ed for entries of exportation of goods, wares, or merchandise, for the benefit of drawback.

Sec. 31. And be it further enacted, That, in all cases where goods, wares, or merchandise, entitled to debenture, shall be reshipped for transportation coastwise, before the necessary certificates are issued by the collector of the port where imported, the same shall be allowed to be entered for debenture, at the district to which they shall be so transported, without forfeiting the benefit of drawback: PROVIDED, That the person or persons, so entering said goods, wares, or merchandise, shall produce, from the collector of the port from whence the same shall have been last shipped, a certificate that the coastwise certificates were not issued at the time of the sailing of the vessel on board which the said goods, wares, or merchandise, shall have been so shipped, and shall deliver the coastwise certificates required in such cases, to the collector of the port where the same shall have been so entered, within two months from the date of entry, and before the said goods, wares, or merchandise shall be entered for exportation.

Sec. 32. And be it further enacted, That, in all cases where the owner, importer, consignee, or agent, of any goods, wares, or merchandise, entitled to debenture, may wish to transfer the same into packages other than those in which the said goods, wares, or merchandise were originally imported, the collector of the port where the same may be, shall permit the said transfer to be made, if necessary for the safety or preservation thereof: PROVIDED, That due notice of the same, in writing, setting forth sufficient cause for the said transfer, be given to the said collector, who shall appoint an inspector of the revenue, to ascertain if the said allegation be true, and, if found correct, to superintend said transfer, and to cause the marks and numbers upon the origihal packages to be inscribed upon the packages into which the said goods, wares, or merchandise shall be transferred.

Sec. 33. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be necessary to insert the numbers upon packages, in any entry of goods, wares, or merchandise, subject to specific duty on importation or exportation, or insert any such numbers in any coastwise or other certificate: BUT IT IS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED, That in all cases where a seperate certificate may be required for each package, the numbers shall be inserted therein.

Sec. 34. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where, under existing laws, spirituous liquors, entitled to debenture, shall have been shipped coastwise for the purpose of being laden immediately on board some vessel in another district, for exportation, the same may be so laden on board of such vessel, without having been first deposited in the public warehouse: PROVIDED, That all other regulations required by law shall have been complied with, and that such transportation of said spirituous liquors from the one vessel to the other be made by the collector's order, and under the superintendance (superintendence) of an inspector of the revenue, and that a careful examination be made by him of the identity of the same, and of the quantity, quality, and packages thereof.

Sec. 35. And be it further enacted, That all penalties and forfeitures, incurred by force of this act, shall be sued for, recovered, distributed, and accounted for, in the manner prescribed by the act, entitled "An act to regulate the collection of duties on imports and tonnage," passed on the second day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and may be mitigated or remitted in the manner prescribed by the act, entitled "An act to provide for mitigating or remitting the forfeitures, penalties, and disabilities, accruing in certain cases therein mentioned," passed on the third day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Sec. 36. And be it further enacted, That all fines, penalties, and forfeitures, incurred in virtue of the act, entitled "An act supplementary to an act, entitled 'An act to regulate the collection of duties on imports and tonnage,' passed the twentieth April, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen," may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered, in the same manner as if the said act did not expire on the third day of March next.

Sec. 37. And be it further enacted, That, when goods, wares, or merchandise, imported and subject to duty as aforesaid, shall be reshipped, and transported coastwise, from one district to another, in the packages in which the same were imported, an invoice, or a copy of such invoice, or an extract therefrom, including all the articles, with the charges thereon, which are reshipped and transported coastwise as aforesaid, verified by the additional oath required by the fourth section of this act, and certified under the official seal of the Collector, with whom the entry, on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise, was made, shall be produced at the port to which the same shall be transported; and the same inspection of such goods, wares, and merchandise, shall be made, as if they had been brought direct from a foreign port or place: PROVIDED, That no appraisement of the said goods, wares, or merchandise, shall be made at the said port, so as to change the amount of duties which may have been charged thereon, at the port of their original importation, if the same should have been there entered, according to the provisions of this act; except when transported from a port where there are no appraisers appointed by the government; and if the invoice, verified as aforesaid, shall not be so produced, such goods, wares, or merchandise, shall be deposited, and remain in the public warehouse, at the expense and risk of the owner thereof, until the invoice, verified and certified in the manner above required, shall be produced; and goods, wares, or merchandise, imported, and subject to duty as aforesaid, may be transported coastwise, to one or more districts within the United States.

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a decree of Caroline county court, sitting as a court of equity, the subscriber will on Tuesday the 15th day of April next, between the hours of twelve and three o'clock, sell at public sale in Denton, all the right and title of William Roe, late of Caroline county, deceased, of, in, and to, a FARM, containing about 177 acres of Land, being part of a tract called 'Lloyd's Regulation,' lying and being in Caroline county, and within about three miles of Denton, and where the said William Roe formerly lived, at present occupied by Samuel Roe. On the premises is a comfortable Dwelling House and other improvements; and it is supposed about one third of the said land is in Timber. Further descriptions are considered unnecessary, as it is presumed persons desirous of purchasing will view the premises. A credit of twelve months will be given upon the purchase money, by the purchaser or purchasers giving bond with good and approved security to the trustee, as such, for the payment thereof within that period, with interest thereon from the day of sale; and after the sale shall be ratified by the court, and the purchase money fully paid, the trustee will by a good and sufficient deed, convey to the purchaser or purchasers, his, her or their heirs or assigns, the land and real estate so sold to him, her, or them as aforesaid, free, clear, and discharged from all claim of the defendants or claimants, or either of them.

The creditors of the said William Roe are hereby warned and notified to exhibit their claims and vouchers, properly authenticated, to the Clerk of Caroline county court, within six months from the day of sale.

NOTICE.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, 12th March, 1823.

All persons having claims of indemnity for Slaves, or other private property, carried away from the United States by the British officers, after the exchange of the ratifications of the treaty of peace of 24th Dec. 1814, between the U. States and Great Britain, and in contravention to the stipulation in the first article of that treaty, are desired to take notice of the following article, in the convention concluded at St. Petersburg, on the 12th day of July last; ratified by the President of the United States, and the ratifications whereof have been duly exchanged.

ARTICLE 3.

When the average value of slaves shall have been ascertained and fixed, the two commissioners shall constitute a board for the examination of the claims which are to be submitted to them, and they shall notify to the Secretary of State of the United States, that they are ready to receive a definitive list of the slaves and other private property, for which the citizens of the United States claim indemnification; it being understood, and hereby agreed, that the commission shall not take cognizance of, nor receive, and that his Britannic Majesty shall not be required to make compensation for, any claims for private property, under the first article of the Treaty of Ghent, not contained in the said list. And his Britannic Majesty hereby engages to cause to be produced before the commission, as material towards ascertaining facts, all the evidence of which His Majesty's government may be in possession, by returns from His Majesty's officers or otherwise, of the number of slaves carried away. But the evidence so produced, or its defectiveness, shall not go in bar of any claim or claims which shall be otherwise satisfactorily authenticated.

And with regard to the evidence to be transmitted to the Department of State, to be furnished to the Commissioners conformably to the above article, all persons interested therein are referred to the notice heretofore given, from this Department, and published in the National Intelligencer of the 23d of May, 1821, and also in the following newspapers soon after that time, viz: True American, Trenton, Fredonian, New Brunswick, & Washington Whig, in the State of New Jersey; American Watchman, Wilmington, and Delaware General and Peninsula Advertiser, in the State of Delaware; American Commercial Daily Advertiser, Baltimore, Republican Star and General Advertiser, Easton, and the Maryland Republican, Annapolis, in the ssate of Maryland; Norfolk and Portsmouth Herald, Norfolk, Lynchburg Press, Lynchburg, and Virginia North Western Gazette, Wheeling, in the state of Virginia; Raleigh Register and North Carolina Gazette, Raleigh, Columbian Centinel, Newbern, and American Recorder, Washington, in the state of North Carolina; Southern Patriot and Commercial Advertiser, Charleston, South Carolina State Gazette & Columbian Advertiser, Columbia, and Pendleton Messenger, at Pendleton Court House, in the state of South Carolina; Georgia Journal, Milledgeville, and Augusta Chronicle and Georgia Gazette, Augusta, in the state of Georgia; Argus of Western America, Frankfort, Kentucky Gazette, Lexington, and Louisville Public Advertiser, Louisville, in the state of Kentucky; Knoxville Register, Knoxville, Nashville Whig, Nashville, and Tennessee Watchman, Clarkesville, in the state of Tennessee; Louisiana Courier, New-Orleans, Louisiana Herald, Alexandria, and Louisianian, St. Francisville, in the state of Louisiana; Mississippi Republican, Natchez, and Port Gibson Correspondent, in the state of Mississippi; the Halcyon and Tombigbee Public Advertiser, St. Stephen's, Alabama Republican, Huntsville, and Cahawba Press, Cahawba, in the state of Alabama; Missouri Gazette and Public Advertiser, St. Louis, Independent Patriot, Jackson, and Missouri Intelligencer and Boon's Lick Advertiser, Franklin, in the state of Missouri.

The commision may be expected to meet in this City by the first of May next.

Note.—The present publishers of the Laws of the United States in the several States referred to are requested to publish forthwith this notice in their papers, and send their accounts to this Department for settlement.
