MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

It feels good to be good.

The path of Glory leads beyond the grave.

Cleanliness is next to Godliness; filthiness is next to devilishness.

It does not matter whether a man's religion has a puncture or a blowout, the result is the same; no progress until it is mended.

You don't need the church any more than flowers need the sunshine, or fish need water.

There are two life principles—service and serve us.

It is more profitable to spend time thinking about where we are going, than where we came from.

We sing about the home of the soul, but it strikes us that a good many souls are boarding out.

To forget wrong is the best revenge.

A man may make a false step by standing stiff.

The present is the future from which we had hoped so much.

The truest end of life is to know that life never ends.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Queen Anne's county business houses and citizens who are dependent either wholly or partially upon the waterways of Corsica river or Queenstown harbor, for the receipt of supplies and raw materials or the shipment of produce and manufactured goods, are planning to present facts and figures to the Federal Government showing that maintenance and repair work on these two important tributaries should not be abandoned; and is now contemplated.

The firm of E. S. Valliant & Son, owners of a large manufacturing plant at Centreville Landing, will take the lead in compiling data relative to the tonnage of freight passing to and fro between Centreville and the mouth of Corsica River. It is believed that if accurate information can be obtained from all sources, it will be comparatively easy to show that maintenance of repairs on the river should not be abandoned.

Chestertown, Sept. 27—Mrs. Emma J. Miller, of near Chestertown, is in a critical condition at the Easton hospital with injuries received when she was struck by an automobile driven by Oscar Pleasanton, of Queen Anne's county, here last night. Mrs. Miller received three fractured ribs and a pucture of the right lung.

The accident occured during the carnival of the Volunteer Fire Company here, Mrs. Miller having attempted to cross the street in front of the post office hiwel traffic was congested. Knocked down by Mr. Pleasanton's machine, she was taken into a drug store and later removed to the office of Dr. Harry G. Simpers, who rendered first aid. Mrs. Miller was then taken to the Easton hospital. Slight hope is held for her recovery.

Cambridge, Md., Sept. 27—The congregation of Immanuel Evangelical church dedicated its new church building Sunday. The building has a main auditorium, capable of seating comfortably 250 persons, and basement wherein will be the Sunday school room, also with a seating capacity of 250. It it of brick, hollow wall construction, surfaced with stucco. It cost $12,000.

The Rev. A. O. Mann, pastor, came here from Missouri, where before entering the ministry he had been for some years a teacher and superintendent of schools. The building committee was composed of Otto Hoge, F. H. Meyer, Charles Arnie and the Rev. Mr. Mann. The congregation is almost exclusively composed of persons of German descent. The morning service is conducted in German, and the evening service in English.

Prior to the dedicatory service at the new building a farewell service was held at the little chapel one block away. From there the congregation marched in procession to the new church, the keys of which were presented to the minister at the door. The dedicatory sermon was preached by the Rev. David Bruning. Mr. Mann delivered an address. At the service this afternoon the Rev. W. D. Gould, rector of Christ Protestant Episcopal church, and the Rev. R. Y. Nicholson, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Protestant church, were the speakers.

Chestertown, Md., Sept. 25—Edward Tiller, colored, held here on a charge of cruelty to animals and also for stealing a team, and Arthur Coleman, held for assault and battery, escaped from the jail last midnight by sawing their way through an iron bar in the second story window and letting themselves down to the ground by means of a rope and ladder, which is believed to have been furnished from the outside.

Deputy Sheriff Harry Archibald, who had been out on an automobile trip with friends, returned about midnight, and hearing a commotion in the jail yard, ran out in time to catch Coleman.

Tiller escaped, but was caught at 1 o'clock today by Sheriff Goeaman.

Tiller admitted he was responsible for the escape of the two, but refused to name the person who gave him a case knife, which he used as a saw, or who furnished the ladder and rope.

Both men will be held for the action of the grand jury at the October term of the Circuit Court on charges already preferred and also for jail breaking.

Elkton, Md., Sept. 28—Philip M. Groves, associate judge of the Orphan's Court for Cecil county, is in a serious condition at his home here from a stroke of paralysis suffered yesterday.

Judge Groves served several terms as assistant county treasurer and county treasurer prior to being elected to the Orphans Court.

Easton, Md., Sept. 25—Mayor F. G. Wrightson has vetoed the ordinance recently passed by the City Council authorizing a new assessment of property. The Mayor says the several thousand dollars required to make the assessment cannot well be spent by the town at this time.

He points out that the Town Clerk has the authority, with the approval of the Council, to raise the assessment on property, which in his judgment is undervalued.

Some of the councilmen are of the opinion that some people are paying more than they should, while others are not assessed anything like the value of their holdings. The Mayor admits that some are not paying all they should, and says this always will be so.

Seaford, Del., Sept. 25—Prof. C. R. Snyder, agricultural instructor at the Seaford High School, has submitted to Prof. R. W. Heim, State Director of Vocational Education, at the University of Delaware, a report of community activities engaged in by him during the past year.

The report tells of information given farmers with poultry, drainage, rotation, fertilizer, lime and spraying problems. Professor Snyder also helped to arrange programs for a new garden club organized by the women of Seaford, organized and taught a school band and orchestra and assisted in putting over "the finest boys' and girls' farm product show ever held in the state." He coached the corn-judging team which won the state championship and had boys operate the incubator for two hatches from which were obtained 320 chicks. The report said the school also had a float in the agricultural parade at the Harrington fair.

Dover, Del., Sept. 28—More than a score of Delawareans will join the three-day tour of New Jersey poultry area conducted next week by the New Jersey State Poultry Association. Fourteen model chicken farms will be visited where the most modern labor-saving and profit-producing systems are operated and will be explained.

After the tour the poultrymen will hold a two-day convention in Atlantic City. The Delaware delegation will be led by Hoke S. Palmer, poultry specialist from the University of Delaware.

Four prisoners, of the five incarcerated in the Worcester county jail at Snow Hill, awaiting trial at the October term of Court, effected their escape by forcing the bars of one of the cells about 2.00 o'clock Friday. One of those at large is James Baker, 21, alleged confessed murderer of James Carey, aged and reputed wealthy Wicomico landowner who was slain July 17th, last, and whose body was found, with several thousand dollars which he is said to have carried on his person, missing.

The others who obtained their liberty and the offenses with which they are charged are:

Bernie Purnell, bootlegging; Dennie Bazella, autojack, and Morris Scott, minor offenses.

Maryland, Delaware and Virginia authorities were immediately notified of the jail delivery. It is thought that Bazella, with a broken leg sustained in his leap to the ground, and one of the others, whose identity had not been established, had been apprehended at Crisfield.

Baker is said to be about 5 feet, 10 inches in height, weighs about 145 pounds, is of slender build with light hair, blue eyes and a fair complexion. Sheriff Wilmer Purnell is of the opinion that the fugitives were aided by outsiders in obtaining their liberty.

Announcement was made at masses of Queen Anne's county Catholic churches last Sunday morning that the Rev. Charles P. McGoldrick, who 25 years ago was ordained to the priesthood, and who has devoted the entire period of a quarter of a century to service in the Eastern Shore of Maryland, will celebrate his Silver Jubilee in Mother of Sorrows Church, Centreville, Wednesday, October 14.

On this date Father McGoldrick will also round out his twentieth year as pastor of Mother of Sorrows Church, Centreville; St. Peter's Church, Queen town, and Holy Family Church, Church Hill.

Chestertown, Md., Sept. 28—Armistice Day, November 11, has been selected for holding Kent's initial horse show and the large field of Lewin W. Skirven's farm, fronting on the state road between Chestertown and Tolchester, has been selected as the place.

The show is the outcome of a recent successful event held in Queen Anne's county at Centreville, when a number of entries from this county carried off prizes.

The finest of the country's horseflesh will be brought into competition at the local show, and the promoters are arranging to have entries from both Cecil and Queen Anne's counties.

Handsome prizes will be offered for the winners in all classes and the affair is expected to prove one of the leading social functions in the county.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Combined Treatment, both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years.
Sold by all druggists.

School Days!
Is your boy's eyesight normal?

Bob's parents knew the tremendous importance of normal eyesight to children. So they had Bob's eyes examined. The slight defect revealed was corrected easily (and in time), by the eyeglasses prescribed.

Hence Bob's quick answer—his better report cards.

Wellsworth Windsor spectacles are sturdy and good looking.
