of a threshing rig. A number of teams had passed the man but thought he was asleep. Coroner Harry L. Dodd was summoned, and with Sheriff Goodman, he went to the place where the man was found, and after making an investigation determined that he was a victim of poison liquor, as there were evidences of his having been under its influence. He was about 41 years old.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine
Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Combined Treatment, both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years.
