[PUBLIC ACTS.]

AN ACT

Supplementary to the acts to provide for certain persons engaged in the Land and Naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be authorised, and he is hereby authorised and required, to restore to the list of pensioners the name of any person who may have been, or hereafter shall be, stricken therefrom, in pursuance of the act of Congress, passed the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, entitled "An act in addition to an act, entitled 'An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War," passed the eighteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, if such person, so stricken from the list of pensioners, has heretofore furnished, or hereafter shall furnish, evidence, in pursuance of the provisions of said act, to satisfy the Secretary of War that he is in such indigent circumstances as to be unable to support himself without the assistance of his country, and that he has not disposed of or transferred his property, or any portion thereof, with a view to obtain a pension.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That when any person, coming within the provisions of the acts to which this is a supplementary, shall, by reason of bodily infirmity, be unable to attend in court to make his schedule, and furnish the evidence, by said acts required, it shall be lawful for any judge or justice of a court of record in the district, city, county or borough, in which such person resides, to attend at his place of abode, and receive his schedule, and oath or affirmation; and said judge or justice shall certify that said applicant was, from bodily infirmity, unable to attend such court; which schedule, and oath or affirmation, and certificate, shall by said judge or justice be produced in the court of which he is judge; and the opinion of said court, of the value of the property contained in said schedule, shall be entered thereon, and certified by the clerk of said court; and such schedule shall be valid for all purposes contemplated by the acts aforesaid.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That no pension hereafter to be allowed on claims or schedules heretofore filed under the act or acts to which this act is a supplement, or under the provisions of this act, shall commence before the passage thereof; and all other pensions hereafter to be allowed under the acts aforesaid, shall commence from the time of completing the proof.

PHILIP P. BARBOUR,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN GAILLARD,
President of the Senate, pro tempore.
Washington, March 1, 1823.
Approved:
26 JAMES MONROE.

AN ACT

To authorise the Postmaster General to pay for certain repairs to the General Post Office, and to keep the Engine House, the Fire Engine, and apparatus, in repair.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the Postmaster General be authorised to pay, out of the moneys arising from the postages of letters and packets, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and fifty-two cents, being a balance due for repairs to the General Post Office, and for procuring a Fire Engine, under the provisions of the act of the seventeenth May, eighteen hundred and twenty.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General shall be authorised, out of the contingent fund of said Department, to defray such expenses as may be necessary for keeping in repair the engine-house, the fire engine, and hose apparatus, belonging to said Department.

PHILIP P. BARBOUR,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
