THE NEWS.

The "dead lock" in the Baltimore City Council came to an end on Monday evening. The Mayor sent in his "green bag," firmed. Mr. Augustus Albert, late Sheriff of Baltimore city, was nominated for Collector of Taxes, but the joint convention, in which the two branches had met, refused to confirm him. It is supposed that the present Collector, Gen. Jas. M. Anderson, will be allowed to serve another term. Mr. Frank Morrison, who was nominated for Superintendent of the Firealarm Telegraph, was also rejected. Jas. A. Buchanan is City Counsellor and John V. L.
