MORALS RELIGION AND COMMON SENSE

"Look Up, Lift Up," must have been intended for workers, for Religious Coasters, as all other coasters, always seeks to attain a lower level.

Too many people pray for emergency supplies when they should pray for daily rations.

The man who falls down needs to be helped up. The man who lies down needs to be punched.

The modern prodigal will likely remain at home as long as Dad has any money or gas.

Good enough, is not good enough.

The fellow who is pulling on the oar, does not have time to rock the boat.

The man who wakes up and finds himself famous has not been asleep.

We should have an aim in life and aim at it.

The most of the trouble we have on our hands is borrowed trouble.

Time killers are guilty of first degree murder.

"The wages of sin is death." You don't have to institute a lawsuit to collect the wages of sin.

Habit is either a friend or an enemy. Get the Church Going Habit. Your presence is especially needed on the rainy Sundays when few will be there.

Eastern Shore Happenings

Milford, Nov. 22—Sufficient funds for the erection of a new church edifice were practically assured today during the morning and evening services at the Avenue M. E. Church, when it was announced that $55,000 had been subscribed with the prospect that the amount will reach $75,000 within a few days, with contributions from members and adherents of the church not present at today's services. Dr. G. Layton Grier contributed $25,000. The amount raised and assured is sufficient to guarantee the building of the proposed new church, plans for which contemplate the expenditure of $150,000.

The construction work is to be started early in 1926. The first section to be built will be the Sunday-school edifice, plans for which include a complete departmental Sunday-school with a Sunday-school auditorium.

The structure will be bulit of Brandywine granite, and will be of the modern architecture. It is the purpose of the congregation to make this church one of the handsomest and most complete structures on the Peninsula. The present membership of the church is about 500. It holds the record of having one of the largest Sunday-schools in the State, the average Sunday-school attendance being about 250.

Centreville, Nov. 27—Judge Thomas J. Keating this morning filed an order calling a special session of the Queen Anne's county grand jury on Monday morning, December 7, to investigate charges against Joshua Tiller, a negro, alleged to have committed a crime for which hanging is the extreme penalty. His accuser is the 4-year-old daughter of a resident of near Millington.

It is said officers had succeeded in establishing evidence which they are confident will convict Tiller without the testimony furnished by the victim.

The special session will be the first at this court in twenty-five years.

Tiller is still in Baltimore City Jail, where he was removed by Sheriff Seward and Justice Coursey following an attempted lynching last week.

Georgetown, Nov. 27—Reviving traditions and strengthening themselves in Indian history, as well as preserving their identity as the original Americans, descendants of the once-powerful tribe of Nanticokes, residing in what is known as Indian river, held their annual powwow yesterday.

The ceremonials were conducted in a wood to the rear of River Dale Park, the reservation of their leader, in the presence of several hundred people from different sections of Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Chief Wyniaco, known to the English-speaking people as William Russell Clark, acted as host to the hundreds of "palefaces" who gathered to witness the annual reunion, as well as the distinguished visiting Indian chiefs and professors from the University of Pennsylvania, who within the last three or four years have taken a great interest in the descendants of the Nanticokes.

Crisfield, Nov. 27—The unprecedented series of store robberies continued unabated in Crisfield, bringing the total to fifteen within the past few weeks and no arrests have been made. So far this week five robberies have been reported, in each place attempts were made to open safes. On Tuesday night the offices of Ralph Riggin and Brother and Sterling and Somers but were unsuccessful in opening the safes although they were damaged. Last night robbers entered the drug store of Dr. Harry C. Lewis drygoods store of C. T. Laird and Company and the office of the F. L. Godman Company. The doors to all three safes were wrecked but the thieves were only successful in opening the Godman safe where they secured a small amount of cash. About $100 worth of perfumery was taken from the drug store of Dr. Lewis White; a clock and a few other articles of merchandise were missing from the Laird store.

Finger prints were taken from the Saltz safe last week and detectives have taken a number of prints throughout the town but so far no clue has been secured.

Salisbury, Nov. 27—Aroused from sleep to find his home a raging furnace, Samuel C. White narrowly escaped death today by leaping from a second story window, attired only in a bathrobe. He was the only one in the building at the time.

Valiant work of the fire department in fighting the stubborn blaze probably saved other frame structures in the northern end of the block. White's home and furniture, however, were lost.

White recently figured in the police courts of Baltimore and Salisbury, when, after a sudden disappearance, he was arrested on a train in Baltimore and brought to face embezzlement charges here.

Wilmington, Nov. 27—Crushed beneath a heavy passenger automoblie when it skidded across the road, crashed down a deep embankment and then turned over, one mile north of Glasgow, shortly before 9 o'clock this morning, Viola Wells, 20, of Centerville, Md., is dying in the Union Hospital at Elkton. The girl, her skull crushed and otherwise injured, was reported barely alive at noon by hospital attendants.

As a result of the accident, the State police arrested Franklin Burke, of Chester, Pa., charged with assault and battery. At a hearing before Magistrate Stradley Burke was held in $2,000 bail to await the outcome of Miss Wells' injuries.

Miss Wells spent Thanksgiving day with her parents at Centerville and was returning to Chester, where she is employed. The accident, according to Burke, occurred while the automobile was moving at moderate speed, and is attributed to the slippery condition of the road. Burke said when he applied the brakes to go slower the machine skidded. He escaped injury.

The Sudlersville Town Board has accepted the proposition of Mr. Spencer Walls, of the Sudlersville Packing Co., which will permit them to use the wells at the Cannery in case of fire. The necessary attachments have been made and a flow of about 300 gallons a minute is now available. Mr. J. R. Moore, the Standard Oil Representative here in town, and a master mechanic of exceptional ability, has given his services free in furtherance of this work, which is of inestimable value to the entire community.

The Millington Fire Co. has consented to come down in the near future to give a demonstration.

The citizens of this community are bending every effort to build up an efficient fire fighting force. The proposition of the Packing Co. should receive the commendation of all. The public spirited cooperation exhibit in this matter will soon give this town proper equipment and all adequate supply to meet all fire emergencies.

Seaford, Nov. 26—Dr. Walter E. Gunby, district superintendent of Dover district, Wilmington Conference, presided at a meeting in St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church, here, called for the purpose of outlining a program of evangelism for the Sunday schools in Seaford group, including Seaford, Blades, Greenwood, Bridgeville, Bethel, Seaford Circuit, Laurel, Laurel Circuit, Reliance, Galestown and Federalsburg.

Ministers and laymen from these churches were present. Dr. F. A. Lindhorst, Dover, director of Religious Education of the Wilmington Conference, spoke on the why and when of youth evangelism; the Rev. D. W. Jacobs, Milford, spoke on the preparation for and execution of Decision Day in the Sunday schools, and Dr. Gunby spoke on conserving the results of Decision Day, and relating to the church.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of Cannon School, at its meeting last night, appointed J. J. Allen and George Hill, committee, to solicit goods and articles to be presented to the Delaware colony at Stockley during the Christmas holidays.

Centreville, Nov. 30—An elaborate cow barn, costing $50,000, is to be constructed on Pioneer Point Farm, owned by Mrs. John J. Raskob, near here. Harry F. Callahan, of Centreville, has been awarded the contract for constructing the building and work will be commenced in a few months.

The new home of the Raskob herd will be the finest of its kind in rural Maryland. It will be completely equipped with every modern and sanitary device to provide for the comfort and health of the cows and to insure the quality and cleanliness of the dairy products.

Mrs. Raskob purchased Pioneer Point Farm last spring and during the summer months large forces of laborers were at work clearing the grounds and constructing a hundred-foot recreation pier. Eventually all of of the old buildings will be razed and new, attractive structures erected. Pioneer Point Farm contains 650 acres, and has a water front of nearly four miles.

Buy Christmas Seals

A penny's worth of fresh air to bring color to pale little cheeks and brightness to dull eyes—

A penny's worth of yellow milk to be transformed into good red blood in the veins of a little child threatened with tuberculosis—

A penny's worth of hope for some family burdened with the specter of the great white plague—These are things your penny for a Christmas Seal will do.

Salisbury, Nov. 30—The Eastern Shore's transportation conditions will be discussed at a meeting of the State Commission of Equalization of freight at the Rennert Hotel, Baltimore, on December 4. T. B. Symons, secretary of the commission, appointed by Governor Richie to study the State's transportation problems, has requested a personal report on the Shore conditions from W. T. Gardner, secretary of the Salisbury-Wicomico Chamber of Commerce, whose traffic bureau has won six consecutive freight-rate hearings before the Inter-state Commerce Commission during the past two years.

A. E. Beck, of the Baltimore Association of Commerce, also has been asked to attend, Mr. Symons said.

Dover, Nov. 30—A few minutes after he had called at a friend's home today and asked that a doctor be summoned Howard Spence, 30, of Camden, Del., shot and killed himself. He walked to a shed in the rear of the house, while the friend went to telephone for a physician, and shot himself through the temple.

Authorities learned that Spence complained of being ill when he stopped at the home of Joseph Cetelliva, making the request for a physician. No motive for his act is known.

School Days!
Is your boy's eyesight normal?

Bob's parents knew the tremendous importance of normal eyesight to children. So they had Bob's eyes examined. The slight defect revealed was corrected easily (and in time), by the eyeglasses prescribed.

Wellsworth Windsor spectacles are sturdy and good looking.

Hence Bob's quick answer—his better report cards.
